

ELI GISN.. and a “ A LIFETIME OF HEAVENLY VISITS..... With kingdom thoughts and prose

HE SAVES TO THE UTTERMOST

This book is very much to enlighten anyone who doubts the realities of the kingdoms we do not see. The very real spiritual places where God Himself lives, and to the very real spiritual war that continues on for the souls of men. My sincerest hope is that this will release those who are unsure to take a step of faith.

So if you do not know Jesus, or understand who He is, read on, and perhaps find something that speaks to you deeply enough, and you will be able to say the simple prayer of faith. If you feel so ready, please say this sincerely, Dear Jesus I am a sinner, I believe you are the Son of God, and you died on a cross so I can escape hell and come to love you forever. Now you have joined His family and will have the King of Kings in your heart every day. He will never leave you now, and seeks your spiritual progress. Hebrews 13:5 Never will I leave you or forsake you. You are far more important than you realize. Remember this “ you were made and created for heaven.” It is so simple, and yet so deep.

FIRST REACH

HERE WE GO AGAIN, another book about a trip to heaven. It is really a popular place !!

I will tell you that I have read most, if not all throughout the years. I always read those wonderful and intriguing books with a lot of joy, and then as time went on I grew to read them in faith. I had enough of that which was a great spiritual strength and still is. I understood this was not only real, but that I myself might have the possibility of going. All through the eyes of faith and a heart full of understanding His love, I pursued Him. Hebrews 11:6 But without faith it is impossible to please Him. He is available to be found!

I realized God loved me just as much, but I would have to find the keys. This was my effort, where I applied my intelligence and faith not just to go to heaven, but to find my purpose for Him. Indeed I knew all things are possible to him who believes. I knew I could knock and keep knocking till He answered. Simply put, I just believed it was possible for me or anyone. These simple steps of faith, much like accepting Jesus as savior, were from the innermost workings of the Spirit who dwells within each believer. I also derived from my own walk and experience there had to be a reason, and faith, and these steps have made all the difference.

My understanding grew and deepened whereby my reading turned into a reading of faith for myself to have heavenly experiences, rather than just reading about others. This is an important point as you read on, and I will encourage you to that challenge.

My faith had grown, and that is an important lesson for any person. I applied the truth that I was not a sheep longing for the experience of others, but rather a child of God who had a right to claim her purpose in His kingdom. This continued in life to where I actually understood the plan, the will, the purposes of God and it all continues today as I live it out.

What I never knew or vaguely anticipated is that all this would turn into a lifetime of visits with deep spiritual lessons to keep me on track to fulfill my godly purpose. This was a coat of a different color, one that speaks of our creator's deep love for all of us, as well as His amazing creativity. His sincere response to our effort regarding His kingdom is with unmatched loyalty and faithfulness to his word. Ingenuity, He can do anything. It was the reaching and fulfilling of my godly purpose that seemed to give me the privilege of frequent flier. I was going to need help. And the Lord of glory was keen to get it done this way. This is an important point and is at the very heart of my journaling here and of my life. As well as a future journal that will lead others to their purpose in Christ. This holds the greatest meaning of our lives.

Be different, imagine yourself fulfilling a purpose for Him who has given His life for you. We do it in love, as He has loved us and given so much, this will increase your faith and place you in a different realm, these are first steps. Have faith to go, faith for your purpose,, and why not, this is HOME. What love!!!

HE KNOWS YOU

So here I am... and here we are... and it all really happened ! The Lord is never far, and He is near to each of us, and concerned in ways we have not yet understood. Ready to bless us in ways we have not expected as well. Just as there has always been a special purpose for your life, there exists for you opportunities to see the spirit realm and the heavenlies.

There has always been a purpose for each trial, each trip to heaven, hell as well, and all the spiritual stuff that just happens daily for ALL of us. Today I am called to write, and to resolve any doubts you have. To demystify heaven for you, in your conceptual reality and from a place deep within all of us. If we speak in concepts, heaven is our total salvation. The culmination, the everlasting, the complete redemption from any harm, evil, sin. Where He embraces us fully. Also to stir within you that call to your personal significance here that is more real than the ground we walk on. He waits.

And most decidedly, to bring those who do not yet know or understand the cross, and what Jesus has done for us, to bring them in, to invite them deeply to this new place, in the spirit, and to a friendship with the Lord. With the whole body of Christ and to arrive at a destiny: our heavenly home.

Whole blocks of my spiritual journey and miles of His mercies will not appear directly in this record. There is simply too much to tell. The multitudes of healings in body, soul and mind and life will not be recorded in their fullness. The mercies, the grace, the miracles, though I will mention a few. They are too numerous. Which is alone an indication of His enormous grace. You will hopefully absorb the goodness of the Lord through what I have chosen to tell, and what the Lord has shown me is most important throughout. Of course many of you know many things already, but perhaps there are things to learn too.

Let me be perfectly clear not to paint a rosy picture, there has been sin and trials from that, and trials from others sin and deep trials, so deep the enemy wanted the results to last a lifetime. " I saved you for your purpose," an important spiritual truth He spoke to me many times. My trials have been deep, but with so very much grace to recover.. and many I have recovered by a hair if not for His love and grace. I will never find the room to chart it all. The greatest discovery, and the greatest truth....God has been deeper than all of it !! He worked so hard to keep me on track for His purposes !! His plans have eternal value for others' salvation. He will always work with us for that!

GOALS AND HOPES

My goal is to give you deep encouragement, and to change your very perspective on life and who you are with resounding hope that comes from insight into His godly kingdom. I hope you will enjoy my prose and poetry as well, from which I aim to give you more thoughtfulness.

What I will hope to accomplish is to set you free to see the sights, hear the sounds, feel the heal, and that you as a human being will understand how very important you are. Knowing how much Jesus did for us at the cross proves that point. If you absorb this truth so fully you will then find glimmers of who you are in light of eternity. Life will make so much sense when your understanding deepens. People also need to know the absolute reality of heaven that is waiting. This helps our perspective tremendously and helps us to adjust our behaviors. Hope comes alive, we are made for this !

WE ARE

You see, who we are is so very significant and meaningful in light of the cross. All things are encompassed here, in the breath and life of the cross. Our hidden identity glows with meaning and purpose here. Please read in faith, this is the first step to understanding during our journey here on earth. There may be other steps, and other reasons that are known only to the Lord, and between you and Him that I will not pretend to know. This is significant as I am not assuming my readers have had no experience with Christ. Or that I know more than they do; this is but one encouragement. If you are doubtful today of Him, you need not be. You may take His free gift of salvation at any moment you breathe here.

POWER TOOL

Yes, each encounter with heaven that we have or read about, every one of them has been determined and designed by the Lord to create a ripple, a movement, to have an effect on this earthly realm. They are intended to bring light to darkness, to furnish the earth with a little more of His wisdom. His light, His power, his love showcase the reality of heaven. He also told me that He needs people to know the reality of heaven. This life is but one gift, one part of the covenant agreement. When this happens the exchange is truly amazing between the spirit realm and the earth. It is a very powerful and effective tool the Lord is using to expand his kingdom and reach the lost. When heavenly guests return, that fresh anointing begins to cover this realm, and finds its way into the corners of this earth that need the most light and healing. Heavenly visits are a power tool the Lord is using to make Himself known. A witness to His grace is a powerful thing. Matthew 5:16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

TOO GREASY

Every anointing and visit is slightly different, and can contain different lessons in the spirit. It is a very slippery and greasy spot. What I mean is the enemy cannot find it fast enough to stop it, the anointing and the glory are too heavy and swift for him. It is unmistakable when witnessed and felt, and therefore unarguable, and it works to the Lord's intentions very fast. It cripples the enemy. People receive the heavenly, the understanding of all things spiritual, and make decisions for Christ very quickly, upon hearing.

Pray for more heavenly visits. Believe for your experience here to be interrupted by His loving will and visits to your eternal home. Matthew 7:7

Ask, and it shall be given you: seek, and ye shall find; knock and it shall be opened unto you, for everyone that asks, receives, he that seeks, finds, and to him that knocks, it shall be opened. It sounds like Jesus is not leaving anyone out! ! For everyone He says, Ask , seek, it shall be given! I notice here in this scripture He likes effort. Just like any parent who gets a handmade card from a little one. The effort means so very much ! And the gifts and love He has waiting for us are truly amazing ! He just never quits helping His family...what a dear truth to hold close to your heart !

ME..... JUST A SLIVER

I don't want to subject you to a long history of my life. Suffice it to say, I am a sinner who has been rescued from a life of sin like many people. But Oh, I have learned so very much. He aims to use it for good. Thus, the book, the trips, the destiny. God's grace has been so tremendous and intervening. He knows who he sent, ME, YOU. We are apostles here and we have been sent for a reason. Our soul started in heaven, and we now dwell here. WHY? The word apostle in the Greek means to be sent. He knows His plans and what the means for the lost. These purposes the enemy hid and worked hard to destroy early on. But we are not constrained to this earthly realm, Jesus has paid for us to have supernatural help, and I have gladly followed Him there in life into a plan and a purpose for HIM.

Living in the country for a long time now, I could give lessons on how to create a great mulch pile, or show you the best spot to grow tomatoes (which is right near the house on the south side as it is extra warm already, and will protect from harsh winds). But I have been impressed of the Lord and called to write about all my visits in a not so earthly way ! I got called to write when I met a large angel, named Eli. This should be great fun, so let's get started. First, I will return to a time 10 years or so prior to meeting Eli.

Chapter 2 THE WINDOWS 1998

It was deep winter in New England, January 10 to be exact. The earth stood still with frost and bitter cold, the ground solid as iron, and the top of the hill where I lived was 5 degrees colder than everywhere else. It was a day to be home as soon as possible and be thankful for it, no one wanted to step out if they did not have to.

It was the late 90's. I was in a good place with God, I had reached for salvation, early on, but had finally gotten all of it. I was a developed christian, and not a worldly one, dipping in and out of his kingdom, my feet were and are firmly planted in His kingdom. I had grown up in Him. At last.

I had recently reached even further into my purpose for Him, and was touching the heavenly all the time. In light of this reach I believe, I became the happy recipient of more of His love and grace. Far more than I ever could deserve. Psalm 103:10 He has not rewarded us after our sins: nor rewarded us according to our iniquities. All I can say is so very sincerely and from my depths is " thank God for that".

Because we are made for this, and He died for us to deserve it, these are the reasons we receive blessing after blessing. He will reach further to us, if we reach further to Him, It is important to note how much the Lord of Glory will work with us, especially if we are doing something for Him.

My life was on track with Him and keenly aware of His presence and leading and oh my, His love, just the best thing to have, indeed, the best way to live out our earthly life in my opinion. His love and care and resources were alive and real to me,,, what a place to be! Oh I am still here today in that love in 2023! You see how long He stays with us !! Oh Forever in fact ! Hebrews 13:5 I will never leave you or forsake you.

SCALLOPS Jan 10

.... Scallops tonight,,,a rare treat,,,,home from a good day's work,,, and just a little lemon..salt and olive oil,,,should be done in no time,,,low heat...add some seltzer if it gets dry....what a great little recipe ... a bit of luck ...wait a bit for the story here to come back !

GWEN

I had two cats and lived in a small ranch on a high bendy road. The cats were sisters that I found on a passing road. The sign read FREE kittens, I said.....
“STOP!”

I had married such a nice man, who would be glad to. I named them Gabby and Gwen. The kittens were outside in a small field in a farm- like setting. The young girl that was tending them, handed us one kitten, gently and easily, a small black one. She seems sweet enough and easy to handle, this would be Gabby. Then the girl said “ her sister, the other one, hops”.... What do you mean hops ?” Is she a bunny rabbit... .no... she is a cat, the conversation went . I just can't catch her... .the girl continued...she hops..” Sure enough if you looked into the ranging field of brush that stretched a mile and we could see this strange figure hopping up and then again a few feet away.... one bounce.... then quiet, then again you would see her, then she would disappear, what was she doing? We knew if we ever caught this kangaroo- like-kitten, or bunny, she would be a challenge in some way, and yes we wanted to bring her home, feeling it would be more interesting and helpful for the two to be together. I vaguely remembered how we actually caught her. Now I am pretty sure the young girl and I tried and gave up from exhaustion. It makes sense that my husband was the one who finally corralled her in, and had the most strength to capture her. He always comes through in these situations, and with a lot of intuitiveness combined with outstanding agility, he seems to be able to do what others cannot. He is a gift. He captured the kangaroo-cat he would come to dearly love.

THE GIFT OF GWEN

Gwen had a personality to be remembered, she only stepped outside on the nicest of days, we came to know her as a type of weather barometer. She could gauge the weather with amazing accuracy, the colder or damper the weather, the deeper she hid, you would never find her on those days, then, when spring began to unfold, she would slowly emerge, but only on the driest, nicest days would she trickle out doors. It is from this we predicted with regularity a nice New England day in the region's unpredictable patterns. When it was going to rain, but we were still unsure, one would not see her. Gwen would be submerged in the bed covers, the big lump was there and one could be sure it was going to rain. It was an unconventional way to know if I should fetch my umbrella or not, but it worked like a clock.

GABBY TOO

Her sister Gabby was a genius who moved the dresser pulls about every night for years, before she learned how to actually open the drawers, (that is a lot for a cat I have always thought). She also used to try to turn the touch lamp off. This was less successful. After watching us turn it off at night, she wondered if she might have a go. She tried every night for years, but she was unsuccessful with that one, because it never works for fur paws, needing the heat of our human fingers to work. But what a pair these two were to live with, not to mention the most hilarious and kind husband the Lord graced me with.

SO SHINES THE SON...the very face of the Son

But back to Jan 10 and the scallops among other things. Gwen greeted me at the door, not her usual attitude, "the food truck is home", who is that anyway? Mommy who? No, I mean she MET me at the door. Her hair was on end: this time from excitement and not from fear, she was happier ...she was lit up,,, twirling like a top, I must say the twirling really got me thinking, I never saw that one before, just spinning and spinning. She had seen something, she was communicating with us on a very deep level, this was going to be amazing and real, I could feel it. There was an imminent meeting in the mix. There was a certain palpable excitement in the air.

FOLLOW THAT CAT

I was and am familiar with the spirit realm and had no problem discerning the spirit of the Lord in the house.

I must follow her, down the hallway we proceeded, she was leading, I followed her, not knowing what to expect, but knowing the Lord was in it. He was here, she had felt His presence and was excited about it. She had been in the presence of the Lord while waiting for us to arrive ! (As I said earlier, this was a special cat.) She had intuition and felt things spiritually. Although it is also true and biblical that any and all animals can feel the presence of God and be used of Him. He knows and loves them too, and they are helpers for us. He knows what they feel, and when we see them in heaven they will be able to communicate more fully with us, about our life with them here. I have occasionally heard the Lord telling me what they know, how they are, even one pup I have now who God shows loves me more than the other and other things about how they feel and what they are communicating. I do so appreciate to know what their body language means or how they feel, and I love the Lord of Glory for filling me in from time to time. Recently, my cat Graylen jumps up on my lap every night at the same time, and is saying “ you are my favorite” Oh, how I love knowing that.

THE SIMPLE

Now from time to time, certain windows in my house would frost up. A lot of this came from the fact that a few had cracks in them, and we lived on a high hill that was so very cold. We were young and found that if we plugged them up with old socks during the winter, it would tighten up the leaks. I just thanked God for his provision as it was, and made no big deal. This would frequently result in a usual visitation of frost or moistness which I promptly wiped clean so I could convince myself there was no problem.

Now back to Gwen..I followed her down the hall. It was a short trek, but we could all feel the tingle in the air, so I entered the room where she was leading, the back bedroom, over to the window, and there it was,

Jesus manifests in the frost ..the very face of the Son

It was a beautiful visage of His entire body and hair, but He was not facing me. He wore a simple white robe that extended to his toes. Now when Jesus is in your window, you are glad of it, so glad that you don't care a great deal why he has his back turned. Just keep trusting, just keep trusting, the cry of my heart through life and now, in the window as well.

In fact, after a few moments, I remembered in my heart, that we can always trust the Lord, even when something doesn't make sense to our eyes, or it is out of the usual way we do things. Romans 11:33 O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God ! How unsearchable are his judgements, and his ways past finding out !

In fact, the Bible states my ways are not your ways, and he really does not do things how we think it should be done. He also does not do them the same way a second time, and there is always a reason. We can still trust that it is Him, and He knows what is best. I speak and pray this for myself right now and just as much for anyone reading. We need to learn how to trust Him. Life is not meant to be lived through our own opinions all the time as believers. We are guided to cast down imaginations. 2 Corinthians 10:5 in the Greek " imaginations" means logic and reasoning. He has something better for us than our own opinions. His wisdom is our option and is meant to direct our life. This gives us fullness of understanding here. We are redeemed from our own path and ignorance that life would be without Him.

We stayed at the window a long time, just gazing, loving. Receiving, truly those moments transcend any words, for all of us, it is so intimate, so real. Just as deep as the Lord's love is so it goes. This moment signified the beginning of my service to him, at the very heart of my purpose, to raise a family for him, who would come to love him and understand what I know so very deeply in the spirit, and bring that to the world in His own time, in His own way. I had known these things instinctively and deeply and quietly. I may add, my whole life. He has this for each one of us, we just need to listen, and decide upon it. It is called knowing who you are.

We exchanged many personal things, and I was taken to a place of awe and wonder and out of this world experience. I looked down, and Gwen was there enjoying the sight and wonder of Jesus, knowing it was from another place too. She was captivated, as was I.

My husband Joe had now arrived home, and apparently Gwen found him in the hallway, and he met up with her just as I did. She started leading him. He noticed her unusual behavior and being used to the supernatural, was able to follow her lead as something God was using at that moment.

He was rushing down the hallway with excitement, I started shouting, "follow Gwen, follow Gwen!" It did not matter he already knew. He arrived, and saw the window, he embraced the moment of love and intimacy with the Lord as I was.

Now we were both gazing at this amazing visage of our Lord and Savior, not in the flesh, but in the intricacy of the frost, in the most humble place in the world, a cracked, broken, old, window !!

THE LOWLY ONE

Have you ever looked for him in the lowly places? Matt 11:29

Take my yoke upon you, and learn from Me: for I am meek and lowly in heart; And you shall find rest for your souls. Stay low friends, in love with Him, this is the place of rest. We will never find it in pride, show or striving.

He said of himself, I am humble and lowly in heart. He did not show up on a bright brilliant stage. Maybe He is waiting to find you in the lowly places of your life and accomplish things there. I know a lot about this kind of life. I have always been able to trust Him in the not so conventional places. It is actually a strong skill I was gifted with. You have them too. He was born in a stable. Maybe he is trying to tell us something.

Prov 11:2 When pride cometh, then cometh shame, but with the lowly is wisdom. I strive to stay low. The enemy can't knock me down, I am already there.

We all exchanged more things in the spirit with Gwen who was still spinning like a top, and over the moon, that her normal little dwelling, small and quiet, would have a visit of the heavenly kind... and she was a part of it. Animals can sense the presence of God, once I had a dog that went out in the spirit.

They know the Lord more than we think. They have not broken covenant as much as we have, and can be used by Him more readily. This is an opinion I hold. They understand things like death, pain, and when they are needed. I believe they work for Him. He even calls them home mercifully. He feels for their sufferings.

BACK TO THE WINDOW

These were moments of pure joy and rest, and suddenly we are transcending this life, into another realm, another dimension. It was wondrous and glorious and I need to reiterate that we are made for this. A part of you knows it is different, and a part of you jumps right in, like you are swimming in a pool you always wanted to be in, and most assuredly, you deserve to be there.

And then it happened. The image of Jesus begins to rotate. Yes, rotate. A slow movement proceeds in timing as I see the ponytail on the back of Jesus' head begin to disappear. Tick tock there is a definite click to the rotation, a timing. It is then I realize, He turned at just the right moment, He was waiting for Joe. You see we are one person, and the other half of me had to arrive and then we could see Jesus face to face together. Now I understand the reason, Jesus would never turn his back rudely on any of His children. He did not want to appear fully for me alone. Yes, there was a reason, I trusted it, I trusted Him, and now it was clear.

I had a good friend who lived close by, my thoughts raced to her, I thought of calling her, no I cannot miss anything.... but then I realized too, this was our time together, He had a reason.

We stayed there a long time just fellowshipping in the spirit. He seemed to put in my heart things that were most important to him regarding the job I had to do ahead of me. Raising this family for him. He was almost crying with how important it would be for us to live it out for Him in a holy way, a certain way. His kingdom's way, to keep this family from the pollutants of the world. Then He will be able to use my family for His purposes. He seems to convey to me at this point the enemy will be rife against us. Waiting for worldly sins and spills and slips, ready to accuse, to destroy, there is no joking here. The enemy is deadly serious against these children who will belong to God. The war is on. We must be ready soldiers, and not sheep, many battles ahead.

To avoid the enemies' plans for us. It was so important, he showed up in the window. He was asking me to serve Him in this way, and it will be a special journey, it will be a long and even unusual journey, all of this has proved true.

