
BOOK OVERVIEW

Micah

Author: The prophet Micah (means “who is like unto Jehovah”)

Date: 749-697 B.C. (he was contemporary with Hosea and Isaiah)

Recipients: He addresses both the Southern and the Northern Kingdoms.

Key words: hear (9 times), gather/assemble (9 times), desolation (4 times)

Summary: Micah proclaims God’s judgement on all of Israel and its restoration through God’s grace.

Key verses: Micah 6:8

Notes:

Micah’s home, Moresheth, was located just a few miles west of Gath. Today, its exact location is uncertain.

It is from Micah 5:2 that Herod’s advisers determined that the Messiah would be born in Bethlehem, King David’s birthplace (John 7:42). Much of the story of Ruth also took place there.

Beating “swords into plowshares” (4:3) speaks of a time of peace, quite the opposite of Joel 3:10 where plowshares were beaten into swords. In those days plows did not have plowshares as we know them but simply had a metal tip.

Micah may have walked the streets of Jerusalem barefoot as a sign of mourning, much like wearing sackcloth and ashes. (1:8)

BOOK OVERVIEW

Micah

Author: The prophet Micah (means “who is like unto Jehovah”)

Date: 749-697 B.C. (he was contemporary with Hosea and Isaiah)

Recipients: He addresses both the Southern and the Northern Kingdoms.

Key words: hear (9 times), gather/assemble (9 times), desolation (4 times)

Summary: Micah proclaims God’s judgement on all of Israel and its restoration through God’s grace.

Key verses: Micah 6:8

Notes:

Micah’s home, Moresheth, was located just a few miles west of Gath. Today, its exact location is uncertain.

It is from Micah 5:2 that Herod’s advisers determined that the Messiah would be born in Bethlehem, King David’s birthplace (John 7:42). Much of the story of Ruth also took place there.

Beating “swords into plowshares” (4:3) speaks of a time of peace, quite the opposite of Joel 3:10 where plowshares were beaten into swords. In those days plows did not have plowshares as we know them but simply had a metal tip.

Micah may have walked the streets of Jerusalem barefoot as a sign of mourning, much like wearing sackcloth and ashes. (1:8)

BOOK OVERVIEW

Micah

Author: The prophet Micah (means “who is like unto Jehovah”)

Date: 749-697 B.C. (he was contemporary with Hosea and Isaiah)

Recipients: He addresses both the Southern and the Northern Kingdoms.

Key words: hear (9 times), gather/assemble (9 times), desolation (4 times)

Summary: Micah proclaims God’s judgement on all of Israel and its restoration through God’s grace.

Key verses: Micah 6:8

Notes:

Micah’s home, Moresheth, was located just a few miles west of Gath. Today, its exact location is uncertain.

It is from Micah 5:2 that Herod’s advisers determined that the Messiah would be born in Bethlehem, King David’s birthplace (John 7:42). Much of the story of Ruth also took place there.

Beating “swords into plowshares” (4:3) speaks of a time of peace, quite the opposite of Joel 3:10 where plowshares were beaten into swords. In those days plows did not have plowshares as we know them but simply had a metal tip.

Micah may have walked the streets of Jerusalem barefoot as a sign of mourning, much like wearing sackcloth and ashes. (1:8)