SOFTER NOW

Just as a single flower
Will push its way
Through a barren slab
Now the squares
Are then softened
By the seemingly impossible odds
Of nature
So the sweet surprise
Of His plan
Captured in the cold window
Now embroidered on my heart
Offering understanding
For the unknown soul
Where a seed may grow

SCALLOPS....OH.. THE SCALLOPS

Being at one of my closest moments to Jesus, it was easy to forget the scallops.
Oh no.

When my feet finally hit the earth, I went running into the kitchen, the smell of smoke permeating the air. They were a rare treat, and I was very disappointed that they were burned to a crisp and reduced to small burnt little brown peas. I bit one in hopes there was something left but it just left a gritty dirty taste in my mouth. I was sad I had to throw everything out and I wound up opening a can of tuna that would not open correctly, and I had to scoop out the cold mess, and it was all so lousy. I mentioned all this to let you know with assurance that when we serve Him, or are doing something for Him in any way, if something is lost in the process He will be faithful to make it up to us. A short time later we were given a large cut of meat, a pot roast, around Easter. I knew it was Him making it up to us. You see He is counting with amazing timing and accuracy, anything lost, if you are busy for Him, serving Him, it will not be lost.

To add to this, He also knows anything we are intended to have here that has been snatched from our own sin, or other's sin, and He is making returns for His children, who serve him, even in this lifetime. Victory is ours, I finally understand that old song.

The next morning was not to disappoint, the anointing in the window was to continue, my husband was off to work early, and I was to view this myself.

BRADLEE

Hebrews 13: 2 Let brotherly love continue. Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares.

Bradlee is the name of my guardian angel. I had met him briefly in the 7th grade, but this time he was really showing off.

To my great surprise and astonishment the next morning he manifested in the same window. The frost had gathered together to form his visage and there he stood in the excellence of his beauty and of heaven in the icy glass. He was outstanding. I could even see the expression on His face. The first thing I saw was a proud smile. This smile reflected the love of God, and it gleamed with the knowledge that salvation rested upon me. This is the true delight of the Christian. I remember the shine emanating from Him, yes it is true the sun was coming up, but the shine, the glory, the splendor, it was different than our sunshine, it gleamed with glory, and spoke more of heavenly things. I had the distinct feeling, they have this all the time in heaven.

James 1:17 Every good and perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. Under His governance, there is no sin in heaven, the conditions are stellar, perfect. It is the Lamb who keeps it that way. He never changes from this inexplicable light, there are no shadows. A shadow of turning implies night, and there is no night there. It can also mean anything negative for the soul. There is nothing that can keep you sad, He fixes it. This is true to His word, there is no shadow of sorrow also. He is our Savior forever this way. We should not just go our own way, He is all that here too if we let Him be.

My angel Bradlee was friendly looking, with a wonderful smile that would not quit on his face. He was dressed with the splendor and glory of heaven. He shone with brilliant light, this was humbling. Yet the smile, o that smile, it let me feel warm and accepted even in the presence of glory. He stood like iron, strong and planted and sure. He had one large wing that was oversized and was positioned in back of him somehow, he had two arms crossed in front of him and a long flowing outfit. He was statuesque and yet so full of love and so full of his purpose to care for me I was not afraid of him. I trusted Bradlee. What a perfect combination of strength and gentle servanthood. I understood this to be the Lord's genius. Bradlee's presence quickened my understanding from a place deep within me that the Lord was on the move and alive with his assignment. The Lord's purpose and was about to be released. That very thing, the very reason for which I existed. Yes, this was the time.

These angels are punctual, dutiful, and have a great comprehension of their job, and perform it with mastery and great joy. They have exact orders that they have been successful at performing for centuries, and here is something unknown, if we are serving the Lord, they can actually learn from us too. And they love us.

YES, THEY LOVE US

And we love them too, and there is a great understanding of that in the heavenly realm. So there he was showing off his one great wing, secured like a fluorescent lightning rod on his back, arms folded, smiling at me. He stood immovable and he was strong and yet not proud or heavy with any spirits from the world. I find this most refreshing. I found a sense of friendly welcoming.

These angels work for the King, and they understand exactly what is to be done, at any given moment, in regards to God's children.

Now think about that for a moment, we all have one guardian angel assigned to us, throughout our life, can you see how much the Lord regards and cares for His family! It is an AMAZING amount of care. They have detailed assignments, to your needs with such specifications and details that it boggles the mind ! We are that important to Him !

THE HOLY CITY

1998.... yet eternal

I will say it was the next day right after the first visitation in the window, with Bradlee, but it may have been a bit later, it was in and around a very close period of time. Deep winter. The frost had manifested and this by far the most amazing dramatic scene I have ever witnessed. I knew the Lord was honoring me for trials I cannot begin to explain. This I was told later.

This was a spectacular display, and I love the nature and the humor of the Lord, it is truly amazing and deep. Here I am with old broken widows in an old house, and He is using them to show me the glories of heaven. I say this as an important lesson, He does not show himself in an earthly show as we know it, or on our terms. His real reasoning and purpose lies in humble places. I can say this again as I have followed Him there many times, in some very deep ways. At these moments and trials feeling the most joy and promises from the Lord. There are too many.

I AM WITH YOU ALWAYS Hebrews 13:5

One time I saw a homeless man in layers of dirty clothing, sitting on a bench near the opening of a grocery store. I wanted to help him. He was not making any attempt to move or look at me, he remained stoic under his only protection a black sweatshirt with a hood. I looked closely at this face, under the hood he had on, there I saw Jesus. I understood his need for self protection and his exhaustion. He could not move. It was so real a reflection I wanted to go sit down and talk to Jesus..." hey,, I always wanted to see you here in the flesh..." we know this won't happen until He returns. It took me a moment to realize He was so close to this man in his condition, His eyes and care were appearing inside of the man's eyes. I think maybe even that homeless man did not even realize it was happening but he probably felt the presence and care of the Lord. It was amazing. I saw the Lord once this way in my eyes, which is why I thought of it. I was so young, after a whole heart prayer, one that involved all my effort, I was taken to the feet of Jesus. I think at these moments He cannot help but respond. When I rose up His eyes were imaging in my eyes. There are no other eyes like his. He is beautiful and deep. I knew He would be with me forever now. Although I still have many lessons in learning how to trust him.

I think the man was on the verge of not being able to go on, and we need to see the plight of the homeless as a health care emergency. They are mercilessly exposed to the elements. It also took me a while in life, and in my growth, to realize what Jesus meant when He said I am with you.

Hebrews 13:5 I will never leave you or forsake you. So much more than the nice phrase I believed it to be. Within that simple promise contains the promise of help, comfort, reward, wisdom, miracles, and the direct intervention of angels. The list goes on my friend. It is no wait for heaven” deal the Lord has purchased for us dear ones, it is here, it is now in daily life, and it is real. He rises to the occasion of His children and their needs. More deeply understood; so we can continue in life and reach those who do not know His tremendous care and love. He needs us. He told me my visit with the man would help him somehow.

NO SHADOWS

He alone will stay
With us as we
Dwell in the shadows
Of this winter
Listen children, this shall not Always be
Further in and further up
He will draw us in and draw us up
Only He can fill our cup

He who has brought us here
Will lead us someday home
Our ship that sways in waters
Will never someday roam

THE NEW JERUSALEM

The Holy City manifests
I was not expecting this. There was a translucent shimmering, healing glow about the whole city. That is an understatement, the shimmering took on a life of its own. I could feel the healing from the city start to resonate inside my every cell, deep into my core, the very whole of my being. There is a place inside of each of us when we will recognize that we are “in the glory”. We will recognize the city made for us. This is the place we are made for. This is the place the enemy recognizes when he sees us, it is the place he fears, it is the reason for many attacks. You are special. Embrace this truth and you will never fall for the stunts and lies of the enemy. Be special every day. We can let our self esteem dwell here and never suffer from a low opinion of ourselves. He made a Holy City for us.

Rev 21:10-27

And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God, Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal;

And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel:

On the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west three gates.

And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

And he that talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal.

And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald;

The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst.

And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; every several gates was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as if it were transparent glass.

And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.

And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honor into it.

And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there.

And they shall bring the glory and honor of the nations into it.

And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life.

IRREPLACEABLE

There were layers and layers of buildings and streets, reaching ever upward in a spiral effect and height. Each one deeper and more iridescent than the next one. Truly nothing on earth can be compared to the splendor of this city. It stood tall with one layer of homes and streets stacked upon one another with winding steps and sweeping movements. Everything twinkled, it pulsed with the heartbeat of the Lamb, and all inhabitants praise Him with great reverence and deep joy for all He has done for us. To miss this would be to miss EVERYTHING. It begins with the salvation of your soul.

The color pulsed with sheer gold and different various shades of gold and white, maybe some yellow. It was offset by what looked like ice and iridescent sheen. Everything glimmered with His golden glow and yet to stare at it did not overwhelm the eyes. This was far from that. It just continually twinkled and lustered before my eyes with a definite healing glow. It drew you in deeper and deeper, I wanted to be here watching with all my heart, and I knew I belonged there. But for now I was happy just to be able to take this all in. More than a treat, it was a delight to the soul, an incredible and deeply spiritual happening. So profound it was known to me that I would never be able to experience or know anything that was of more value or had more meaning or more love. It was irreplaceable. Absolutely irreplaceable. So the ache for the lost. I felt it deeply at this moment. The thought of those who would miss this life that Jesus died for us to have. Irreplaceable. There is nothing more worth having. My burden for the lost became real and apparent here. They will never know this. I will do all I can, I will follow the Lord's directions. This is another reason for the manifestations in the window. It is that important.

I realized so very quickly that the powerful glow in the city came from a condition of the spirit, not of man's design, as it would be luminated from paints or lights, of course not, but the glow formed from a spiritual place, and that was from the absence of sin, and the power of redemption. The powerful glow spoke deeply to me of His power, there will be no resisting it. No need of sun or moon, for the glory of God is lighting it, as the word states. It was shining with the light of righteousness and shining with delight of the Son of God Himself. I could see all the intricacies of the streets, they wind and wind around and there was so much detail and I knew they were inhabited by the people of God. This is where righteousness dwells as the word says. There is holiness in the air, everyone knows about it. I knew someday I would enter it too and be where they are. I saw small nooks and crannies of homes and streets, and things I could not explain what they were, just places, so many places, it was so deep. It was deep with an everlasting love. This is not far from us here if we will choose to see things that way.

I used to see things the other way. I am here. He is there. That is actually a form of a lie. It is a fact. It is not the truth. The truth is we are citizens even here of the Holy city, in the spirit. Citizens waiting to be translated. We are.

I knew in the spirit that the inhabitants felt safe there, and so much more than just a physical safety, they are free and protected from hell. They know it deeply, that God has redeemed them from the payment of sin we all deserve, and they are safe from that place called hell and that destiny. It is a deep and overriding understanding there, that all are in heaven because they have embraced knowledge of the cross. Protected and privileged, but there was not a trace of pride, and the only cost of living there was the price Jesus paid. This attitude translated here would give this world more peace, but most do not know how to do it. This world bases itself with the pride of life, on what it earned. Grace means just that, it is not earned. This grace is also our equalizer against pride.

THIS IS HOW I REALLY FEEL

It was magnificent, untouched by sin, love and perfection drove its beauty. Divine dimensions, it reached tall and grand, yet there was an end. It seemed to have an eternal freedom within, in respect that you could feel the unlimited joy and resources of heaven. This internal dimension is one we will never tire of. It becomes ours to enjoy for all eternity. We cannot comprehend this because we have not had it yet. Can you imagine the Lord of glory, never letting us get bored or tired, but that is what heaven is all about, endless benefit, an endless expression of His love. The deepest expression of His love, that is what heaven is. This is how He really feels about us, now let that sink in deep, and tell somebody about it when you get it in your knower.

Revelation speaks of this city Rev 21:15 in scope. One significant thing I did notice is that there was definite size and dimension, a measure, if you will, the city did not reach endlessly out of sight. One could feel the pulse of the city was love, and righteousness and holiness.

It has been purchased for us as a gift, and it was everywhere you wanted to be. The dimensions of the city have sought to be imitated. If you are familiar with French gothic architecture, which I am not, but I found some information on it. The French sought to mimic the same dimensions from the Bible in their cathedrals in Europe. It really is an interesting thing to study, there is something Fibonacci about it all, and the science of mathematics.

God has an amazing sense of humor. I often laugh at the smallness and brokenness of my windows at the top of a hill, and yet, that didn't stop him a bit, here the brilliance of the Holy City, in windows I had no inspiration to fix. He can still give his children a trip to heaven from right here, and this is a lesson for all of us. Heaven and earth are not so far apart, if you believe in miracles. He told me later that He was honoring me with these revelations.

BACK SURGERY 1998 WE ARE INDESTRUCTIBLE.

This surgery was the culmination of an attack on my back that lasted 18 years, it was the final step towards healing. I was at a point where God would need my back for his service and He was all over it. The promises were flowing like rain, the words of love and comfort were a part of my daily life. Love in action on my behalf and I was more than grateful for all of it.

Upon our salvation, immortality and eternal life has begun, God can touch our bodies here as we STAND on this truth. Surgery was a part of my healing, but the greater touches and restoration of such an attacked and painful back came from the Lord only. Without Him I would not be standing today. He accomplished so much work on the terror the enemy reigned over my back it was as though He was throwing punches and defeating that devil once and for all. And that is exactly what He did.

But I stood FIRST ON HIS TRUTH, now I stand physically because of that. Again, there is too much to tell, the amazing promises, the months of waiting, the therapies, following His plan, the people He used to help me, it is endless. Not to mention a christian husband who lights up like a Christmas tree full of God's promises and love. I had all His promises in bold print on pink pieces of construction paper. All I could really do was watch a bit of television while I waited for surgery, so I taped His promises all around the small TV set we had. It looked freaky, but not to me, if all I had was those pink pieces of paper, it was life to me. I ingested those promises while in immense pain. A word came through to me when someone was praying for the sick... Just thank him,.. you are in tremendous pain, as at this point I was on the floor, ,, just thank him.... I knew He was moving on my behalf.... and surgery was the next step. He was unlocking this hell, and the doctors were the first step and he used them too. Do write down boldly His promises and don't let the circumstances fool you, look upon them daily. My back is perfect today, even the X-rays are clear. I followed His leading and I am well today. Yes, He worked for me, and I am able today to work for Him. What a plan. He worked on my back well beyond the surgery and when He was done, He put a small white cross on the site. I still have that cross on my back and it signifies His work, his love, and victory over the enemy. It is final. He put iron rods (of the spirit) in my back and nothing has ever afflicted it again. I mention all this as it was in the same area of time as the visitations and visage in the window. He was at work in a big way so I would not miss serving Him. It is always worth the ride to serve Him I have found.

ANGEL IN THE HOUSE

I will tell you a funny story right around the same time as the windows. After back surgery, not a trivial thing. I was in bed recovering, barely able to make it to the bathroom. I looked down the hall and I knew Bradlee was there, right near the kitchen leaning against the wall with his arms folded. I know this sounds crazy but I knew he did not know I was looking at him, and scheming at that. While in the bathroom, I came up with a plan, I could not resist the opportunity. I was going to touch that angel. What would it feel like to touch that wing, that beauty, that heavenly creature. I quietly meandered down to where he was posted. I pretended I was interested in some books nearby. He was not moving, just there with his arms folded. I kept walking as if I was just going to enter the kitchen, suddenly I was on top of him. I rushed my hand to touch him, surely he would not think I am able, and with a swoop of air, he folded and lifted his wings so there was absolutely no way for me to touch him. I actually heard the swoop of angel wing and boy that was a fast wing. The speed he had was tremendous. He moved with lightning speed, but you have to admit I came very close, and I remained undetected in my intention to touch an angel. I sensed a moment of surprise on him, my condition most likely fooled him. Why would I try that while recovering, but I am so strong, and so intent to find out, he was not expecting that !! But Bradlee had out maneuvered me. I had him fooled only for a moment. Of course it is impossible to touch him, but I wanted to see what would happen.

He was very relaxed standing there, I could tell, but woke up quickly, and avoided me. It was great fun to have an angel in the house, they are with us all the time, but my back condition brought him closer, somehow I could see them, and know what was going on. Later I found out he did not want me to fall and be hurt, so he swooped aside. I am telling you, it is an amazing amount of care! We can touch spirit to spirit, but not physical to spirit. I kinda knew that, but had to try.

Speaking of touching spirit, we are really touching it all the time.

WE SHALL BE KNOWN

1 Corinthians 13:12 "For now we see through a glass darkly; but then face to face; now I know in part; but then; shall I know even as also I am known..." Everything about heaven is that we shall know fully. We are educated from the depths and grace of His love and understanding. It completes us in a way we do not know here. " Even as we are known," Yes we know and understand one another, and we understand all things. Our accountability to one another is immense. It contains within it His love for us and our love for Him. As He has loved and forgiven us, so we must forgive. We cannot find His plan for us without the kingdom first within us. There are many applications here. He completes our understanding of things, so it is easier to forgive. We, as His own, receive much of this here as well. It's all wiped there, all ignorance, questions, fears, just wiped. The glass is no longer dark. Being poetic, I love these phrases. There is no shadow there, this includes any ignorance. He holds the answer to all our questions, mistakes, queries, problems, relationships. No shadow of ignorance or query shall hold us there.

Colossians 2:3 In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. I have always thought of this scripture fondly, and in the context of “this is someone I really want to know”. We can see why we know all things, no shadow, no darkness, no glass darkly, all this is from He who knows all. He is our completion, through Him, and there is nothing like it, there is no match to it, no equal to it, no competition to rival it. This can happen here when our spirit becomes part of His kingdom, we are not confined to this earthly realm’s knowledge. We know more, he can help us, he can warn us we hear him. We can follow him in wisdom, which, if applied, will lead to our success. A great benefit. And in heaven our knowledge of all things becomes complete. But we can run a close race here if we are wise. All the tools in the spirit are available to us. He loves us that much, and partners with us if you will, and He wants us to know what He knows. This is an important aspect of our salvation, as there exists within his knowledge of all things a great healing, a great transformation into who we really are. This relationship, this partnership, will lead others to Him. We are stronger together, we look more like Him if we are as one.

YOU CAN STUDY THAT FOREVER...IF YOU WANT TO

Heaven is a place of keen intelligence, answers are available and spoken always, in light of any of your questions and for our education. Ignorance has no part of this place. This belongs to the other camp. Speaking of education, you can study anything you want to in heaven, there is so much of it going on. One notable topic being studied is how the enemy has done things in the church and how he has fooled us and tried to overthrow God’s plans throughout history. This is my purpose. To understand this in depth. Every trip led me to more intensive study about it when I returned. This led to this web site and shows how the body of Christ can work together. You can find this body of work at tracts.com.

In fact, here is what the Lord spoke to me one day. “ALL of history is satan’s attempt to overthrow the works of God.” When we study a war for example, we are really witnessing what has happened in the spirit realm, the battle in the heavenlies, that will continue to the last times. We will understand the intricacies of the wars and events we see here, and can learn about them. How the enemy has infiltrated from ages past. We learn how we ourselves have been deceived by the enemy. It is all important to know, and part of His great plan for his family. The knowledge of these truths are intricately woven into our victory.

OH THE LIBRARY

Back to the libraries...anything is available. If you have an incomplete degree or want to start one, you can study it forever if you want to. Discipline still exists there, and work too. There is a place I go to in heaven for work. I really do not remember it here much, but I go there sometimes. I saw it one day, and the Lord said to me, " You work there". I kind of remembered. Brushing up on my love of literature, poetry, and writing, one day, the Lord spoke to me and said,, you can study that forever if you want to !! How thrilling it will be to study there !! Anything we start here, or are interested in, we can count on it there too !

I had a glimpse of a library where I could study. The books wrapped in a circular fashion above my head, anything at all available. I had a moment of hesitation thinking those books would collapse on my head. But ended up laughing at that fear. Yes they stayed put. It is all yours, it belongs to you, the Lord whispered to me. We will have this forever, anything at all you want to study or need. Another time I went to a row of books row after row, I was familiar with some of the titles. There was an angel guiding me about. It was fun and casual. I saw the Spanish I have been studying. I jumped inside with recognition. Then the funniest thing, I came across a giant print bible, and someone said to me, I bet you could use that now, and we both laughed, yes it is that time of life. A few days later I saw that bible at a book sale. I recognized it immediately as a gift from Him. I knew He showed it to me in heaven first. I was able to purchase it for a small fee, and how easy that is to read ! Heaven and earth are meant to work together !! Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven" the Lord's prayer.

Every part of us is filled with His answers, His wisdom, and there is no higher understanding. Jesus is the governing presence there, and does so in the utmost intelligence and love. He can be all that here too. Can we be ourselves too, and think our own thoughts... you betcha'. Our soul is created to be free, we find the essence of who we are as well as being our best self. He is also, as one of us, He understands us so completely. Oh I have learned more recently about His governing; it is just, keen and swift. But always love. He will rule all things someday here, and I am careful to stay on His side ! Romans 14:11 As I live saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to

God. He rules and reigns, and heals all at the same time ! Every thought, any question, any problem, it is all in His hands ! Sometimes I feel sorry, like oh my, that is way too much work ! But what we cannot forget is that He is God, and is more capable than we are ! He has the right to judge. We also participate in judgements, and guiding things ! I know I have jumped around there a bit, but it will still be an understanding.

Nothing is left absent from our wholeness, OUR REDEMPTION IS COMPLETE, we will have everything that He has INTENDED as if the fall never happened. This includes our intellect , we will know what He knows..without sin or pride. James 1:5 If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him. Relationships are healed with His loving governance, and in His wisdom He knows every aspect of it, and holds the answers. He wishes for us to have life as He intended and paid the price for us to have it !

Looking back I recognize these visits as deep encouragement and care and love for me, and the drama wasn't over yet.

OUR VICTORY

Romans 5 3-5 "But we glory in tribulation also; knowing that tribulation worketh patience And patience, experience; and experience; hope. And hope maketh not ashamed. Because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the love of God."

Now why would anyone glory in tribulation? Because Jesus has overcome it that's why!!

Only Christians can overcome the world and its trials because He is the ready victory! There is a war going on. So whatever we go through, He has already overcome it and has the reparations and repairs and all the healing we need. BEFORE WE EVEN GO THROUGH THE TRIAL, WHICH IS WHY WE DO NOT FEAR, WE CAN EVEN WELCOME THEM IN HIS NAME ! HIS PLAN is always the best, whatever has been stolen during a trial, the victory is ours, it belongs to us. So that is why we can glory: because we know the final victory will be ours, we will win against satan's minions, and the works of the devil, all forms of persecution. We are tucked safely in His love, there is nothing to fear. We win, simply because we belong to the KING! We may go through, and not seem to escape, but there is ONE arriving soon on the scene of our predicaments with the promise of victory even if it is not visible. 1 Corinthians 10:13 No temptation has overcome you except that which is common to man, and God is faithful and will always find a way out. This is the glory of our trials, He is watching, planning an escape and a victory. 2 Peter 2:9 The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment. We have a wise, faithful father, who is planning for us at every turn. Accept these promises daily, and I am trying to do that same thing.

THE WORD MY FRIEND

Every time I find myself stuck or hurt He has come to my rescue ! I have His word on it! The word of God is my best and most faithful friend. If I have nothing else, I have His word which is so full of promises it is bursting and ablaze with them !

All that is needed is my application of faith in a loving God who died for me to have those promises !

We can actually glory in trials ! This means we can rejoice ! We glory, we rest, knowing PAPA will heal whatever we are going through.. often later,, with all manner and sorts of recompense. And during our trials, with all kinds of hope He whispers His love and promises. Do we understand this yet, this is quite a package ! This is actually a lifestyle we are familiar with as we walk out the christian life. Are we experienced enough to rely on this? As my favorite scripture says, if we are... this kind of maturity gives us hope. His recompense to us is great, as great as our losses that are incurred in any battle for Him. I have too many trials and too many victories to list, simply because I trusted Him. It really is a great place to live, in this place of trust.

THIS IS MOST ENCOURAGING

This experience in the Christian life gives us hope, for what? For the next trial! And this makes us not ashamed of the gospel, of waiting, of enduring, of doing things His way. We are not ashamed in the lowly place, in the waiting place, in the no reputation place, in the needy but trusting place. It is not the world's way.. of everything now, success now, no waiting. Lifestyle. Our way is higher and it defeats the enemy, we are not lost. We are listening to His wisdom as a lifestyle. We are not ashamed here, we know the Lord's plan. Are we listening? The war continues, we have to be alert to the spirit realm all our days. But our King is ready with answers. We are redeemed from this fallen world by the blood of the Lamb!

Persecuted. It will happen, but there is not a bit of shame, we know the outcome. You see, the love of God has already been shed abroad in our hearts, it is a constant, solid, spiritual indestructible life within us! Shed abroad in our hearts, no one can steal it. This immovable kingdom is ours, it is alive, it works through His love and promises which are irrevocable. He is alive forevermore!

Think about that statement "shed abroad... in our hearts,, it is wide in scope, in depth, in truth, it is big within us'.....our victory is complete with every trial here. It is this very love that has already overcome the world !

We have inherited within us an immovable kingdom, shed abroad in our hearts by the profound love and depth of the Holy Spirit, never to be taken away. There is no better inheritance. Even a lottery win would not compare to what He has granted within us. The source is Jesus and all He has purchased for us. It can bend, create, move, love, sustain, protect, begin again, solve. These are the characteristics of healing. Money alone will never accomplish. These are the truths that set the sinner free, move the christian to new heights of victory with strength to gather more souls. Within us is a very secret and sacred place. God knew this, and placed his very best there....Himself.

Believe only what the word says, not the circumstances you see ! The situations we face are from a fallen world, the reports we hear are often from fallen men. Romans 3:4 Let God be true and every man a liar".

But all has been redeemed ! If we are His, we now live in a redeemed state in all matters of life ! He has a creative solution waiting for his own ! He will do it ! We can only hear the whole truth from Him who said, I am the way, the truth and the life" John 14:6

THE BEGINNING

WHO I MET

1998 Abraham the early trips

My very very first time up, I landed on a small short hill, surrounded by a slight upsweep of meadow and grasslands, I do so remember that little hill. I noticed that it looked like earth but no one was around. I had an idea I was no longer in my earthly body, my head swirled with excitement and joy, my hand turned into a victory fist, and in a flash it moved up and down to proclaim the joy I was feeling. I shouted from my depths which were deeper than I knew, "I am dead, am I dead?" Not in a bad sense at all, the joy was intense and personal.

Then I felt alone just for a second, and that is when I heard it, a thundering plod. Something or someone was moving toward me at a great speed, but I was not afraid. If something is unknown in heaven, there is only the greatest feeling of anticipation, no fear and it all is erased in a second, reassurance will come to you.

ABRAHAM ...loves his children

I could see the smile on his face a mile away. He was running and moving with great purpose.....to meet me !! What a welcoming committee, the man of the Bible, the man of the ages, a known patriarch, racing toward me with joy and agility, on my behalf !! I knew him. I could feel his love for me, and a type of fatherly assurance, that set all my questions at rest. He knows God's love.. and His purpose, what a gentle father, all wrapped up in serving and knowing the Lord. I had the distinct feeling Abraham is the first person you meet there. He greets all his family and children, and he sees us as his beloved family.

The Lord of glory is our destination, He is our Alpha and Omega, and we will serve Him there just like Abraham. I might add here that all our questions that rumble in our head here, are resolved gently by love in heaven, you feel no need to think hard or spin, or have insecurities. Love and reassurance heals this. We will spend forever like this, think of that benefit on our behalf forever like this. Time has been resolved. There are no deadlines. You have forever. He has worked it out for us. Can we feel the love? Every detail. Redeemed.

OVAL MIRRORS

Abraham embraced me with a giant hug and so much love, and just for a second I doubted this love was real, I had a bad thought, "he doesn't really like me," and suddenly not one, but two oval mirrors on each side of him, showed me his face, and on it was so much joy. To hug me... to see me, he was genuinely delighted, I knew it was real! What a beautiful heavenly smile on his face, all because he was hugging one of his children ! He understands this so well ! Galatians 3:7

You cannot have a doubt or insecurity in heaven.

It gets wiped away with all the love and resources there and they are inexhaustible, as shown in the oval mirrors. This came as a surprise but helped me understand that principle of no fear or insecurity there, as well as the deep love and understanding that Abraham has for all God's children, that have become his.

Acts 3:25 In thy seed shall all the kindred of the earth be blessed. Galatians 3:7 Know ye therefore, that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham. We are his given kindred children and he absolutely loves it !

Abraham wore a lovely tunic that was a special aqua color. I was always in love with this color for my whole life, and I was glad to see it on him. It was a heavenly color, representing his lineage. This color was to be significant for me later in life when I wore the same color in my favorite maternity shirt. I remembered Abraham so dearly throughout my pregnancy, thinking of him and this visit. It was a great source of peace and things only understood between us.

I sensed his Jewishness, his heritage, and most overwhelmingly that he understood all things eternal in a very deep way. Oh, he has been with Jehovah, he has understood all things eternal from his special place there for so long now. He holds within him a deep sense of God's purposes and ways, and lived them out here, and has been very deeply rewarded there as the Lord God Jehovah had promised him. But at the same time Abraham possesses a great jovialness and lightness. He is so glad to see his family, each one of us has been promised to Him. He knows this deeply.

TAKEOFF

To my surprise Abraham and I took flight. I was not to stay at the little mound and on the little hill for long. Suddenly we were airborne, I was going deeper into heaven. It was unexpected, so as I said, I was surprised, but I still felt perfectly cared for and secure, I had to trust him and God.

I was in the arms of Abraham, my ancestral Dad, as he understood, I was one of his children, and this made us so close, and I never felt better. We soared and shredded through the air, the wind was uplifting, and I wondered if my hair would fall back into place. I felt the delight of the air on my cheeks and it reminded me of my childhood and how I used to relish in the newness of the winds and the thrill of nature within the fall and autumn leaves. I remembered the wind shearing my cheeks just like that on wondrously chilly September school days, just like that. He touched my cheek as if to say he remembers too, and he knew I was having a memory. I could be that young again if I wanted to be there.

He understood my joy. I became a child again in the arms of Abraham, and this was fine with both of us.

I asked Abraham what the temperature and weather was like in heaven, when we landed. He spoke meaningfully and deeply with a slight and noticeable accent of his native Hebrew. It was wonderful and meaningful for me to converse with this ancient of days, famous patriarch of the Old Testament. He sees each of us as his children and his descendants.

He said it was always around 70 degrees, all the time, he noted it never changes, not too cold, not too hot he said with a twinge of contentment. All this in my heart I understood to be the fullness and blessing of God. And you could hear his intention that it was understood that this was the Lord's love, giving his family perfect conditions. I realized His love once more, we will never be too cold there, or too hot, it will be just right.

The Hebrew alphabet follows as such where one word pronounced differently exacts a change in the meaning of the word. It was like that with Abraham, his words about the temperature also held deeply within them the very intention of God's love and care.

These details have been deeply set into place for our benefit. I felt safe there as well, so very safe. This is the kind of healing abuse victims need, or those who suffer with abandonment issues. We can all use a dose of this deep safety. We need to know this is how He cares for us here as well.

What I distinctly remember was being let down very gently upon returning and an angel letting go of my elbow so tenderly you would think I was a delicate Ming vase. This angel had perfect timing, perfect precision. These were the instructions of Papa and I knew it. To end the trip ever so safely and return me to my bed was His priority. The ability and strength of these angel's is simply unmatched. It is awe inspiring to be a part of it.

How gentle and sure He was, how perfectly careful he was, again, accentuating the great care of the Lord. We absolutely are "handle with care" packaging. His great caution combined with his immense skill reflected the Lord's intent and love for all of us.

This trip was to encourage me deeply, for the world of raising my children, who would come to know Him again, and serve Him here with a purpose.

This is how highly the Lord regards us. He has commissioned the angels to help us, and they do so with great caution and priority. It is not that things never happen to us, but the angels are ready and able agents of the Lord when they do.

The throne room

THE ONLY TRUTH THAT MATTERS

I spoke with Jesus on this trip, in very real and approachable moments. I knew His Kingship, but I felt so welcomed and known. I was fitted with a lovely pink tunic and was happy with the color and femininity of it, I remember, just for this occasion. I bowed my head and said MY KING, and we exchanged more there. Overwhelmingly everyone around knew HIM AS KING, and these moments were delicate and special. It was a PRIVILEGE to be there.

I am not afraid of the supernatural, nor am I inexperienced with it, so this did not scare me either, in fact, it made me trust him all the more. And that is a good part of heaven. you are trusting him every second, and dwelling deeply in His grace.

I was there again, on a mighty journey in heaven. I heard someone speak: “the throne room, reach for it, reach for Jesus and all he did for you on your behalf.” I felt it deeply, it was for me he did all.

No one has cared for us like that, no one has made that sacrifice. This should be deeply understood.

REACH YOU MUST

“Reach for the throne, reach for the throne.” Someone kept urging me. It gets personal, it gets deep, I struggle at first, and I don’t quite understand what I am meant to do and they keep urging me. And then it happens, I understand, I have to die to myself, and all that I am and hope to be, and all I deceive myself with and ONLY embrace what He has done for me. I will not simply be ushered to the throne room of God. First, I must embrace this truth ONLY, no part of self involved, self is gone. This was a deep spiritual exercise I took part of, in heaven.

I see ONLY what He has done.

It is a moment of intense truth and deep reality, there is no hiding here, there is no pretending here. It is just me and the truth. Yet at the point of this realization, I never felt more free, or more beautiful. To only embrace what He has done for us, to join as one with that truth deeply, without self, is to find a new self that is alive only to Him. To touch this part of eternity makes one understand who we really are, and how the Lord recognizes us.

You and I are beautiful there, you and I are made for this. All else holds deception, our identity is not clear, until we behold Him and His sacrifice, naked of self. It is not a frightening place, I am happy here. Free of all lies, only holding the reality of the cross. It is an amazing place of truth and the enemy has no part in this sacred spot. I am so glad I received this there, and now in my heart forever as a special place. It changed me.

There is no greater truth than what Jesus has done for each one of us.

It lives inside of us as a purifier of any false reality, and any toxic lies, and it becomes part of who we really are, our truest self the enemy is hiding. The enemy of God cannot lie here, there is no foul breath of deception. Yes, there are truths we don't want to face and all that we shelter ourselves from. But this is real. This alone is real. It is humbling, and they know it now in hell. It is that deep. It is something all mankind will understand.

HOLY LIGHT

This is a holy place to enter in the spirit, it is humbling, and I had to reach for this before I got to the throne. One of my important life lessons on earth has been that the Lord may speak something casually or even in a nonchalant manner, and we are to find the rest, and act on it. It was happening in heaven too. The relief I felt when I broke through was tremendous, it took my breath away. I had to work for it in a way that was so gentle. Suddenly, through a ceiling of white light we fly, brilliant light leads the way, and beckons us further. I had an angel with me. Now all before me turns the most iridescent blue. The crystalline colors of gems, all are shattering before us as we move with lightning speed. This was an amazing splatter of color before my eyes. I am saturated with the truth that there is no more exciting place I could ever be, and I am in a place of privilege and wonder, and I am grateful. The speed and intensity at which we are traveling cannot be explained. And the deep truth of the cross filled me so completely at this moment that I completely understood the purpose of a soul's creation, from a deep place. It is a moment of profound truth that saturated my soul. This is a crucial point, and one we all need to take in our heart. For the Lord of Glory knows what a soul is made for, and He died for it.

So let us not forget in the business of life, and the schedules of a day, what your soul is truly made for. The riches of Christ belong to us. Just then, a song of peace came into my heart.

It swelled within me, this peace, and all that was done for me at the cross to purchase this peace. Now I am heading for the throne, and there is nothing more exciting. There is no more glorious or tremendous place, where He dwells. It was a banquet for my soul. He filled every part of me, when I died to self, and only acknowledged the cross and its meaning. I was filled with the true wealth of heaven only at this moment. Do we fully understand the full meaning of the cross? To understand it is to be free... totally free. Sin can deceive us into a feeling of momentary freedom. But it will steal from us the eternal freedom waiting for us. Romans 8:21 Even the rewards will be diminished. He is storing rewards for us in heaven. Psalm 58:12 Mathew 5:12

Luke 15:7 There is joy in heaven over one sinner who repents. He waits for you.

GLORIOUS STEPS

There are long white steps, oh the steps, they reach for miles, made of granite or white marble, they are immense. So sturdy. They moved in a half circle that spanned for miles. Each step spanned half a block of street. Yet the step up was only 12 inches. Easy, yet strikingly lovely. What architecture! They held deep meaning, There were others standing in awe of the throne on the steps. Each person in a holy place of privilege, awe, wonder, amazement, and so filled with life it is unspeakable. This is the joy unspeakable. There is no joking here, there is nothing here but pure holiness. Pure love, we all understand the Kingship of Christ, the immortality we have inherited. It holds tremendous significance. This is what the angels are in awe of. The giant stairs wrapped around a great expanse, it was a privilege to experience it. I knew everything there, all the enemy tries to hide from us is real. We have great dignity only within the truth of the immense gift of the cross. It is here, it is ours. We have become this only in His truth. Only in His light and cross have we truly risen to fellowship. To become different. New. Fully HIs. Fully integrated in His kingdom. He has given us the privilege of changing. To put this more concisely, it was an HONOR to be there. The deepest honor I will ever know. We all just stood there wrapped in the knowledge of all things, it was the highest honor.

I see Jesus on a purple throne, He is far from me. I feel I should be still and learn here what He is wanting to teach me. He is showing me his Kingship, his right to rule and reign as King, this is not his humanity, this right has always been HIs. I am truly humbled before His kingship, He is the king of all Kings, I am not. He is showing me His right to rule.

I am learning, I am being humbled every second I am there particularly on this flight, yet so in love with Him, and moving in His kingdom. The humbleness I was experiencing came from the place of honor I was participating in. To know His true Kingship was to move into a place of deep respect. He will always have this right. Yet He does not remain here always, he stops and has crouched down to be our friend. He became one of us to overcome our trials. So gracious a King have we. Hebrews says he was tempted in all points as we are. He did not sit on a throne over us. He humbled himself and became one of us. NO greater love is there. Now He understands us, and is able to resolve all our dilemmas and sicknesses. Hebrews 2:18 For in that He himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succor them that are tempted. He knew he needed to be our friend to save us. To understand our fallen nature and be master over it he had to become both man and remain God. It was the only way.

Portrait A Deeper Work

It is not the show of hair
But grant the gentle mind
That frames the truth
It is not the lips so soft, but the flow
Of words that proclaim it
It is not the eye alone that truly sees
But the heart hidden
And the innermost that holds it
For it is not the life that only breathes
Which indeed lives
But the one who understands
Who is alive truly
For Life is not
Except that love would claim it
For life without disdains it
Yes is it not for love we live
And is it not the Lord
Who has Himself ordained it
With vision,
My heart contains it
With His word

He alone sustains it
No enemy therefore can restrain it
And now, forever, I have gained it.

Luke 17: 21 For the kingdom of God is within you

GREAT COMPANY 2

Hebrews 12:1 Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily besets us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us.

This is saying we have friends in heaven who are watching us. Helping; These are the witnesses to heaven, they live in heaven. We are compassed about by them, they surround us, know us, wait for us. This all proved true.

Then suddenly, a great company of believers surround me, as if to furnish any loneliness I feel. These are the great cloud of witnesses the word proclaims.

Three girls came close to me. I know they are friends. They are Christians who know the Lord as myself. I move directly to a place where they unroll a great chart. It is a recording of everything I have been through. There is a hole, many holes I see, they look like cigarette burns, just about that size and a charcoal color, with burnt edges. She noticed that and said "you have been attacked." Now I understand each hole represents a spiritual attack in my life. This is no great surprise to me! I just did not know it was so recorded. She was reading the chart. There were other symbols I could not interpret at all, they seemed to be in a heavenly script "What does this mean?" I kept asking....symbols...but these girls knew what it all meant. They giggled at my confusion and need to know. Then another girl held up my chart high above her head and said "I see nothing but spiritual growth, it has been wonderful." Then she broke off to another world it seemed, and looked far off. I realized she was feeling a type of longing, not bitter envy, where she hated me but, longing. You see this is what is important in heaven, this is what they long for. All wish they had made spiritual growth here and served the Lord.

We still make it to heaven but we can forfeit rewards and we will look back and wish we had FOUND more. This word “ found “ is very significant, it is our choice. His design is in place always, but it is our decision to implement His kingdom. To truly reach for His plan. To follow His leading to find His truth and purpose is all available and if we reach for more, will find more. This is a simple truth but may be the deciding point if our service makes a difference here.

So this is how she felt when my chart said there was so much growth. Then another one said: “and look how generous you have been!” Everything is recorded, friends, all that we have done for the Lord, and for others in that plan, exactly how we have helped others. How we treat one another, It is all there. I always share, I make a point of it. And that was recorded, what a joy to know!

What a joy it was to have those friends near. I had a great feeling of relaxation as I knew they were not there to hurt me and to do God’s will which is always so wonderful and caring. They knew and understood their job regarding my visit perfectly. I am always amazed at the keen movement regarding this. We are totally transformed there, and so much so we can be about His business tucked inside the good and always loving will of the Father.

They all really seem to know how to serve the Lord at the blink of an eye. We are all going to learn this, and can begin here if we are wise.

Who I met.....NOAH

FURTHER IN

On this trip I realized there was someone I kept bumping into. I was journeying around, and I found myself always seeing or bumping into this same man everywhere I went.

Who is that? I needed to know. Someone spoke to my question, that is Noah, he has been your guide. I did not know who he was, or that somehow he was in charge of showing me about. Without ever introducing himself like Abram did I just did not know who he was. Noah is not a big large man, as often depicted. To my surprise he has a slight frame, and is not that tall. But the width and girth of his upper body and shoulders tells the story. This outstanding feature of strength and sheer solid composure and posture leads one to conclude this was developed during years of work and building of some type. The large shoulders and solid looking upper arms slope down to a small waist and almost no back end. Which was all accentuated by a rugged pair of Levi jeans he had on. This surprised me at first, but I have come to realize that all things have been made new for Noah too, and he can enjoy any modern treat for his own benefit that he wants. He is not limited to the old clothes he once wore, or as is depicted in our story books.

I was amazed to be able to see the measure and style of this man's body and build. His shoulders held a broad expanse. I was looking at history, right in front of me. And this learning and excitement are part of heaven. This is a place where your deepest questions and desires are satisfied.

He has the most stunning blue eyes I have ever seen. They were luminous in color, stunning, like lit up pools of an aqua blue I have never seen anywhere here in my lifetime. If you understand the science, genetic eye color has been dulled through time. We will understand his eye color of this kind of blue was early in the gene pool and a forerunner. The vividness of this blue would shock anyone today. It was truly stunning and organic, so alive and vivid. I have seen this tried to be imitated with contact lenses that are tinted with color but it holds no equivalent. I could hardly take my eyes off the blue color. I gazed at them for as long as I could. I was gazing at history, the eye color of early man. Fascinating. I knew they would be amazing for anyone to see today. I was taken to another worldly place as I was peering back in time, back into the earliest inception of man, into the days of Noah. I saw his eyes, can you imagine, those same eyes saw the dove, the water, the wood. They saw the beginning. This fascinated me, as I had the privilege of gazing into them for a short time.

He had white hair and a beard to match, every hair seemed to fall into place, reminding me more of a feather cut from the 70's and his hair had a nice fall and drape to it. It was on the thinner side but one could tell it was soft and abundant too, but not curly like Abrahams.

I was just able to say a few words to him before returning. It was quite something. I said to him: "all that building!" his eyes seemed to roll back in time. It was a memory for him and he agreed with me. But then I realized it was gone now for him too, he was no longer there, no longer worried about the wood, the animals, but he remembered. Now he was in the presence of the King, folded into the glories and freedom of heaven, in his life there, he lives in a new moment... and a new dimension. And a new reality. He does not just rest on his laurels as they say. He embraces a whole new life the Lord had waiting for him! This is how it will be for all God's children, we remember the past, if asked especially, but have a new reality. The past can be used for lessons and to minister to others at any moment, as a service to them. The Lord reveres us now in this kingdom forever, for the service we do for Him here, we have chosen that destiny.

I suddenly had a great idea, I was about to leap upon it feverishly. I was going to ask Noah if they had really found the Ark on Mount Ararat, as I have seen in many documentary shows. Right at that moment I found something had gotten stuck in my tooth, I knew it to be a piece of green hard candy, I could not get it out, how had it become loaded in there? How did I even know it was green? But I did. Just then I realized this is the kind of problem one encounters more on earth. I was transitioning back. I began to protest a bit. I barely got my question out,, hey .. how "bout that arrr kkk..... When I heard a few dear ones begin to giggle, I had a deep sense that I would be leaving soon, aw shucks... and I was back in my body before I knew it. They were giggling because they were about to witness the transition, and I had no choice in the matter. I was a little sad at departing. These are lovely, sincere Christians and friends who I heard laughing. No one is intentionally mean or rude, and deep inside I understood who they were. They were not poking fun, and it was all good. I knew them, knew their inner character, and it was wonderful. Papa changes us into people that are gentle and loving and people who understand his plans and will down to the second, and serve him, a winning combination we can strive for here too. I never got to hear the answer to that question about the ark, it bothers me slightly if I think about it.

FRIENDSHIP IN HEAVEN...we are known

The overwhelming goodness of our friendship and fellowship with one another is foundational to heaven, as would be here too if we would agree with it well enough. The love of God inside of us helps us to love one another. Sometimes I think to myself we really need the help. This is true, He alone has the power to help us forgive. It is this charism of love that comes from the eternal truth of our own need for forgiveness, and we all are equal in that.

Friendship is an integral part of heaven. It is the promise of more joy, more help and never saying goodbye in the perfect government of God. It speaks highly to the fact that this is what the Lord has ALWAYS wanted for us. Do we miss it here, does the enemy attack it here? Absolutely. He hates love and friendship, and is especially interested and afraid of friendship turning into ministry. He hates that love will heal us, and whispers his naughty plans to the world and Christians alike, so the Love of God in the earth will not be heard and used effectively. There, it is a given, it is the will of the Lord. To step out of it with a wrong judgment, or thought, means you will be corrected and brought back into the fellowship. Jesus is the great governing power there, and addresses every thought and motive, and the Prince of Peace, knows exactly how to resolve any problem. Everyone is friends there, and you have so many, you do not have to worry about being alone, or anything you missed. Friendship is ministry there, as He uses absolutely everyone to heal you !

Friendship is so important there, it is everything He has always intended!! He wants us to have the same attitudes here, we are friends, but also ministers to each other on this earthly journey. This fulfills His will and intentions and His heart. He is happy when we get it.

A more complete understanding of who we are, and what we have been through gives us the ability to forgive more easily there. Jesus hands us this information and works to resolve things as only the Prince of Peace can. Love is the word of the day, the theme if you will, and it completes us there, and love can heal us here as well ! The absence of it will lead to one unfortunate scenario after another in this life.

There are so many friends. Everyone is so very glad to see you, this comes from a deep understanding of salvation, and that all are welcome solely based on the blood of the Lamb! This is a great leavening agent. This is how the kingdom of God functions. Oh, no one is more deserving to be there than anyone else, all our sin is sin, and yet forgiven. We stand in heavenly places here too, based on the blood of the Lamb only.

NOT SO IN HELL

This gift of friendship is used by the Lord as an outstanding tool of ministry and welcoming in heaven. It is all inclusive and is sealed by His love and our obedience. All this makes heaven real and alive with hope and understanding. It is an exceptional feature. If we understand this well enough, we will lend ourselves to his service, and become friends with the friendless here, and walk more into his kingdom than ever before. We can choose this. I am going to put a small addition onto this, as the Lord has led me. Hell is the opposite of this love and fellowship. There is absolutely no mercy in hell. The atmosphere is one of hatred, and violence, injury and insult and wounding far beyond any normalcy. Hell is an open violent wound that continues and never heals or relents. Violence ensues everywhere, as the master of that realm has commanded, and is all he will allow. He is working hard to create a kingdom that has no resemblance to the perfect peaceful will of the Lord. He will never be done with those in his kingdom, never never will he let them rest, their abuses will know NO end. They are forced to participate until there is no trace of goodness or peace left in them, and no trace of God or His kingdom. These are the motivations and designs of the enemy. He is demolishing any sign of goodness which represents the One he fears there. He has a right to do it in hell to those without the blood of Jesus. He is accepting invitations now. A conflict arose in the garden. We are in the center of, in the midst of these powers, the object of God's love.

This is why friendship and love are so very very important to the Lord. This is all that exists in heaven, not a thread of violence is allowed. We can learn that here, or in hell. We understand completely in heaven, not to walk out of love.

To be worthy to dwell there is to understand love in the gentleness of action.

And we don't want to walk out of love, if you know Papa you won't want to disobey. We follow the example of the King, and for the King.

KERPLUNK once you know Papa

This one trip I made early on, and my arrival had a rouge landing. Suddenly I found myself hitting a hardwood floor but it did not hurt. I landed somewhat hard and remembered being somewhat miffed and said "gee, thanks a lot!" Later I found this was His way of keeping me humble. I had been having so many visits, and there was a chance of pride. It made me suspicious at first, just landing like that, but later, I understood.

There we were. I say we because as I looked about there were others on the hardwood floor with me, but they all had skateboard type scooter things, they were getting around on. This is how we get around" someone said, and then they gave one to me. I finally got the hang of it, and what they were doing. It is a very convenient thing to have a meeting like this and to scoot around on the floor.

There is something effortless and relaxing about it. It frees you from many worries. It may seem ridiculous to most adults here, but if you are trying to unwind it is marvelous. There are many ways to get around in heaven. I had a trip once on a bike but it was so convenient a bike, very safe and not hard to manage at all. It was more square and wagon- like. I stopped to visit a river on this bike. Everything is built for our safety, convenience and joy. Do you see His love in these things yet? His love and provision are here too on our earthly journey. Be a good receiver and you will find sufficient supply. Are we feeling spoiled yet? He has thought of everything because He understands us and knows what we like.

This skateboard meeting somehow provided speed and ease of communication. Now I cannot imagine recommending this to your friends here for a school meeting, but certainly we can glean from it the lessons of deep equality, and fellowship, where we are together as His family.

I must say heaven is not about obeying a list of rules, but understanding the principles behind the rules. Love is a given principle here. To know the Godhead is to know love. It is to know freedom as we have never known before, and peace and joy within that freedom. And being able to understand that, and live in that, is to obey them easily, without undue pressure or authority, and this is the essence of heaven. It is a loving governing with the absence of pressure and abuse. Only the Lord of glory is capable of this accomplishment. Yet there is so much to be learned.

It is an amazing flow and symphony of obedience, gratitude and healing. Love is everywhere. Ease of communications and equality are foremost, and when we understand these things, will not want to disobey God. Everything, absolutely everything, makes sense.

Again, I felt the drip of healing internally, no waiting, no misunderstanding, just ease. My lesson here is when you know Papa you won't want to disobey him. This is actually the true interpretation of "thou shalt not " of the Ten Commandments. We can research the Greek language and get the closest interpretation." If you know Papa you won't want to disobey him." This is the real meaning. For those of us who know Him, is this not the truth in your heart? Somehow it all got translated into a great authoritative, thou shalt not! This scares people off. It really is easier than that and carries love in a relationship as the motivation. This is the motivation of obedience in heaven, you know PAPA and you don't want to disobey Him. He is clearly so wonderful, you don't want to step out and ruin the covenant He has made for us.!

The word Torah actually means The man of the nail on the cross. Each letter in Hebrew has a meaning. Another hidden and unknown interpretation.

LOVE

To touch heaven is to touch the deepest meaning of life. LOVE. It is the deepest understanding of all things. His plan from ancient days. His intentions and motives. All stem from His love. If we touch it we will actually cry more. We would be most sensitive. Nothing harmful or evil, or abusive would escape our attention. Every plan of God missed will break our hearts. Every soul we miss would shred us to tears.

1 John 3:18 My little children, let us not love in work or tongue, but in deed and in truth 19..and by this we know we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before Him.

To be insensitive to love is to be on the side of the enemy. It is our daily choice. Love holds the meaning of all His creation, and all His intentions. It holds keys to unlock situations and personality we have not even located. To walk in love here actually creates an understanding of all things. To miss it speeds us closer to hell and the intention of the other guy. If we keep it up we will hear the Lord say " I have had enough of you." He does not tolerate our meanness or abuse well. Intentionally meanness will make us unworthy of living with Him.

1 John 3:15 Whoever hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him

NOTHING TURNS

He begs us to fly higher
Where lovely birds are soaring
To know at last
What He may require
Do not fall into the night
Where monsters fill the sky
Instead our hearts must be Lifted like the dust so white
High above the ground

Or like a mist of vapor
High above the sound
For our faces pale uncertain
Without He who lifts the curtain
And wakens love again

For It is not the rule we know
But love in the heart
When miracles will flow
The changes we seek
Will arrive with the meek
For nothing turns but by love

MORE RESTORATION

HERE COME THE CHRISTIANS

One night, around this same time, I heard the Lord say to me before retiring, "Here come the Christians." Not understanding, I just went to sleep. But I knew enough to trust Him because experience brings hope.. favorite scripture again.. This trip was for the purpose of further restoration, I needed a few of them, and for me to understand more. I had been suffering from a deep type of exhaustion, it was well on the way to becoming a debilitating condition.

I could feel the help that was on the way before dozing off, it was deep in my spiritual knower. O how grateful I was for this.

Deep in sleep I was transported to a place where I met a celebrity who had passed. I had been watching his transformation in the news. I could sense his heart and his character had been changing, he was thinking more of things not so earthly minded, seeing things in the spirit. I can just tell when someone is becoming a christian, I start to know who my family is. We have the same Papa you know, and we become brothers and sisters. We will always recognize when the Lord is truly moving on the life of people who had not known Him, when they truly change and find the Lord.

What I saw in him was the shifting of his heart from worldly things to a place of real understanding. The shallowness of this world's understanding was leaving him, the wisdom of God was flooding him. Do we understand that to embrace only this world's wisdom without Christ is a shallow and empty ride ?

1 Corinthians 3:19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. That is right, He has more for His children. We can figure out every inch of this fallen world and if it does not spell Jesus at the end it will be useless froth.

It was beautiful to see, I really don't know if the rest of the world saw this, but I surely did. I could see in his interviews he was beginning to feel the importance of servanthood and seeing the needs of others, rather than his own position of fame and glory in this world. That was one thing. One giant thing. Once he understood that he could now be a child of God and used in the kingdom of God. Self was less important. God was beginning to become the center. This means others will be reached and helped and his life holds a greater meaning..

SHOE SHOPPING

When I met up with this Christian it was he who took me to a shoe shop. I almost felt some excitement (notice I said almost). I had been taken down to places I thought not possible, but now I had some hope. I realized I could pick any shoe I wanted, and I found a few I did not want, and put them back. Then I landed on a pair similar to a pair of earth shoes I wanted here a long time ago, but could not afford. I hear the Lord " you wanted those". Amazing, He not only remembered, He saved them in heaven for me ! Psalm 37:4 "Delight thyself also in the Lord: and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart." I was happy to find them. I was having fun again, all that had taken a back seat during all the years I had of depletion. But God did not want me to stay that way, He wanted me to have fun again. It stands true that the Lord knows what he is doing even if we do not see it, and this was the beginning for me and a gradual change came from it.

To continue, this Christian, once worldly celeb, knew me, and we were friends. He took me to a place and offered to play basketball with me, I would have none of it. "No, I don't do that anymore." Things have changed for me. I was not ready, too tired still, stop.. do not ask me that. . I could feel my tiredness and despondency even there, my enthusiasm was gone. This was fine, he respected that and dropped the idea of basketball. I did offer him a compliment that he serves the Lord, and I am trying to do that here, and that was all I had.

He showed me instead a place of rest, there were two giant couches. I mean they were so oversized it could bring you almost to the point of hilarity, as we have seen nothing like that here. There was a quietness in this place that began to fill my soul and all my aches and exhaustion. No one would or could hurt me here. Just beyond the olive green couches were two great windows, again, oversized, and there I began to gaze out the windows. It was there something happened inside of me. Somehow it began to heal me as I realized there is plenty of room in heaven, and since this is my home I did not have to stay in the horrible narrow place that the enemy has put me in during the change of life. I felt a sense of relief from everything I had been through, and saw things in a new light. I recall seeing a lot of olive green, and commenting that I did not know all this was here for me, to have for all time. I was beginning to feel better, my understanding was deepening. When our soul deepens, it often can heal our physical bodies. This is the secret kingdom, the power within us is great. 1 John 4:4 Greater is He who is in us, than he that is in the world. The enemy would not be able to lie to me and hold me in this small place because I was growing spiritually.

I was seeing and holding on to his great provision, I can escape the lies of the enemy now. I am not limited. I am free to roam, this translated somehow to my very existence here becoming more free, more open, not so tight and fearful. This small sample and shift in environment was the beginning of my healing of the earthly depletion I felt every day. The place was so open and spacious, it had an effect on me. This new joy and openness was shattering the pains and plans of the enemy and I knew the Lord had it all planned. 2 Tim 3:17 "That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works"

BACK TO THE SHOES

I am overwhelmed with both the quality and the choices. I had found a pair of earth shoes I always wanted, and I was glad to know they will be waiting for me when I arrive home. As I said before, I heard the Lord say at that moment, "you always wanted those. Yes I remember finding the perfect pair, and dared not to spend that much at the time. It was a bit of a heartbreak. I kept them for you." I do not see the Lord here but I can hear

His love, His voice, over me somehow. I am telling you friends we must never doubt how much HE CARES. I used to believe the lies of the enemy that He did not care. The Lord could not move to do anything for me while my faith was so placed out of His kingdom. Oh I avoid this place now, and these lies. All it takes is a simple prayer and faith for any problem or situation.

THE POOLS, SWIMMING, I am protecting you

Another time soon after, I started having help from heaven by going up and swimming. By nature I am a fish and spent more of my childhood in the water than on land. It was a great way to grow up and I learned a great deal about swimming every day. It became my life long enjoyment and sport for fitness. I reaped a lot of benefits and confidence from my swimming over the years, and missed it desperately during this time of life.

I started reaping the benefits of heavenly swims instead of earthly ones. I saw an old friend, the pool was green, she was there to help me get in and make it all seem familiar. I was surprised to see her, and that the Lord had been giving her swims too. When I finally dipped in I asked her for a race, this would not be necessary, I felt the challenge dissipate quickly. I went on to start some laps through the water, and the encouragement started to rise, the depth and the feel of the water made me want to continue, this was the beginning of the swims. These continued in the spirit, yet at that time I had not discovered their purpose.

YOUTH DEWS

One trip that really stood out: I was brought to an indoor pool, it looked familiar. It was very square and inviting and in a smaller room. The pool was surrounded by marble of sorts. I remember a comforting black and vanilla color with some sort of design. Nice and small, indoors, there was a couple waiting for me there, they were famous here, I knew who they were. I found them so very helpful. The woman told me I was at the fountain of youth, and that I should go in. This immediately filled my spirit with joy, knowing it was waiting for me, right then and for all eternity. It is all waiting for us, we need not fear age. It will be dissolved up there. Truly He has thought of everything. She said I deserved it, and the Lord knew this, and He wanted me to have it. She told me to take some time there and not be afraid. She said it would be wonderful and it was. I listened to her and after that I felt better and refreshed. This one swim stands out to me as special, and I really enjoyed the surprise. I want you to begin to absorb here the abundance of provision He has made for His children. This will heal in many ways. It can also deliver you from a feeling of privation and clothe you with the truth of provision so our earthly ride is easier. He is our source. He paid for us to know prosperity. First of our soul .

To Naught without Him

Matthew 6:33 Seek ye first the kingdom of God and all these things shall be added unto you. Sounds too good to be true. But He knows physical prosperity will do a man no good, if his soul is not right with God. Find a whole- heart salvation. It is then, He can lead us to prosper. He can guide, show us His plan within the context of serving Him. Ours is a redeemed state of labor.

Something to understand based on Matt 6:33. We need three dimensions. If we only live in 2 dimensions, the enemy will attack them. Living on this planet with our opinions alone will not give us victory. Good at finance? Good at psychology? Those things will come to naught without the dimension of the kingdom of God. He is telling us not to forget Him. In the midst of all our doing, the real wisdom we need for anything is from Him. The enemy will be able to steal and attack even our greatest accomplishments without the wisdom of God. He needs to keep us safe within His wisdom. The dimension of the heavenly must empower the dimension of the earthly. It needs to be part of us, to guide us. This fallen world will not have mastery over us in the presence and wisdom of the King of Kings. It gives us a fighting chance, a better chance. He paid for us to have it.

SHE SHARED HER HOME

I met a woman who greeted me at the front door of her house. It was modest, but very nice. I wasn't sure why I was there at first. She gently agreed with the Lord about something in her doorway. I noticed how polite the Lord of Glory was in the simplest of situations. He asked her permission very politely. He then showed me her backyard which held a beautiful in-ground pool, surrounded by evergreens. It was all so sunny, but in a gentle way, it did not jar my eyes, I do not need sunglasses as I do on earth. The trees looked like the type in Italy, tall and skinny. These delighted me almost more than the pool, but then I knew I was there to swim again, how nice the Lord is. He hears me complain about not having a pool, and not being able to find a swim spot as I did in my younger days. So He took me up for the chance to swim. This woman was nice enough to share, and was very kind to me. She was sharing with me her abode in heaven, and everyone has one. There is room for you, isn't that good to know?

STAMFORD HIGH ENERGY..... even more restoration

I was taken to this place to further my healing on the inside of me again after the change of life. This was one of the more dramatic places I have ever been to in heaven. I was happy to go, feeling so depleted, now I had hope. It pulsed with excitement. There is a change of life, we all must endure, and mine was not an easy change. I was tired, so very tired on the inside. I was having difficulty wanting to continue on in this life. Everything felt like an enormous task to do. But I was in the midst of His plan, and I emphasize, when the Lord needs you, He is sure to intervene and heal you and help. But sure of my own depletion I was giving up. But God wasn't, and this trip made me sure of that.

This boulevard I was taken to was not chaotic, but terribly busy. Yes it was filled with brightness. What I mean by brightness here is a loving response to our Father's will in the form of ministry. Everyone has a vibrant intelligence that shows itself in love and action.

As everyone there had a ministry and continued to serve it out as the need presented itself. There is no shortage there of great intelligence in the form of service, everyone was being blessed, either to give or receive they were equally full of joy.

I have to say this is the will of God for this realm as well, but there is resistance here. He wants and tries to bring all that service here, but we may believe it is not for us to do. There are deep implications here. I will gather all this in my future journals.

FRIENDS TO THE RESCUE

Here is the ironic part. I am usually scared of this kind of city street, and have a hard time being alone on a street like that one without help. I was the same way there, but not for long. I found myself cowering in an enclave or a storefront of some kind, not wanting to move. I crouched there wondering who brought me to this busy place, and who was in charge of it all ? Worst of all, was I really expected to find my way about without a map or a guide ? This was a scary thought. I felt overwhelmed at the expanse...what was going to happen...I will never find my way around,,,is that what they expect?...I knew as I quite often do on earth, I need help initially.. then I am able, with experience, and friends, to navigate new places. It has never been a strength, and I have had to rely on my postman husband through the years. This is just how I roll. I am great after a little bit of help.

Quite promptly I was surrounded by three or four friends, who were the giggling type,,, they were there to help.. it became clear.... They let me cower for a few minutes longer, and then they giggled me out of there. Yes,, they assured me with their silliness that everything would be ok, they were going to help me. I was first brought to a street with many shops, little shops, and I thought to myself "Oh how lovely." There was a strong feeling of excitement which somewhat contradicted the quaintness of the small shops. I knew something was up. These were the friends who found me and began to help. They managed my fears and worries and I had to learn to trust them. I was in a new place. They talked me out of it, ensuring me this was not a trick to scare me or hurt me, or try to throw me into a busy street. I still held on to that part of myself there and this suspicion was part of my soul there, but it was taken care of so we could proceed. These character fears do not have a chance in heaven, they melt, sometimes with help, sometimes from the rarified air of heaven itself.

But then, suddenly, I wanted to be in it, it was everywhere I wanted to be. I was glad to be participating in the purpose of the street. The movement, the therapies, the pace, the joy of it all. One store after another, it was almost too much, but I wanted it anyway. It was inescapable joy and wonder. Then, I finally understood, this was a healing street, and I was the lucky recipient. How did I get so lucky, and what a stretch of street it was ! I was in for the ride of my life in a healing way, and I knew it. The anticipation alone was enough to knock me over.. And over.. And over.. And over again I flew into the love of God.

SHEER LOVE

The song in the air was intense and real, the song was one of the deepest love and quality of care and restoration. And just mercy, I absorbed the mercy like a living sponge, the mercy, all the way back from the earliest inception of time, from the moment of the fall of Adam and Eve it was all planned, this living hope, this mercy had all been planned. It saturated my spirit like a fountain of oil, falling from the skies, all this was deeply understood. It could knock me over even now when I think of it. This seeped into my soul like a great oil of healing.

All that had been drained from me was being restored, answered and healed right away, they had the answers, they knew what I needed, and they administered it in love. I knew instinctively they were equipped for service. 2 Tim

3;17 That the man of God be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works. These were just regular christians doing their job. He wants all His children to be equipped and ready. To say I felt lucky is a gross understatement, it was more than luck, better than that, it was immense love in the form of all I needed to continue. As this was for me, it is no less for you. It is important to note that restoration has been planned since the fall, it helps us to perceive the intent and the willingness of His nature and eternal plan. He is not withholding anything, He has planned for us to be fully whole. Fully redeemed from the inception of time, this is what was on His mind !! This is true love, we need to absorb it and not doubt it, we will have more faith with this in mind!

WHIMSY

This very long city street that went on and on, like a great Post road. Every inch of it was busy, engaging and new. I finally asked someone the name of the place and they said Stamford, the name they called the great Boulevard. I felt more at home somehow when they said the name. There can also be a sense of whimsy and fun there about these things, like that may not be the name of the street at all, but since I asked and felt better when hearing the name, they were all willing to say it. Then again perhaps this was the name of the street, it is just that way there.

SO MANY SHOPPES, STAMFORD

When I began moving into these little shops, one looked like a place I used to work, familiar. This showed me the shops were like that, nothing to fear, and we traveled on. I was ready. I was okay now. We began traveling at speeds unlike what we know here, we were able to move freely from one place to another with a wicked but still gentle speed. The street revealed itself, it began to expand and oh how it showed me its great dimension and size. It was ENORMOUS, and I looked at the whole street at once. I got a little nervous as I looked intently abroad at the boulevard, a bit overwhelmed, but it all pulsed with life, just life, meaningful life. I knew that I would never find my way around without being helped, but my friends were there to help.

Then it all became real, the healing, the mercy was about to flow. I was there to receive healing, as many or as much as I needed. One significant place I was brought in and I actually felt a great massage to my head, and I understood what it was for. It really sucked something out to my head that was so tired and raw, and I felt such a relief from it, and was very, very glad for that healing. I was especially grateful for that visit. I could not have lived with that frightful raw aching head for the rest of my life. I knew that. God knew that. Since His will was for me to continue serving Him here..He healed it. THIS IS THE WONDER OF OUR COVENANT WITH HIM, IT WORKS BY RELATIONSHIP. He has a will for his children, and if we are in that will, that place of serving Him, we get healed faster.

JUST DROP IT

Another store we went into and I met the most wonderful understanding woman I ever encountered. It was a relief just to be in her presence. She was so full of wonderful. She was full of the love of God. I could read it all over her. I could feel the drip, the wonder of it. I had the understanding to, and handed her a package of my old stuff I had been carrying and she promptly gave me new stuff. I remember actually seeing the packages, the gifts that were being given. My packages were old, ragged and dirty. Then she handed me Christmas presents. They were alive with color and represented a new life. This seems like a small thing but when it is done in the spirit it translated to my daily life here as a great gift and a release of many burdens I had been carrying. We exchanged packages there, and my heavy burdens had become light, as I trusted God to take the heavy things I was carrying. Soon after that I felt everything was less of a burden, that was the gift I received there. This was the provision of the Lord for my aching tiredness and depletion that may not have departed without this visit. I could live again without the old packages that were weighing me down. I have heard the Lord mentions strings” too, that hold Christians down if they believe the wrong thing. We get them if we invest out of covenant in this fallen world. The enemy is allowed to put them on us and afflict. 1 Samuel 25:31/ Proverbs 26:2 The curse causeless shall not come.

I remember that one lady in particular, she was such a happy servant. Somehow she knew me, and had miles of mercy in her smile. Her face was lit up like a Christmas tree and in her eyes I saw a peace and joy that could have only come from being with Papa all this time. I knew this deeply. I also knew the same peace would be mine for all eternity. These sure returns become ours simply by accepting what the blood of Jesus has done for us on the cross. This encounter dissolved all my fears. I think I remember about 6 of 7 shops and healings, and in each place there were servants who knew exactly what I needed. Keep in mind, they have been educated about us, and have been healed to the utmost being together with the Lord and KNOW how to serve. They are surprisingly smart, and so good at what they do, they know everything, without a trace of pride. It was fascinating to see how much they knew about me, and their joy, and it is set in heaven, and it was easy for them and not difficult. The only authority over them was the love of God.

“On the earth as it is in heaven” God wants to make ministry easy here as well. We can pray for these things to happen more often here. He wants to gather Christians together like this to minister to the lost, the needy, the homeless. He is the head of the church. Ephesians Colossians 1:18 “And He is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the first born from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence.” This is what it means, He knows how to direct His body to the needs of the world.

SO GREAT A LIBERTY

I moved from one building to the next, in glory. I felt deeply in Stamford that I was being submerged in the glory. In the glorious liberty of the children of God What does that mean? In a way that is not earthly, in glory, the opposite of degradation, the absence of loss,evil. There is nothing holding you back, you are limitless, you are in it to win, there is no other option, there is no loss, there is no pain, only freedom. This is the glorious freedom of the children of God, it is ours

Romans 8:21 “Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.” All things have become new... this new is you. It's all around you, it jumps inside of you, and then it becomes you.. this new is you. Because we have become new creatures in Christ on the inside, everything in heaven agrees with that. It is a reward. There is now no escaping the wonders of His love, we are the owners of all He has ever desired and fashioned for His beloved family. The liberty He has purchased for us is so pure and it exudes the fact He has defeated the enemy in totality, sin, death and hell have no part in our liberty. We dance, we swim, we live, we move, we learn with no effects of the fall, it is that complete. Don't bargain with this, holiness brings us there as we obey Him. Forgiveness and grace are always available, but sin as a lifestyle will nullify that. Please don't believe the promise of freedom when we sin, that we are getting it all now, the opposite is true. Only the children of God will have this true liberty. James 1:25

“But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.”

Overwhelmingly I felt and understood the great resources of heaven, that the Lord bestows upon his family. There are an infinite number of ways he has to heal us, to bless us. He can do absolutely anything, and heaven is a wild and wonderful example of that. It is “the deepest expression of his love” He has spoken to my heart to write that clearly. Like a new dawn, He was able to create this healing Boulevard, that others too have partaken of.

What a creative, exciting way to care for us.

SHEER LOVE

I am repeating this little excerpt as previously written, as the Lord has indicated to me it is the most important and best part of the book..this may be a first...but He wants you to absorb it...so do I.

The song in the air was intense and real, the song was one of the deepest love and quality of care and restoration. And just mercy, I absorbed the mercy like a living sponge, the mercy, all the way back from the earliest inception of time, from the moment of the fall of Adam and Eve it was all planned, this living hope, this mercy had all been planned. It saturated my spirit like a fountain of oil, falling from the skies, all this was deeply understood. It could knock me over even now when I think of it. This newness seeped into my soul like a great oil of healing. I knew I had been healed of many things, and free of many hard things, all by the love of God, all from the eternal, vibrant, living loving, life of the Son of God who lives to make intercession of us. We have a quality salvation. It did not come cheaply. It came at great cost.

HIM

His face shines as heaven
His eyes rule the night
For it is He who lights the earth
And holds the sun and moon at right
His arms have reached the world about
When He stretched upon the cross
His voice has shaken evil realms no doubt
For on His head rests crowns of gold

And from His robe drops wisdom of old
He has given all he could His very best
Now eternal home, forevermore at rest

How nice the Lord is, showering his children with endless healing. Love and supply He has for us, it never ends. I think of my own family and children, it doesn't matter how many times they need help, I am always there for them, that is just love and life. I offer repeated care and solutions to the best of my ability. The Lord is the same way with us. So how much more does He have for us? It is tremendous.

I could feel the love of God all around, and nothing happened outside that love. HIS COMPLETE GOODNESS WAS EVERYWHERE and the enemy couldn't find a crack..... This is the greatest relief.... Guess what that is.....Heaven !! This is our reality that he fears the most, and rails against, and accuses us for, and he cannot stand that this future belongs to us ! We need to remind our enemy he does not have an inch against us, and he is lying if he says he does !!

THIS IS HOW I REALLY FEEL STAMFORD

This is the essence of heaven and how God really feels, acceptance. He knows who He made, and is so very glad to see us make it home. They knew exactly what I needed and how to use love and ministered to me all that I needed. This part is hard to accurately depict, and it was personal, it moved so fast on the inside of me, so fast, and I do not know exactly what it was, other than the power and deep healing ministry of the Lord. I was better quickly the anointing of that place and the deep oil of heaven was penetrating the raw places. When I realized I was going to enter one building after another, then again, then again, and this was going to keep going. I was actually receiving the joy and energy of heaven while I was participating on the ride. It was almost like a low roller coaster that was moving with great purpose but so gently. The ride was amazing fun, and I had no argument, I was glad to keep going. It was tremendous fun, and my mind felt better and better. They kept relieving me of worry, fear, tiredness, you name it and it was done away with.

He is never boring. It is so good to know if we get the stuffing knocked out of us, the Lord has the answer. He has the place to put us back together, the will, the means. He may use a different way for you or you can visit the Boulevard as I did. I do not hold those answers only that He wills us to go on living and being well as He paid for us to be here to serve Him. I found the experience wonderful, extreme love and friendliness abounded everywhere, and a very important aspect is that everyone knew their job so well. I felt God's love, but did not see Him here, but still absorbed all of His love. He was trusting His servants to do what he told them, to do His will. This is significant because He wants and needs to trust us, the body of Christ, the same way.

When I returned from this place, I was refreshed, something inside me had been healed deeply. And I did not have as hard a time managing a day, and getting on with life here. The healing began gradually and I believe it is still with me working as I need it to this day, Many years later. That is how profound and meaningful the trip to Stamford was. The overwhelming dread was gone, I could function again.

OUR GREAT PHYSICIAN

I have had many healings during the course of my 60 years that were gradual where I had to wait. Sometimes it is standing in faith long enough, so he can accumulate seeds. Sometimes there was a physical reality where one part of the healing had to cement for long enough before the next stage." It has to be my way," I have heard him say while waiting for the next stages of healing and restoration. Other healings have been instantaneous. I have learned He can do anything. I have learned the spiritual must be in the first place. He is a physician who can accomplish anything, and I have enjoyed his love and healing throughout the years, and I hear him say "I paid for that" many times. I have seen the deep gashes and wounds on his back for me. I believe it, the Lamb that was wounded for my transgressions, by His stripes I am healed. 600 lashes, He really took it, did He not! He was fooling the enemy for us ! He paid for us to be here in a whole condition. He knew we would need the help, He knew the enemy had stolen our position, our rights, our place in paradise. He was willing to buy it back for us ! This alone is love! He will not change His mind! ! It has been said everyone recovers from the change of life, and this is how He chose to help me. It was brilliant. He has a list of creative healings that proceed through his servants in various scenarios in heaven and earth. I have also seen people healed through groups of friends there too, where he uses many christians to pray for the sick.

With every healing In heaven, there is a deep place of gratitude, and receiving in full all the Lord has done on the cross to bring us there, and all his planning for the visit as well. Overwhelming ability and power belong to him, in combination with inexhaustible love, we really cannot lose.

When I returned my earthly life was better, I was not as tired and sad, this was a perfect example of heaven helping earth, and heaven and earth working together, because now I could carry on with what He has called me to. I thought these trips worthy of mention because of the two transformations, a person living in the world without God, gaining godly wisdom, and the transformation of my mind and spirit after a long hard depletion.

He had navigated both realms again on behalf of my healing, once again.

We can rejoice at the Lord's willingness to do both, anytime for anyone, all we need is faith. This will move Him, that you understand the cross, and all He has purchased for us, not just heaven but restoration and life here ! Once you agree how good He is, He can move to heal, restore, provide, on your behalf or for others you pray for.

Agree with Him quickly, if you need salvation, or if you need healing, that He has paid a dear price for them both.

Now, many years after the scallops, the window, many trips and right around the time of the swims, 2021 or so... I MET ELI...

ELI GISN Adventures in two worlds 2020

I have been fortunate enough to encounter many angels along the way, But by far, the largest angel I have ever dealt with is Eli. Now that is not to say the others could not manifest largeness, but the need arose and this was amazing. It was Feb 2020, I was over the worst of what menopause could do to me, and I was recovering strength, all with God's love and grace. I knew vaguely something spiritual was going to happen. I had gotten a clue from a family member who had been used of the Lord similarly before many times and I knew it was happening again. There was something on my pillow they had left there while sitting nearby, it was the anointing.

I recognized it but did not know what was before me.

I went to sleep and somewhere in the middle of the night I found myself in the spirit realm very deeply, walking down a sidewalk that had a mini golf course we sometimes pass on the road. This signified FUN, and spiritually, I knew to take it that way, and boy was it on the way. We have been to this mini golf course a few times when the children were young, and not since then, but I knew it and recognized the area. I believe I was placed there in the spirit to have that sense of recognition and as I said, Fun.

AN UNUSUAL STIRRING

I became aware of spiritual activity overhead and to my right, I saw two or three angels stirring and they seemed excited. As I walked on I determined to keep an eye on them so as not to miss a thing, and thought myself quite clever for the attempt. I kept up my game for only a few moments when I was interrupted somehow and down to my left in the exact opposite direction to see the most enormous giant angel I had ever witnessed to date. So much for my cleverness. I thought those two little ones overhead were something, now I had to deal with this towering massive angel! I was a little nervous at the sight of Him but I knew to trust the Lord too.

This angel was African and casually dressed in blue jeans. The jeans really made an impression on me, as though they would be important, and this proved to be true. He showed himself to be gentle and friendly to say the least, and I was able to set any fear aside and trust him, this was important. He then leans close to me and says "You are going up!" I said "Me, are you sure? I have three children. It was the cry of my heart. This I felt profoundly the thought of leaving ran through my system like a lightning rod. Are you sure you have the right address?"

One must understand at this moment my earthly self was still real to me. It then changed over to my spirit mind, and I thought I was going up to stay. I was bewildered at the prospect. All he said was "Yes it is you...grab on." He also said "Grab my pocket!" and there were those jeans again. I thought..."I knew they were important." Just at that moment I was able to grab those pockets at just the right angle, it took me two tries before I felt comfortable, I remember that. I slipped once, and he waited for me to hold on again. I finally knew when I had a good grip on the back pockets in particular, and I felt safe and glad of it, much like when I was little and I knew I was buckled in real good for a car trip or an amusement park ride. It was similar, only 10 times more fun and exciting..as only serving the Lord can be.

Only at that point of security did Eli take off into the heavenliness, and boy did he ever! Up we went, for a ride that was better than any form of travel, what a way to travel, and what joy! I have to say the feeling I had was complete enjoyment and excitement.

There truly is no feeling in this world that compares to the moment you are finally going home. This was not my final run home, but an important visit once again.

Eli's span of body was immensely large. Even his hand alone was huge, and he moved as a mighty warrior with such skill and power it amazed me. He shredded through space and time with me holding on, as a 747 moves through the air to its destination. I could feel the departure from this realm to the next, only because I was holding on to those pockets did it not overwhelm me. I was still myself, in that I did not look around much, curled up like a little kitten, just trusting GOD and ELI. Just as I am on a plane during takeoff, I close my eyes and curl up to the person next to me, thankfully it is usually my husband. Eli was mapped and on target with no hesitation or question where he was taking me. He was enjoying the ride as one who serves the Lord on assignment immensely. I could feel his emotions and joy and that made me feel safe too. I feel to add in here an important fact that Eli knows, there is no more exciting place than when we serve the Lord. The Lord has told me this many times , and I have experienced the reality . Eli was enjoying the trip, but in a deeper way, enjoying serving the Lord.

There is a great sense that time is changing too on the way up, as you are entering a different dimension. At some point I felt a break from the earth's atmosphere. Eli was undisturbed by the changes, and was able to transfer between both realms with ease.

Armies of angels are available to the Lord at any moment of his bidding the Word says.

For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

Psalm 91:11

We are not orphans here, we are protected and beloved saints, and the saints in heaven are praying for us and watching us. We are so important the angels are ministering to us, what an identity!! Throw out any other lies about who you are! We are made for this !

We flew up together in a delightful ride and before I knew it I was seeing and experiencing heaven again. Up and up we soared until time was no more. The realms had changed again. Sometime into the ride my fears and questions and insecurities dropped from me like a dirty old coat. What was I doing wearing that old thing? I won't need it any more. The flight was flawless and exhilarating. My soul felt so tremendously large here, it was bigger than I usually thought, I had never known it to be so massive as I did when I spoke to Eli, and I felt prettier than usual. This is who we will be for all eternity. The transition there tells the real story of who we are, and this is who God knows us to be. All else is a lie.

This friendly giant had no agenda of his own. He had been serving the Lord for eons, and knew exactly what was needed. His joy and delight was to serve the Lord and to do His bidding, I could feel this everywhere. That is to say my spiritual senses were tuned and focused to this fact,. I could feel the drip. This reality is God's goodness towards us. It was his joy to serve me, and thereby serve the Lord, as that was God's intention for me. I asked his name upon departing "Eli" he shouted. (Now there really was no "Gisn", this was a typo that stayed on my desktop and helped me recognize what I was working on. I just thought I would keep it, I kind of like it,, don't you? So let's just pretend that is his full name, and maybe it is, maybe that typo was not a mistake after all.. things are like that in the spirit realm.

CLOTHES SHOPPING

Eli dropped me off gently. My first point of contact was simply asking some new friends where I was. In a place I felt comfortable, to orient me I believe, it was fun. I was in a kitchen setting of some sort. It was quaint and small so I felt at home. I remember yellow and an open curved counter, this helped me settle. I had to adjust to this change, and wrap my head around that flight. I think they gave me something to eat there, and ministered to me. I was dizzy at first. There was something about this trip that gave me that reaction. I had to adjust and I really remember that so well. The overwhelming sense of change. We live on this earthly plane, and to be shuttled into the heavenly dimension is not a tiny thing. Oh the care of the Lord every little thing matters to Him !! Later I was taken to a nice lady and a boutique shop she owned somehow. I understood upon meeting her that this was her job there. This is how it is in heaven, we all bare a reputation of some sort, and are known. She liked her job there. It was a part of her story. She had a lot of clothes there to offer, they were all hanging on two giant round racks and each piece of clothing was exceptional. They were so many, but it all never got too tight to rummage through. I remember saying something like "There is no skimping here." Truly each piece of women's clothing was stunning in quality, and care, I saw mesmerizing golds and olive greens, they screamed to me of His love once again. The quality was "fierce" if I may put it that way. Yeshua loudly speaking now, "You deserve this and I paid for it, and I love you that much."

She had been sitting there at her post for a while. it seemed to me. She answered a few of my questions, about shopping in heaven, yes it does exist (I wanted to know!) I discovered that if we enjoyed something here, it is available in heaven too. Can you imagine, the Lord of glory keeping all this for us. But it will be without sin, of any kind. I took it all as a signature of God's love, and that He has not missed a thing, He regards us that highly, what a Papa.

At the same time the same amenities in heaven are never haughty and high and mighty, that is, they are not attached to sin, nor are they attacked and stolen by sin. There is no better than you," judgements of all manner we may run into here. Anyone with this attitude is the least in the kingdom of heaven. You see, things are not as they seem. "The last shall be first, and the first last; for many be called but few chosen." The first shall be last as only the principals of Yeshua will have merit there. All this shopping was free to add to the glory, no exchange of money that I could see nor did I experience.

The difference in enjoying things here for Christians is that sin is not attached to them. We may understand it is God's grace and love and not fall deeply into pride or greed. We have a heightened sense of wisdom regarding this as the Holy Spirit sheds this abroad in our hearts. Abundant life comes from these wisdoms within us that we apply in daily life.

We enjoy prosperity here as a gift from His grace. There is no need for pride or lust or selfishness. This is true prosperity, when the soul is right with Him.

HE REMEMBERS..PRESERVED FOR US

During this trip, I visited a makeup counter. Yes, all things have been provided. Now why would anyone need makeup in heaven? I have not been interested in makeup as I age, during my younger days, I did enjoy those things. There it all was, and it brought back memories. The truth is anything we even remotely enjoyed here, we can have and enjoy there. So I was glad to see this counter because it reminded me so much of the 70's. It contained all the perfumes that were available at that time, I was intrigued. I saw an eyeliner that is not made anymore there, and I was glad. The glass counter was as I knew it and you could peer down and find what you needed. I want you to see too that anything we enjoyed decades ago, that we may believe is long gone, the Lord has preserved for us, and we can still have it again. Most of all what I want you to glean from this is His love and caring and His accounting of all these things. Yes He loves us that much and all these things are there in His keeping. He remembers, He has preserved it all for us.

A DEEPER REASON

Now, such a large angel, just to show me about shopping in heaven? Well that is just some of it. Something deeper was looming. I had some questions, regarding that too, but the trip was for a deeper encouragement.... to write.

When the angel was bringing me down from the highest heaven but not quite to earth yet, a sort of middle ground. I remember feeling and knowing Eli and myself were at some sort of interim. I also knew that He understood this place and that we were safe, just not in the glory, but very safe. He said, "I am sure you had some of your questions answered." and then spoke the most surprising thing to me, He said "You're going to put all your trips in a book and an angel will help you distribute the work." This tickled me because I had no idea angels could help me do this. It was also a surprise to my spirit, which he detected immediately. I felt my jaw drop, from hearing both about the books and later, the other ones He wants me to write. More yet, I actually saw it drop, and this is what tickled Eli. But anyway, he started laughing in the most hilarious way, he was laughing at my surprise and how far my jaw dropped. I knew this in the spirit in an automatic kind of way. I actually saw my jaw drop to the ground, this was all very spiritual and did not require any actual reparations. I remember thinking I hope he doesn't get too loud, he is so huge. We both just enjoyed that time and moment together immensely. Love is everywhere and this is the most outstanding enjoyable feature of this realm where God lives. It is the language of heaven if you will. Everyone speaks it fluently.

I have to say you get to know yourself well in heaven. You are more than you know or think. The fulfillment of who we are is there with HIM, God knows who he sent, who he made, even if we are not entirely sure here, finding salvation and a purpose begins to reveal it. We understand all things well, the veil has been lifted, and the view is outstanding. This all begins at our moment of salvation, and later growth to fulfill a purpose for Him.

I also love to write, and had no problem getting started, it seems the finishing up is harder. Places to go, Eli was right. He knew all about the Lord's plans for me, and was the one to tell me and help me get started. It is time, I am almost 60 now, and I believe there is enough variety and lessons, so that anyone can take parts of this home to their heart and inner self, that will help their life, and move them into a deeper place, and most importantly to release their ministry in the earth. For some, simply to find salvation by having faith and seeing how much God loves them through the sights and sounds of heaven, and what he has prepared for them. When we say this prayer we are translated to His kingdom and become ready for heaven. Dear Jesus, I believe you are the son of God sent from heaven to die for my sins. Please forgive my sins. If you meant that, you are now a citizen of heaven.

SEGWAY HOME

On the way back, further down, we were all in a car, and in order to exit heaven this time we had to pass through a house and a driveway that had been used for this purpose before. I just knew that in my spirit and felt it. I just knew that instinctively it was a place that was in the heavenliness, but it was reaching to earth as an entryway, it was a segway of the heavenly kind....

There was a beautiful archway filled with flowers and when one passes through that you begin to head home here. Even this step the Lord has providence for, again, speaking deeply of His love and attention to detail.

I was with a lot of company in the car and with Eli, who had reduced considerably in size, which indicated to me these angels can reconfigure in many forms depending on their purpose, and wasn't it nice of the Lord to keep me in his company, so I felt safe and not sad and lonely ! When I commented "Gee, I like it up there and I think I should stay." Eli said "You belong here with your family." He also said "You have your questions answered, and you can get started on your book."

All his words gleamed with purpose in such a way that I could never have misunderstood, and in such a way, that I could only be filled with wisdom, purpose, and delight. These are indescribable and intimate moments, as any Christian encounters in our walk with the Lord.

And if you are not a Christian today, reading this book, realize you are so invited to partake of all of these blessings , in a personal way.

You are cherished and invited, as all of us sinners are, and He is ready to transform your life into something wonderful for his kingdom. He is transforming all of us as well into His perfect likeness, whereby we walk in love, and invite others to know Him. Want to join the party? Take my words to heart, it is an eternal invitation free from pain and grief of any kind ! How else could we bear eternity ? He has thought of everything, masterfully !!

I love the Lord for giving me such a time with Eli, and for choosing to use him in this way.

The actual reason for the trip was to engage me to write about all my experiences of the heavenly kind. It is part of the design, the encounters, to help me remember and be encouraged to keep writing. I just cannot forget to write now, every time I think of him. I remember the purpose of the trip, to get me to record my trips. Today because of him, it stands as a deep reminder and encouragement to keep writing and to let the Lord use this, to travel on and continue to press forward .

BRADLEE AGAIN fast forward 2021

I am preparing for surgery again, this time dental, having some age on me now, I am nervous about the anesthesia, there is this bit about waking up, breathing well.

I do so love the Lord for His care and motion in the spirit for us at these moments. I see Bradlee again this time in human form. I am preparing for surgery, it seems he always pops up around these times. As he did for my back surgery a decade ago, I see him in the spirit right before surgery, he flashes me a big smile, but his eyes, his eyes told me the story. It held all the peace I needed in their expression... "don't worry, this will be easy." I am more healed from some breathing issues than I realized.

I get the message, this will be easy, do not fear. I walk into the consultation in a huge medical facility. I am a bit nervous, there he is as a man in the waiting room, gently offering us to sit next to him, so gentle and so loving I cannot even describe, we take our seats. The invitation to sit near him started to make sense, even though we are all on covid restrictions.

You see they are in the glory all the time, and there is love there. They are used to walking and talking in this obedience, and this is the lifestyle there, to walk in this love and gentleness.

I saw the eyes again beaming with joy, the same eyes, and peace and that same look that set my fears aside the night before. These were the eyes of my Bradlee, beaming with joy and love over and over again, those eyes would not quit. That is the love of God, it just never ends.

I strongly suspected this was Bradlee, I was beginning to sense the supernatural, and his love and gentleness started to convince me. I was as the Prevensi children when in the subway station and Lucy proclaims: "It's the magic" But as I started talking to my husband, and telling him some old jokes no one cares to hear but him. I knew it was Bradlee because he liked what I was saying too. This man- angel was actually laughing at my old dry jokes, that make no one laugh but myself. This was the beginning of knowing I was sitting next to my guardian angel in the flesh. I have seen angels in the flesh twice before.

The love, the sense of home, the message I needed all at the right time, it was so impeccably timed and saturated with love.

All went well, all my fears about breathing were calmed, it was easy just as Bradlee, my lifelong faithful angel had ministered that truth to me.

This love, this ministry is available to all of us as His children. To understand, as we participate in His kingdom, and serve Him, we will receive help and ministry from our angels or any angel he has assigned to the situation. Like a mother who knows what t- shirt will fit today, so he can connect his servants and angels to the children that have been born into His kingdom and have a need.

OH THAT LAKE

Another time I was in a significantly large lake, the size was overwhelmingly large, and broad and beautiful , and again, I was encouraged. The gentle waves began to heal my fears and my confidence grew and the experience was arranged to help me understand I was not as sick or depleted as I thought I was. I would reach for a long strong stretch as I always used to among at the waves and someone was there to encourage me,” see, I knew you could do it. I continued and slowly regained a part of myself that I believed was lost. But nothing is lost ! He is able to replace everything ! I was able to manage this large lake, and swim, and somehow this healed my mind when returning that I was not as bad off as I thought. I needed the confidence.

SPEAKING OF LAKES

One of the most magnificent sites I have ever seen there was a lake of clear blue aqua color that was so luminescent and free, it looped around like a large snake in the shape of an elongated oval. It was magnificent, truly, truly magnificent. I was blown away. It took a moment, but I noticed a great number of boats that were docked, each one a bit different and significant in nature and color. I have briefly seen some footage of deep gorges in carved out mountains in Norway on a commercial, that have deep exotic rivers that seem to tumble in their midst. This was similar. But the water, oh the water was so clear, and calm, you knew it was warm, and would not harm you if you went in. Nothing to fear from beneath, no critters that bite or sting. I think this had the most healing for me, nothing to fear in the great waters of calm that the Lord of Glory has created for us. The color was the most vivid aqua blue, and to be remembered.

I could feel deep within my spirit this place held within it the ability to soothe and refresh, this was a part of my healing, and what a beautiful way to receive it. The boats and docks belonged to its inhabitants, who to my knowledge were a group of women of diverse backgrounds who had all served the Lord in their lifetime here. These women knew they were living in an immensely blessed state, and yet the sin of pride was not evident. There was no trace of that worldly mess and corruption we can sometimes face here, or see in other people, in fact they were all so sweet and kind, we had such nice fellowship. I soon realized that they leave their little homes every so often and have wonderful fellowship together in the fellowship of women in its highest and best sense. Their delightfulness captivated me as I realized this was His will for them, this rest, this peace, the highest reward forever. Never will they grow tired, old, bored, sick, all that is done away. A brand new and vivid new order has begun,, as described in revelation. This is the new order that Yeshua has purchased for us, it is our new covenant, all has been bought back for us.

Visiting and seeing this lake stayed with me a long time. I was impressed with its beauty and its immense size, but again it was the love and care of our creator that had the most profound effect on me. To think he would go to such lengths, such care, such design, and thought, this could only come from someone who has created us with intense purpose and love. It is all there, and this is the truth.

Particularly when awful things happen, and when mean things happen, we can be sold on the bill of goods that he does not care. There is a war going on, and the nature of the war is to fool us. The place of truth is heaven, look how much he cares for us, and what he has planned! This needs to live in our hearts, so we can forbid the lies from taking root and taking over our heart and psyche.

Just seeing this place gave me refreshment and reward, and new strength for each new day here. I secretly wished I could have one of those docks with a boat, and stay there longer but we had to move on. The change of life had made me feel stuck, this set me free to a degree, and gave me a feeling of openness again, and I partook of the freedom simply by witnessing it, and visiting.

Deep in my spirit, I felt these women had been through some things and God was restoring them so deeply, and it was a preview for me of the liberty of the children of God. Romans 8:21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

WE SHALL BE DELIVERED

We need to get free of something, the verse above speaks of the bondage of corruption, the sin that has brought all manner of evil and curses and sickness, We need to understand this. We move into the glorious liberty here, upon salvation, and in heaven eternally.

The Bible is true and means to give us a glimpse of heaven as we read it, this is deep liberty. The enemy lies when we sin, and tells us, look at all the freedom you have, you are fast, you are the best, you deserve this, he lies, when really we are plummeting into degradation. He is actually defeating us, stealing from us, beating us, every moment we sin. You see, only sin can enslave us, and the enemy will hold us there forever in hell, so please accept the free gift of salvation...John 3:16 For God so loved the world He has given His only son that whosoever believes in Him may have eternal life. This gift has always been free for us to obtain.

This kind of liberty that awaits us, and indeed, we may have here, swells from the deep springs of redemption. True life and prosperity is the freedom from sin and the snares that it brings. This can only be accomplished throughout our life by the Son of God who has been given all power. Matthew 28:18 All power has been given unto Me.

This is my conclusion of the restorations I received after the change. I will now go on to other miracles in the spirit and in heaven that deserve to be told and learned from and enjoyed.

TRULY SPECTACULAR up in the spirit Lindsay
Yes God can do that.....

God needs any available tool in these dark days that will help him minister. You and I are it! Has anyone ever told you that? If you believe that about yourself, don't be surprised if the Lord uses you in the way I am about to describe.

For the past 20 years or more I have been used in the spirit to minister to the lost, yes, in this physical realm many times, but also many times in the spirit realm with His guidance and this one in the spirit is worth noting!

The regular traditions and modalities of christianity are not sufficient to reach the lost. He needs more, and he is waiting to hear from us to make ourselves available. He will meet every single need we have in order to get us to the lost. He is the head of the church . This is what he waits to accomplish in us.

And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence. He knows what needs to be done, He needs to be the Head. We don't know everything., only He can guide.

There are people we know who are in our past, who we have moved away from, who are still unsaved, who are not safely tucked into God's kingdom as we are, whom we love. There are those who we cannot reach and they need salvation. This was Lindsay to me.

She was an old friend. I was worried about her for a long time, since our time together as teenagers we were a bit wild, (this is a dramatic understatement) she had not really changed from that time, and had kept up with some of the enemy's ways. I had heard about this from the Lord over the years, here and there. Her family was worried about her, there was no change. Here we were in our late 50s, and now separated by 350 miles. But in the spirit I knew what was going on.

I walked into a grocery store in the front area where the carts were, there was a song playing that reminded me of her, and my heart started melting. I could feel my inward self falling through the floor with love and sorrow at the same time. I could not imagine her gone for all eternity, never knowing the love and goodness of God, knowing of her eternal reality was too much, my pain was raw and real. I wanted her to know and understand the Lord deeply. It was just so real. I reached for the cart, just then the spirit of God filled that entry in a huge way and he said "I feel your heart breaking" literally the whole entry became full of the spirit of God, whose heart was breaking right along with mine, he knew the grief. the fear, the hopeless feeling of losing her.

I remember thinking at least someone cares and maybe He will hold me up and help me finish what I have to do. It was that severe. He had great compassion for me in my sadness. I was not alone, and I also realized He could relate, in other words, and simply put, He feels this all the time. He feels this sorrow for the lost all the time, most likely much deeper than we understand on a daily basis. I am a partaker of his afflictions, and this was one of them, this is when we are most close to Him, it is profound. Yet we are partners together to help the lost.

I needed tissues and this all could pass for having allergies when I needed to speak. It went on. It was deep, and why it all had to hit me in public I do not know. I think I loved her more than I realized and that song was just too much. A breaking point. There was a man at the bakery section who passed me a bunch of napkins. I said allergies, but I think he knew better.

Just a week or so after that, you see He had it all planned. While asleep I was transported to a place in the spirit to a road in front of a friend's house we were both familiar with from our teen years. It was sunny and we faced each other, we were alone. Big surprise, hugs, I asked her how she was, and I told her she needed Jesus, and we were getting older. I recall my words,,, we are 50 now....

To my utter amazement and joy (she was stubborn by nature) she humbly confessed: "I could use a savior." I was in shock. I leaned in closer to make sure I was hearing correctly "What, what, what did you say ???" Tears, I could feel them...not part joy...but pure joy...not part relief...total relief....big giant hugs....suddenly in an instant I was gone, crying joyfully!....hey where did I go.....I am not on the sunny street.....I was out of there like a bullet and had no choice in the matter.

It was God's turn. I found out later, It was august 2017, I woke up in tears, telling my family what happened In the spirit, it was a time of rejoicing. Later I wondered where I went and the Lord told me this is where He took over....and it was personal.....so I was no longer needed.

But there was an aftermath of rejoicing in heaven, and I got to see it and participate. This was pure joy. We have His joy at these moments. We were all wild with excitement and overwhelming rejoicing that she had made it ! There are simply no words for the relief and all the glory went to Jesus for making it all so possible.

I found a new friend in her Dad, who was more relieved than I, and we shared in the joy and rejoicing together. He said we got lucky, and there was more. Her Mom came by my side in the spirit while I was just reading, and the Lord told her I was instrumental, and it was all so wonderful for all of us. I heard her say “ well isn’t that something , and she had understanding” I saw her sister look at me too in the spirit and there was so much joy in her...I heard her say” thank you so much.. she thanked me many times.. and God got all the glory. And no earthly thing will ruin our friendships . We change there and are as different people, He perfects our character and we are more like Him, and there is nothing but love.

Now His family was enlarged and she was gloriously saved, and we are in the same kingdom finally. She now understands the difference. A sin life or holiness. You see the miles, the state, alive here, alive there, none of it matters! He can accomplish anything that concerns us !

There is no distance in Yeshua, and He is so very willing to help the lost. We have more to do with others’ salvation than we think as Christians, just let your heart break, be full of sorrow for someone you know, and He will move. This salvation worked by love, I am telling you .. let your heart break.

FAITH WORKS BY LOVE

I understand this so very well, all things He does move by love. It is not just constant prayer for the lost, but OUR AVAILABILITY that gets it done. It is OUR BROKEN HEARTS that move Him. How do we make ourselves available? By believing that is WHO WE ARE to start, so who are we? we are the tools he needs here. Then, moved by love in our hearts, He will respond. I have a burden for the lost, I feel it from a holy place and the Holy Spirit thinks it is beautiful, and it is regarded highly in the kingdom of God and acknowledged.

This one was wonderful. He felt my heart break, and He was helping me as well as Lindsay. Let your heart break in two. He will come to you and heal you through their salvation, and use you in ways you have not thought of.

Believe for them....say: “USE ME LORD”.. My heart is breaking, and let it break.. And He will move to save them ! We can ask Him for anything at these moments and He will do it ! One time while praying for someone’s salvation he inspired me to love that person and they would know He was alive that way.

The next day I woke up and said can you love him too and reveal yourself? I rocketed into the spirit and I introduced Jesus to this person and saw Him reveal himself to this person in the spirit. He showed himself as Messiah and friend. It was wonderful to see Him. He is always so gorgeous and grown up.

We can all rest about her now, and there was more ministry she needed that we prayed in, and she wished she had found salvation sooner, but it is not too late. She made it before the enemy had complete authority over her in hell. She was not going to make it much longer while in that lifestyle, I found out later, she came to me in the spirit, and said I would be dead without you. God is so merciful, He knew just when to intervene and save her for all eternity. The kingdom can be a place of gentle war, with Jesus as our head, fighting for the lost, and using us whenever he can. We win every time, the enemy is sorely defeated, information he does not want you to know,

If you are saved, never underestimate your importance. This is where the enemy can stop us, or if we are not brave and bold enough at the right time. We are needed more than we realize for the lost, and God is keen to make opportunity, if we believe this is who we really are.

If you are unsaved, there is a whole dimension waiting for you to grow into. You have not seen it yet, and if you are unsure if you know Jesus, please don't wait a lifetime, or half a lifetime to accept the Lord. Anyone who has ever met him only wished they had done it sooner, and every single soul in hell wished they took a different path. They wish they knew more about the goodness of God that was waiting for them while they walked the earth. That is how good and gracious and gentle He is. Oh only to have it early, and sooner in life, so many mistakes and sins never to have happened, so many answers and guidance He was waiting to give, it is all ours, now and forever!! I love the scripture.. He will be our everlasting light..!!

Sin is what you are putting your precious soul through, it will torch your soul, ruin your destiny and steal from you before you know what hit you.

HELL, HE NEEDS A WITNESS heading to the dark side now
I have had the dubious honor (yes the honor) of visiting and seeing hell many times. Each visit was an expansion of the soul and resulted in a deep understanding of the spirit realm, and even more so of the importance of my spiritual growth. Which leads ultimately, to more souls. This is deeply important to consider, our growth means someone else's salvation.

A good deal of learning goes on in heaven, and it should be no surprise that this also continues in hell. In fact, just as in heaven, the learning goes on forever. All who inhabit this realm, this non- dimension, learn quickly that there is no hope, no future, and they understand all of the enemy's intricate designs that brought them there. It is a learning with immense personal regret and sorrow and there is no redemption from it.

There is no savior there to console, to clear misunderstandings, to console or forgive our sins of the past. No one can hear your cries for mercy there, and the enemy will only taunt you all the more. He is more horrible than even that.

Only a personal payment for all sin is left to us there, as the opportunity for a savior is long past. God's outpouring of love, in giving his own Son, for our redemption has been shunned, and forsaken by all there, who have lived their life and rejected Him. All with different and varying degrees of sin and deception, each listening to the enemy with his design for their place there. How subtle he whispers in the secret places of our hearts, in the micro- decisions we think are nothing. Some are there because no one told them the gospel, and this is our responsibility, and should be our response to the unsaved while we are here.

This is not to be over them, because we all deserve this place actually, and without Jesus all mankind would have to be citizens there. Let me conclude with noting that hell will teach us faster than any other place. It is immensely educational from deep within us.

If we have not seen ourselves here, in our true condition of sin, and in need of a savior, we will certainly see our sin there. But it will be too late for a Savior in the empty, black cavernous halls of hell. I have heard the Lord say to me a few times when trying to teach me out of a flesh sin, you can learn this in hell if you want to. Nothing snapped me out of it faster. Rabbi He knows how to teach, indeed.

Proverbs 27:20

NO STREETS

Hell has long been associated with great plumes of fire, and surely there are in the deeper areas. The places I have been to were full of other torments and filled with grim and horrible scenarios of torment. One time I saw men running in hell, half clothed, some naked, just running. But here is the sad part, there are no roads, and the misery this creates is unimaginable, and they travel on and on just running, with no solid ground at all. Yet they have to run, they know they have to, the enemy is close behind with torture awaiting. The intense knowledge of this is real and a hell unto itself, so they continue to run, run, run. They are driven, chased, with no relief. There is no rest in hell, that outstanding feature is known to everyone there. Luke 12:5

BEFORE WE GET TOO SMUG

At one moment while viewing these men, I felt a tinge of pride, "Oh those poor souls..." and suddenly an angel threw me into the crowd. I learned quickly I am a sinner too and we all deserve that. There I stood in the midst of the runners, and my mindset changed very quickly! As soon as I learned that lesson, the angel pulled me out, and I was safe again. Things are that fast and that real in the spirit realm.

There is nothing worth waiting for in this life that would exceed the knowledge of Christ, please don't put it off.. life goes quickly, only Jesus can satisfy!

He will give you the answers to life and make yours count for Him.

Mean this prayer in your heart now . Jesus I know you died for me on the cross. For my sin. I am a sinner. I accept this payment for my sins. I now belong to you. It is that simple, you are now a beloved child of God. You will spend eternity with Him in a truly splendid place.

There is no equal here to the expressions on the faces of those that are destined to live there for all eternity. The horror comes up from their stomachs, from the deepest part of them. The horror is etched on their face, even the most hopeless sad person on earth has more hope. They have a chance to find the Lord. In hell though....there is no hopelessness like this. The enemy knows how to steal completely, more than our minds can fathom. But your heavenly Father can love you more than your mind can imagine! Without Christ as savior, they are forced into degradations and vile scenarios 100 times a day, though there is no day there, there is even no memory of the good you once had, there the enemy won't allow it. How gruesomely and completely the enemy steals.

There is no place for pride at the cross, ALL are guilty, no one is innocent, and every knee will bow to the King of kings and his Lordship alone will prevail someday. I always say to myself, "He will have the last word." And you can believe that. So we can agree with him quickly here, with His word, His will and His work, and live our lives in light of eternity.

FAMOUS OR NOT...Truly spectacular

One time I had been concerned, and praying for the daughter of someone whose father was famous but had passed, I wondered about her soul, and her spirit. I felt she was alone and not saved, and no one had ever really taken the time to explain things to her. It is Truly Spectacular, I call it, when the Lord simply hears your concerns and acts upon them, we are partners.

I was surprised how quickly he intervened.

One night suddenly there in the middle of the night, we were both transported to the spirit realm. There we were together, standing before a crowd of thousands, if not tens of thousands, maybe even millions, if my eyes could go further. A great number, who were cordoned off and penned in and confined behind great ropes. They were partially dressed and filthy looking, with that same lost expression on their face, just standing there. I was not sure what force held them there at first, but soon I concluded, the enemy had every right to hold them there, they had no Savior, the blood of Jesus does not exist there, and he has full rights. They could not move, they could only stand, just stand. The expression on their faces was so lost, so deprived of life. This is how deeply the enemy steals, when he has a right.

This is one of the torments of hell, that a human being who is meant to live and move, cannot do so there. I have seen it many times since. And heard of other participants in hell who claim they cannot move. I even saw little cages, where people could not speak to one another but must be in there alone, isolated, unable to move. I was able somehow to feel the very essence of what they feel and it is the most horrible isolating desolation one could ever imagine. The rule was that you cannot move, you must just stand behind the ropes or in the cages.

And did I mention that this scene was not a tiny one, it went on for miles. Hundreds and thousands of souls, just standing, no life, no love, cannot speak, cannot move and the hopelessness on their faces makes me want to cry as I write this. Matthew 10:28 Matt 18:9

God is merciful, and does not want us to be overwhelmed and frightened. I felt their immobilization from the bottom of my soul, their pain became my pain and I was understanding the enemy's sick joy and warped sense of humor to say the least. I knew these were someone's babies, someone's children, someone's sister, brother, all a wonderful creation of God not meant for satan's pleasure, and it all broke my heart deeply. The soul that is created for God will never lose that purpose. These souls have been made for God, to have that soul complete in His presence forever. But there is no trick the enemy will not pull. He is so low you can't even see him, he is not even up to a crouch. Could I ever imagine my own children in this mess, this stillness, this abandonment of life. It all made me want to witness the gospel more, and live a holy life of obedience, and make sure they know the Lord.

This was heartbreaking, they had no recourse, no one to cry out to, no one to help them out of their misery. In the very deepest sense their sorrow and confusion was compounded by the horrible truth that they never knew Jesus. This they will know for all eternity, they had never taken the chance in life to accept the Savior who is the ransom for their sins. There was a young girl there in the front row, and I looked more closely at her and my heart shattered. I wanted to pull her out, but judgment had been set.

Now back to the young woman I was visiting with. Her spiritual eyes were opening as she was viewing this with me, I heard her comment..."There are millions of them!" with such gaping horror and wonder. She had for the first time the immense realization that this was real. The spirit realm is real, and without Jesus this was it, as far as you get to go. This is the reality without Christ. I knew she had seen the reality of the spirit realm after death, and this reality would be hers without Him. God was showing her the place the enemy would have her destiny without the Savior.

I was shown later, this woman did succumb to a life of drugs. She did not take the visit seriously enough and look into it. I heard her admit that. She found her destiny behind the ropes. These are the halls of the drug overdosed, the lost without a savior, without being cleansed. When drugs are used outside of medical purposes, we are ingesting demons. Only the son of God has the power to set us free. She was given a chance. When the Lord speaks.. Please listen. He is trying to save you. He was willing to forgive her, to cleanse her. So she may find life in the holy city. In salvation. It was free.

It is good to know that the Lord is perfectly willing to give these experiences to anyone who needs help understanding salvation and all we have to do is love them, have a broken heart that is genuine. God will see it, feel it too, He will have that broken heart with you for others who do not know Him. We can dial anyone, absolutely anyone into the kingdom of God by love. Our faith will work by love. This is so important, to love that person and then all will work towards that person's salvation.

They can see their own reality of a future without him. Pray for your unsaved friends! As a determined act of love. Love, faith and a broken heart are what He will respond to in no time, and then use you in some way to explain how easy it is to know Jesus and what a friend He is ! A friend of sinners !

For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth anything, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love.

FAMOUS THEY NEED YOU

I witnessed a man in hell who was famous here, This did not help him one bit in hell. It was the condition of his spirit that only made the difference. The enemy had captured him.

First here, he was captured, spiritually. He lived this life without the savior. There in hell, now captured in every possible way. He had been stopped in his tracks by the enemy. "What are you going to do to me??" He knew he was under the authority of demons, and would have no choice, it was no longer up to him. His fate was up to monsters and demons who do the will of the enemy. HE KNEW HE COULD NOT MOVE NOW UNDER THE DEMONS AUTHORITY. He wiped his forehead for comfort, suddenly the demons tied his hands behind his back, that would not be allowed, that little bit of comfort was not allowed. Are we getting a picture of the nature of our enemy and hell yet? Both are profoundly base and low and cruel. This is all we have been saved from by accepting the Lord's free gift of salvation ! He had no choice. I heard him say again to the enemies around him, “ what are you going to do to me? He knew AND UNDERSTOOD there was more ahead, this was fear, real fear. There really is no fear like this, with the understanding there is not a shred of love around us. You see God is relying on love, our love to help others. But there is none of that in hell. What a monster, who will not allow love. The life that had the chance for Christ had passed, now he will endure a new life under great pressure, sorrow, unleashed terror and under the authority of the enemy of God. You see the nature of the enemy is so low, and sick, they will take pleasure to torment this celebrity for all eternity. This man made many movies in his life, and appeared to be a smashing success. Anyone would know who he is, and yet ALL that mattered after his death, is that He KNEW Christ and could be free from this place. Let us not be in awe if we meet a celebrity. I would suggest, rather, look to the heart, have they found Christ? They may need to hear it from you, a child of God, and the Lord of Glory can seat you in that position to witness. It has happened to me more than once or twice already, and when I was brave enough the Lord was able to move.

9 MONTHS READY OR NOT

As I said I have the dubious honor, I was taken to hell for a period of around 9 months, at the beginning of my service to God. At first I did not understand. Every morning at around 3 am the enemy seemed to have the ability to take me there, torture me with various hellish scenarios and then I would wake up the usual time. I felt a little extra put out and tired from it, even stunned, but I was able to rebound through the Lord's grace and because I was so close to Him. He was able to heal, mend and fortify me. I did not feel a great deal of fear because of my relationship with the Lord and my clear decision to serve Him. The visits there were real, and finally the Lord spoke to me about it, and ended it. Psalm 139 8-10

ALMOST GONE

During my teens I came very close to serving sin and satan. God had immense mercy on me at the time, because in part, I was running from an abusive homelife. I had no idea what sin was, and actually thought it was the universe giving me a way out ! I was, in part, coerced into sin at a young age. My intentions were mixed in that way. I was a driven person, but I also opted for a lot of sin, actually in an attempt to leave this earth. I did not know what sin was at the time, just accepted it as a way out. Core ignorance is an extremely dangerous thing. Secretly, I was that injured and alone. Looking back I see all the enemy's designs but because I came so close to the enemies camp, when after maturing in the Lord in my 20's, and deciding to serve God, he had a right to show his anger and wrath In light of my service to the Lord. This is spiritual and needs to be understood. Satan will not give up his territory easily. He has a right to a kill, he has a right to afflict if there has been enough sin. The battle is on, the war is real, and we can only win in Christ ! I dared to serve the Lord, after almost serving satan. That my life previously had come so very close to his camp, the enemy does not give up without a fight. God ended it, and one day said "You have had enough, all this trouble, and now it is over." He gently and decidedly stopped the enemy and took his final rights away from bringing me to his kingdom, that place where he has authority over the souls of men. This is why we all need a savior.

But dear friends, I am going to tell you how real and close hell is. We come so close to hell when we sin. If we die at that moment, it is a very dangerous game, our decisions make all the difference.

HOT SEARS.... so close

I had a brand new floor in my bedroom, beautiful wood planks, matte finish, and it was spotless. Some time later, we moved the furniture around and there was a brown burnt spot directly under the place I slept. At first it did not register. Months later, still trying to scrub it out, the Lord gave me the understanding that was where they took me to hell for those 9 months, it almost burned a hole in the floor !! There was no other explanation, as the floor was new and spotless. God had revealed it to me while I scrubbed. The enemy had a right, he had a portal, and he took it. Let me say I was also so close to the Lord at this time, he would wash it all away in the morning, and He was with me enough that I felt safe and I knew my salvation was still in place.

I say this to show you how real it is, how close sin brings us to the enemy's camp, and how important it is to live a holy life. Of course He forgives our mistakes, and brief and ignorant step-overs, and even our nature that needs to be transformed, as we can step out of that also. There is forgiveness, but we cannot stay there as a life-style or think it is right or it won't matter, it does, if we live as a lifestyle and sin long enough. So please confess all now, and seek a holy life, not perfect, but more mature in Him, as we try to be Christians here.

Pursue holiness. It really makes all the difference in the final results of things. There is a war going on. Holiness gives us great benefits ! He knows it keeps us out of the enemies right to curse us ! It is here God can prosper us, and whisper His plans to us for a future and a hope. Jeremiah 29:11 For I know the plans I have for you. Declares the Lord, plans to prosper you and not to harm you , plans to give you a future and a hope.

HE NEEDS A WITNESS..... changes us deeply

These trips to hell have given me the ability to witness to the lost in a way I would not have without visiting there. I am moved with more compassion and urgency. I am more aware of the deceptions of the enemy and how he has fooled them. I am filled with love for the souls that the Lord has created for Himself, and is waiting for. I am not swayed, fooled or provoked. I am an effective witness for the Lord.

I shudder to think of the fate that awaits them. They are not expecting it. In his wisdom, He uses the evil brought to us, to help others. It is a wonderful way to live, in light of eternity. These are the wondrous WORKS of God, for us to experience. As many know, He is a master at saving us and then using us to find the lost. He does not waste a thread of our experience with sin, in this we can rejoice.

He needs people to go there and witness things, and be a part of it even as I have been. It gives us a broader sense of the world and the reality after leaving this earth. It makes us see things in a more urgent way. I tend to be relaxed , but not about this, it is vital. It is now. It is forever. We can laugh and smile at many things in life, but not about this. It is you, it is me, set someone free today, tell them about hell, and how to avoid it and you will experience the blessing and love of God more deeply too as He partners with you, as you share His interests in saving a soul.

MANY GLIMMERS..catching a glimpse

I have seen and felt the torments of many in hell that I have known on earth. God has given me small glimmers of what they are experiencing. He wants it recorded in this book. Though there is nothing that glimmers there, I use that term to indicate a momentary view of the spirit realm that results in understanding. Sometimes these have fit into a question I had, or a lesson I needed, I cannot recall every single reason, but there always has been one. He wants me to understand how he judged them, so I can help the lost. I will do my best.

I want you to know God is good like this to his family, and the Bible says... we will become wiser,, not prouder If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him James 1:5

When we get these glimpses, it helps us just as well, or sometimes more than one special visit, it remains in our mind more deeply, as these things are applied to life, in real time, often, as we live it. This wisdom does not make us proud, but only makes us more humble to see the reality of life after death. It is a call to action actually. He gives the glimmer, the reality, the glimpse.... we act. We follow the leading, ask Him for more.

NOT SO PRETTY

I bumped into a family member in hell, more aptly put, we were there together one night during the time I was taken there. She had many chances to know the Lord. God had sent her many Christians through her life, but she had the idea that money would save her. Notice I said the idea” these are the poisonous teachings of the enemy. We need to be discerning. Money is not our savior. Politics cannot become the new Jesus. We actually change covenants if we believe it so much. We need to be careful what we secretly believe about life. Jesus never said money would save us. He said I AM THE WAY THE TRUTH AND THE LIFE.

I knew this woman, and what she was experiencing here, and it was now home to her, if you can imagine that, home. I heard her say “It is a toilet here” with such horror and angst, this is heartbreaking. I had a chance to witness the gospel to this woman, but the enemy interfered so horribly, I missed it twice. It breaks my heart and I have heard God say, I would have parted the waters for her meaning He would have helped her understand salvation. She had many other chances to find the Lord, and rejected each person who invited her.

NO NOT EASIER

I met someone who was in a false doctrine without Jesus as Lord.. I asked him if he would just like to accept Jesus' sacrifice on the cross, hoping to shed the truth on him simply. He said "this is easier." I said "Don't you just want to accept the Lord?" he said "No, this was easier." Meaning his church, and their meetings and lifestyle. I think he had some doctrinal issue, and things he could just not understand about salvation. He found this easier somehow, maybe he never really had to face his own repentance, this is my guess. He could be a part of a church, a group who were following almost the same thing, and never be humbled for those 5 minutes at the foot of the cross. It was the trick of the enemy. Some time after his death, I saw his tongue on fire. I actually felt the heat for a moment, and also he had the realization that the Lord would have gladly given him prosperity along with his true salvation, this made him cringe with pain. God had financial blessing for him that he missed. He does not think it is easier now. Often it is that way after we accept salvation, this earth, this life, where the enemy has stolen we begin to get returns for a new spiritual beginning many things will begin to be replaced as the enemy cannot hide them anymore. He cannot lie and hold us in a needy place anymore when we find Christ in truth. Our Savior is waiting to bless his children and show them an easier way, a plan, a path for prosperity.

OOPS

Another person I met held onto a false doctrine, spread it and taught it. I have seen this in hell a few times, she taught a false doctrine in her life that did not have Jesus as the center. She actually got pulled out of hell to attend a meeting we had, I know that sounds ridiculous, but it happened spiritually. Her face was marred and scarred and so beaten up, I could only imagine what she had been suffering from those scars, they told the story. A friend of hers saw her at his meeting, and he shuddered at her appearance. The essence of her punishments are more severe for spreading a false doctrine. Everything is stolen in hell. Satan has not a shred of mercy. All is lost. Appearance becomes disfigurement and any beauty becomes ugliness. Nothing, absolutely nothing is allowed that was good, or pleasant, even memories are not allowed. He has complete control over all God made that was good and worth living for. The essence of who we are is destroyed, and the enemy of God is mad enough to do it, as he is marring the image of God in us there forever, as this is what he hates and fears the most.

FOR THE LOVE OF ANOTHER Isaiah 45;23

Even before this person went to hell I witnessed many of his torments. I knew what he was in for by the Lord's revelation. This was someone who had persecuted Christians in life. I got to see his soul one time it was small and dark and it cried out "Money money money" and the Lord said that is him, that was all the wisdom it got, that was as far as he got in understanding here. His soul never grew up into the things of God. By His own choice he chose only the pursuit of money. This was his master and only love. I saw him sitting alone on a bench in a jail cell, and someone he had mistreated through life was looking at him, he spoke her name and saw her, and she had the justice to see him there. Another time I saw a giant beast coming after him, and he had his fists up in a stance of self protection. I knew these were his new friends, a rather different set of friends. I heard him in hell, still trying to make a schedule for himself to make the most money, "Maybe I can work 6 days a week" he said. The spirit of God told me then, he will even try to pursue it there, in hell. It was a part of his lack of spiritual growth, he was still in the same place, only thinking of the money, nothing else. We are not alive to marry money, we exist to marry the Lord alone.

Matthew 6:24 "No man can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one, and love the other, or else he will hold to the one and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon." I felt a deep sadness right then, knowing he was going to miss the real blessing and life God had for him. He will never enter the rest God has planned for His own family. He will continue to labor. He had traded ALL. This person loved money. Right to the very end, "Cash is king" he would say even up to his last days and years. I knew he was going to meet the real King and find out differently.

He gave up his family and never believed the bible, all for the love and pursuit of money. It was the only reality for him, with a core ignorance of God, this lifestyle took over, and he was demon possessed through his life. God showed him the lost horizon, all the beauty of heaven, the world as it was, the world as it will be in a glorious revelation of nature, and he had traded it for his own gains.

1 Tim 6:10 For the love of money is the root of all evil, for which men have strayed from the faith in greediness and have pierced themselves with many sorrows. But you, O man of God, flee these things and pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love and patience.

He will learn these truths forever in hell, this is anyone's fate, who has not chosen to live a life within the covenant. I saw his eyes turn bright orange before he died, spiritually, I did not understand, it was simple, he saw hell, he knew he was on the way there at the moment of death. I also saw a black hard hat he wears for making things so hard on other people. He does not want to lift the weights the enemy gives him, but he has to over and over, he has to lift the heaviest weights with such regret and dread every time. This man runs naked on the no streets of hell, and claims "It is just" for all eternity.

I worked a lot with this person to try to get them to accept the Lord, but he was not going to change, money was his savior, he had made up his mind. God told me my witnessing was going to make it harder for him there, as he had so many good chances.

ALMOST too late

I have seen the reward of those who missed serving the Lord here, and living a life contrary to love but found Him in the last moments of life. It is a story that does not include great reward upon entering the heavenly home. Heaven is theirs still, by the unshakable covenant of blood, and the mercy of God who will not change his mind about the forgiveness of any sincere person who humbles themselves, and accepts Jesus.

There is an accountability for what we do here, as the Lord desires to teach us and even change us there, as we understand how things could have been different. It hurts this woman even in heaven all the hurt she caused others, and this has now become her deepest regret there.

I have heard people say all is washed and forgotten. This is the truth of our covenant. But there is more. The truth is we may live with things we have done there and tears are real in heaven. Someday in the fullness of time, He will wash all tears away in a deeper way, and there will be a full restoration. There is coming a day we will not remember, after deep lessons, and we change into someone new forever. But here, things are sown for.. and they must be changed before a final restoration. But there will be a day.. in a glorified body to match our inner transformation. Still, the benefits of heaven are hers, as she knows she is forgiven.

SEEN and RECOGNIZED

There are many chapters ahead in the eons and all the plans of the Lord for us. To be ignorant of what He really has for us, leads us to make short term decisions, based on our flesh or our own opinions. But God has more wisdom than that for His children. This person never paid mind to the Lord or made an effort, and the enemy just took her will, all he had to do was whistle and she obeyed him. He used her life like a pawn in a chess game. There is also a place for her salvation that is real, and she did accept the cross. But shame was a real part of her entrance into heaven. She is known in heaven for this wickedness she did and she did not have great rewards, since it lasted a lifetime. There were not years of service here that He had planned, which would have helped others, and would have rewarded her in heaven. The enemy had stolen all this from her.

Don't let the enemy steal this from you.

IN LIGHT OF ETERNITY

In light of this knowledge I have learned to live in the hope and accountability of eternity, that is to say, as one who will be judged. It is an insightful and higher way to live as our senses are not just limited to this realm, but our judgment exceeds this place and we can see our actions in light of his wisdom and justice. I like it there as I can always hear the lowly and humble calls of the Lord, and not be lifted up to my own ego or opinions and miss all that he has for me. It is those high places that can be dangerous, and dangerously foolish, if we are not hearing from Him. It stands as a part of our package of salvation, that he grants us understanding of all things and issues here. God is great and merciful and even desires us to have fun, but we should remember his just judgments will fall someday. Everything has been recorded. But WE HAVE the kind of Papa who is willing to give us the discernment we need here, as not to fall and to avoid a lifetime of mistakes. And quite often lately I remember something I did... forgiven and I have changed... and I hear him say,, what was that?? Oh ya that... like it was nothing, I am new.

PARTY HARDY FOOL

I was watching an old television show, just lightly, just as a backdrop, to other work I was doing. I had it on mute, so as not to get too involved, but the colors were nice so I left it on. To become too engrossed would be a distraction so I was distant. But I wondered when it ended, what happened to the main character. I had heard of his passing a while ago. I must say the Lord is gracious when I have these questions, and I really do get an education about the spirit realm, and consequences and all that, which is why I am impressed of the Lord to start them with you. He suddenly appeared before me, I saw him and he saw me. I understood instantly his condition. He was in a state of labor. Not the kind of labor we know when we go to work under reasonable conditions, hopefully. This was immense work. There was no rest in his demeanor, he has been doing it for a long time now, the enemy won't let him stop and knows how to put the pressure on. He must keep working, like a sled dog with no relief, although they enjoy it, he had no enjoyment. He was hot and sweaty. It is true we can work that hard here at times, but we stop, we rest, we get some water. There was none of that for him, just constant labor, and I wanted to give him relief, but there was none. I could see the state of his upper body, he was under a great authority, it was hot, sweaty, it was almost time to go back, there was no relief available, and he knew it. I was most horrified by the state of total unrest, unrelenting work and labor, I knew he had been at this a long time. This man partied too much. The money he made gave him the opportunity. He squandered his money on booze and stayed there in that lifestyle with fancy friends who cannot help him now. I heard him say he wished he was as smart as I was, and that I was smarter than him. Meaning it takes wisdom to accept the Lord, and he never found that. He never applied his mind and heart to spiritual things, to find life, to find the savior of all mankind, the victor over every evil work, our beloved Jesus. Under the covenant with Jesus, the Lord would have directed this man and his earnings to a holier place. He could have rested in heaven. Apply your intelligence, the word says.. Work out your salvation

Matt 7:13 “..broad is the way...” The word broad here has the implication that anything goes” kind of lifestyle.

NO EFFORT

I saw an old friend of the family in hell. She was at a table of some kind. She was trying to help me when she saw me. She had made no effort in this life to reach for Christ and although she did not want to hear the gospel from me. All she could hand me was a bowl of green horrible food. It was pure slime. The funny thing is, once this happened on earth when I was at her house. I discerned later that God was trying to show her the future of life without him. She did not care to try to know Jesus here. She was trying to be kind, I knew this to be her nature here to care, but she knew her fate. How I wanted to pull her out of there. "Another one who lost their life" I heard the Lord say... remember if you are breathing right now,, you DO NOT have to lose your life this way,, you can accept the cross, be humble for a moment, admit you are a sinner, be alive forever with him. Dear Jesus, I believe you are the son of God and you died for my sins.I accept this and want to be a child of God in your kingdom, forgive me for ignoring you and not seeking you. I want to learn your ways. I am yours now. Amen

THE CELLAR

The cellar. I had stumbled. I watched a reality television show that I actually thought the Lord had brought me. I had recognized it earlier as worldly but for some reason, later on, believed it was a gift from the Lord, and he wanted me to watch it. Yes it was a big gulp full of deception. For a moment I stepped over in the enemy's kingdom and I enjoyed weeks of that reality show. It was entertaining and the sin in it was hidden. I was brought to a cellar. There were many demons surrounding me ready to torment me. I knew they were in a cellar waiting for me. I could actually hear them licking their chops with excitement, this is when I really felt afraid. I remembered Jesus —"hey wait a minute!"—I told them I was still a Christian and they flew away with speed and fear. Yes, these demons who would torment me were afraid as soon as I mentioned Jesus, and it looked like the scene from the last battle in Narnia, when the witches' evil cohorts become a blur and run away, literally like that. They show themselves who they really are in the light of Jesus, defeated foes, who are awash as the very name of Jesus is spoken. This is real, we can make mistakes, and it is real. Quite quickly I learned this show was not from God, but the trick of the enemy, and he forgave me. God told me this was a spiritual spanking and because I am His, the enemy could only get so far. He also allowed it because He wanted it to be documented in this book. What a wonderful covenant we are in !! He rescues us at every turn, no weapon prospers, we have so many promises to claim !

God is serious about holiness. He will give us every chance as long as we quickly agree with him, this is not your kingdom, and I have no business there as a child of God. We live in a fallen world with demons tempting us, but we are meant to overcome it and win every time, and not to be a part of it. The Word is full of ways to overcome evil. It is all very real. He is serious, even this spiritual spanking DROVE MORE HOLINESS IN ME, and made me all the wiser. How great He is !! We can swallow holiness just as we can any other spirit that is in the world, but holiness will yield for us eternal fruit. If we embrace it every day, it will work for us. Just as wisdom will put us over any situation, so holiness will preserve us from evil ! What a principal the Lord has been trying to teach us ! I need to remember it every day !

MONEY

We all need money here. But in Christ we will have a right relationship with it, this will bring us peace. Truly there is nothing wrong in that, but I do know a thing or two about putting money ahead of the Lord, as I have witnessed it many times and the grave spiritual danger in that. It seems right, but it is a sinking ship. Members of my family have done that, and I watched them go to hell. I had enough innocence early on to avoid it, and later, wisdom, that is the love of God in action. That is what wisdom is, the love of God in action on our behalf. 1 tim 6:10 "For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows."

We are given the choice to marry the Lord or marry the things of this world. It is a matter of the heart, where we make decisions that will determine our eternal eternal destiny. He knows the love of money is a false thing , a temporary thing. Now to need money is one thing, to love it is another. It can fill our bloodstream like a drug, and it can be just as addictive, when we cross over to that place, we are crossing over to another kingdom. No one has actually explained it as being a drug. But I know this from the Lord, what do you think gambling is? And I have been in danger of doing it a few times, it is very subtle. That money will not love us back the way the Lord can, and there is the trade right there, discern it. How to exchange your soul for money is simple. Leave God on the back burner, and begin to pursue it with all your heart, believing it is your savior, enjoy its rewards more than you enjoy the Lord, and now you have changed covenants, very slowly, and without anyone really knowing. This can also be anything else in life we love that gives us pleasure, a habit, an addiction, a collection, a person. It really is not hard to do. We can even have known the Lord, and it won't feel like a giant leap, just a slow descent to another kingdom that the enemy has planned.

There is great danger here, to get comfortable in those ways. The enemy of God will be whispering to us the whole time that it does not really matter, God is not taking account.

WEE HOURS

Do these people have a chance? You bet they do, as long as they are breathing this air they have a chance. I witness to people like this all the time in the early hours of the morning, hoping they will understand salvation. I am full of lessons they need to hear. I knew people like them who were blinded by money and my words are important. I heard one of them say the other day, "I got an earful." Some are beginning to understand that money will not save them, they need more... something deeper, not found in cash flow, found in the flow of blood that was spilled for them. The deepest answers to life are found only in the cross, and many have missed it because of the deception of money.

Not an easy path for the Son of God, but He took it. To acknowledge this cross is all they need to find salvation.

Does He ask us to give up all our money to find him? No, just the sinful parts that He will teach you about as His child.

THE SUNGLASSES

The sunglasses, what do they mean? I saw a woman in hell, she was standing by a clothes dryer. I know that sounds ridiculous, but that is what I saw. I believe she had to work there interminably, she had no relief. This was it. She had these horrible dark round sunglasses on, and just stood there by her clothes. I did not think it looked so bad there, as far as hell goes, and then I remembered the glasses. What was all that about I wondered...? The Lord filled me in. She can remember no good thing that happened to her on earth, no sunshine, no light, no family memories, no hobbies, no love, no afternoon tea, nothing. She cannot remember anything good. This is because her father satan is so cruel, he will not allow it. The glasses were spiritual, they will never allow her to have a pleasant memory. This is how hell will have full authority over her, otherwise, there would be a glimmer of light and hope, and satan will allow none of that. She will wear them forever. She will work without hope for eternity, Her fallen father is an expert, he knows how to do it. He knows how to steal every shred of hope. He will teach his servants here how to do the same. You simply cannot listen to anyone who does not know the Lord for long. More than likely the enemy is planning to steal if you engage in a lot of fellowship.

Is Jesus your father, or this fallen enemy? The enemy wants you to join her and find this hopeless meaningless future with him. If you do not understand salvation yet, let me explain away your confusion in the next example.

TELL HER PLEASE TELL HER Luke 16:23

I had a childhood friend whose father was passing. We were all so very very young, around 10 or 11. I felt the spirit of God on him while he was sick and made the wrong assumption all was well with his soul. It was God begging him to accept him, to ask Jesus in his heart. He was so spiritually blind, so stubborn, he would not. I was very young and unsure of my role and place in the whole thing, so I never witnessed the gospel to him. I had some understanding, and as I said, I thought all was well. Since that time I have seen him in hell. He looks up from the torments and begs me to tell his daughter, who is still alive. He said this place is horrible, just horrible, please tell her, please tell her, he loved her so very much. Luke 16:23 "And in hell he lifted up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom."

THE OPPOSITE TWIST

Let us understand, Satan has full rights to your soul in hell, he is the authority there. The only way to avoid this is through accepting the shed blood of Jesus on your behalf, here. It is the only appeasement that the Father has provided and will accept. It may sound narrow, as I have heard someone say, so let us understand narrow. A funny inversion, by accepting Christ you gain all things. It is a lie that he is narrow and begrudging. He is saving us from a life of sin and sickness and torment by asking us to follow holiness.

The enemy knows how to twist the truth, so we need to care for what we believe on a daily basis. He died to give us all things with Him, and the Bible says choose the narrow way, that means, your flesh sins lead to death without him, follow holiness, and you will have all things restored here, and there. Narrow is the path that leads to life". This means you forsake the indulgence of the world, and thereby you actually find life. I hear Him say just now, He pleads with us.

It is a trick the enemy tries to toss the other way, he is the father of flesh, because he knows it leads to death. The principal behind it is important to digest and will keep us in the spirit and not in the flesh.

All things regarding flesh do not belong to the christian. You will not participate with them. The wild parties, the drugs, the casual sex outside of marriage, the gambling. The love of money, the list continues. Hatred, These practices over time will change the soul meant for God, to an unholy mess.

The soul in hell can never see the sun, read a book, enjoy a relationship, plant a garden. The father of lies has fooled them into a life of a toilet and a garbage dump with him. I want you to see the difference, to be discerning, wisdom applied will lead to success. Jesus demonstrated the law of sacrifice to us on the cross, it is the opposite of selfishness, and it yields the eternal fruit of souls.

Have the wisdom now to see the two kingdoms, and you will be a successful soul winner here.

OPEN WOUND FOREVER WEEPING

I heard the Lord of glory one night give me a conclusion to this section on hell. He spoke it into my spirit, "It is an open wound". That really hit me between the eyes. It made so much sense. The wound never heals or closes, it just keeps repeating and digging into the soul that was created for a loving God. The soul that is created for HIm will answer to that forever. It never changes. I am not torn in my understanding of this punishment, we all need a savior. All in hell knows the gospel now, and why they are there. This is the only aspect of learning in hell, all else is lost. They can only learn how they missed the savior, the only way to forsake this place. God the father made Jesus to be our all in all, our home, our Rabbi, our everything. He is so wonderful, it is only foolish to miss the chance. Please do not take this as harsh, it is just so important and real and true. It will forever be true. It is love, it has to be this way. God is holy. He provided a way out so we may now fellowship with HIm forever.

THE OPEN WOUND

Every soul in hell is in a state of continual chaos, unrest, a complete undoing of anything that makes life bearable. Our enemy is a master at creating this hostile and unbearable environment. The inhabitants have no home, no rest, no hope, no joy, nothing worth having. There is nothing to look forward to, just a hardship and battle to survive and outlast or outwit the next demon that is ready to torment. They know they have missed Jesus, and God's offer of the forgiveness of their sin. It is over, there is no returning, a just judgment has been cast. So on top of the torments of the body, there is the anguish of the soul, a longing to return and accept Christ. This is the deepest pang, missing the Savior, a wonderful future, an eternity of rest, learning, peace, love.

Ephesians 6:12

How easy it all was, but the devil lied, and now he holds them forever.

2 Peter 3:9 God is not willing that any should perish.

There is no healing there, only an open wound of grieving, and torment, and isolation, and all of hell is an open wound, no salve, no balm, nothing to stop the infection from hurting, from stealing more, from ripping apart the very fabric and essence from which you have been made.

We cannot blame God for this place, He provided a way out, and sin must be burned, it must be done away with, and if that sin is still in us, it will not see heaven. Let this not be a harsh sanctimonious fear in your heart from a vengeful God. Let it be a calm understanding that he intends to do away with all things that are not of his kingdom that created evil, harm and damage to his plan, to his children, to his family, you and me. Revelation 1:18 "I am he that liveth, and was dead; and behold, I am alive forevermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and death."

Heavenly glimmers are next, yes I have seen the undoing of those without Christ, but what about those who have wisely served him here?

I will tell you about my friend who passed, and who helped me find the Lord in a more serious way.

I have several experiences where I got to have contact with old friends I knew here, the ones who were smart enough to find salvation here. This woman was my pastor here, but neither of us knew that. It was not a title she held, nor a place in a church where she claimed that, it was rather the work she did. She was a tremendous and consistent help to me here. She was like a rock I could run to and she stood like iron in a storm. I could call her anytime and she would respond with any truth that I needed. God used her in such an amazing way. It was a God given and supernatural relationship. We had a long season of fellowship. God knows what we need and He is willing to create it. I loved this Christian.

There were many group meetings at her home. It was through this deep pastoring that I would not succumb to the wickedness and trouble that surrounded me. My walk with the Lord was so strengthened that I could actually begin to reach for my purpose. I was finding my way out of manifold distress and evil through spiritual growth. This is the true meaning of a pastor. To see someone so helped, that they may become used of the Lord. I received the Holy Spirit at one of her house meetings having climbed out to the world enough, as we prayed I felt a warm comforting spot on my head. I said then she should do something about that track lighting overhead as it was so strong and hot, but it was indeed the Holy Spirit and a beautiful time.

I looked to find that low track lighting but there was nothing there.

So now to heaven, several years after she passed from cancer...I was invited to her home in heaven and to fellowship with her again.

The entryway captivated me, it was so engaging. A nice sidewalk, a walk way, with flowers, and the door kept drawing me in. It had a beautiful rounded oval top, not a regular square type. I understood this beautiful dwelling was a reward for her, and the things she had done for the Lord here. I realized nothing was missing, nothing was forgotten, and for every soul she had reached here, there was a reward and a blessing she had there. But it went deeper than the flowers, the door, the nice walkway. Her reward was absorbed into her very own self respect and confidence. Her regard for His kingdom here, had added to her confidence there as part of the reward. This will be both eternal and recognized by others. It continually gives honor to Him and teaches others as well.

Please take note of this. We will certainly become what we do here. As I approached the door I understood what she had done for Him. How deeply it meant to the Lord, and how He now rewards. This is the air of heaven in radio frequency. A sphere of knowledge so deep and deeply understood. Nothing is forgotten that we do. Others there are fully aware of who we are there, based on our service to Him here. They know us. They have an understanding. I should thank the Lord more for this woman, who was brave, and served him, it helped me a great deal. As a result, I have been able to bring more people to the Lord than I ever knew possible, so we can see how it all works together.

SIN: JUST ANOTHER NAME FOR STUPID ... we lose

I cannot close this section out without a mention and understanding of sin. God has just impressed this on my heart and showed me at the last moment. Please read this with the understanding that all sin can be forgiven, all it takes is a humble repentance at the cross. He is ready to forgive, don't believe the lie you have done things He cannot forgive.

Here is the understanding of sin He wants you to have. It comes from the depths.

There is no ordinary reason for sin. The enemy of your soul has sinister purposes.

YOU ARE STICKY

Sin will attract you like a bee to honey with the promise of a reward. The reward may be a thrill, a joy, the rush of gaining something unlawfully, even a feeling of peace. The enemy knows how to intoxicate us while simultaneously stealing all from us on the other end. All this can be so satisfying you may even think it is from God. There often is an addiction involved, even if no substance is abused or is visible. But it can be in the form of money, gossip, lust, viewing. The temptations and enticements of the enemy are too long to list. But you will be rewarded, make no mistake, this is your prize for serving the enemy. He is doling it out prolifically as soon as we step over to his kingdom. He has prizes, good feelings, thrills, joy, even financial payments, pride, self righteousness, addictions that work momentarily. Intoxications that are so sweet and hard to resist. If you get good enough at sin, he will give you a place of position in his kingdom. He will give you his protection so you can continue. You can become a favorite. There are even places that the enemy has planned in our interactions with others. He wants to get in there. He wants in. If we are not walking in love, he will get in. He wants to create pathways of abuse and trauma. The stopovers out of covenant are his specialty for Christians, they are even more obscured and we will not discern we have moved.

Hebrews 11:25 Please do not enjoy sin for a season and think all will turn out alright.

The sin of greed is especially deceptive.

You will see the sense in it, (this is the gravest deception) because you are benefiting in some way, you are getting something without earning it, you will feel the thrill, you are getting more than cost, you are riding high in popularity at someone's expense. You have found an advantage, the high from that drug helps you forget another complex problem. You are addicted, it is too hard to stop after a while, you are changing now, becoming someone different with prolonged consistency of the sin. Sin is something that affects others, and will affect the whole world if the enemy can use you that way. He knows his own and makes those types of plans. It is something you do to the degradation of your own soul, that was meant for God. It can be put through things and scarred, and only Jesus can heal us. He knows how to heal our soul after we have missed His high mark and calling. Messiah, He will save the people from their sins.

For this reward system, the enemy will want something in return. He does not give his gifts lightly without wanting something. He has plans for his children who have served him on the earth. He is a liar, they are not the rewards he has intimated. There is no glorious kingdom. Degradation waits. We need to understand his depths. His very ugly nature holds the most clues for us, we need to understand what kind of father he would be. He is the father of lies. He now wants something in return. He wants a meal. He is hungry now, he has been depleted from rewarding sin. You are it. You are the meal.

You have been licking the outer edges of hell in all its “ooey” goodness without realizing you have been on the edge of a waxy slope that leads to hell. You have been spiritually blinded, not being able to see your exact location, you have not known or measured your latitude or your longitude. We have not discerned the prey. It is “US” “without the Savior. He alone is the enemy afraid of. We must have His defense and His blood. The only provision the Father has given, was the death and sacrifice of His Son. Look upon the cross and accept this provision and you will be saved. You have been miserably lost without knowing it, while enjoying the momentary rewards of sin.

Psalm 73: 17-19

If you die in this condition you will slip from your joyful licking. You will not be able to hold on. There is no foundation, there is no salvation, there is no cross, there is no security, you have been on the slippery slopes of hell without a savior, the enemy has a right to his feed.

The very mouth of hell that opens will have such a degree of suction. It alone will pull you in. Then, you will fall and fall until you land into a pool of digestive juices the enemy has planted specifically for your arrival. It has the qualities of quicksand. The more you move, the more it captures you. You are a forced participant. The enzymes of hell begin to dissolve anything good you retained from this life. The enemy will not be satisfied until you become as they are, lost in goo, darkness, having no hope, traveling from one violent scenario or torture like a chain, and a chain of agony it will become until there is nothing left for you to do but suffer.

Incapable of good soon after the juices have sucked you in. Now you will be forced to participate. The enemy of God is rejoicing that you will never witness to a lost soul, never share in the love of God, never find your true ministry. He has you. You will only know degradation. The enemy of God is rejoicing having captured another victim, who will never live to show the glory of God, will never capture a soul for Christ. You will be useless for Christ and will never know heaven, now you will be like him, the father of lies.

This is the price of sin, and all the cross has saved you from. It is why Jesus went to the cross, so we would have hope and NOT HAVE TO become citizens of hell.

Do not be deceived, sin is a dangerous game. The most dangerous game of all. If we brush up closely at its spine, we will discover its tentacles are made of splinters of glass that will pierce the body, mind and soul so deeply. These barbs and wires will forcibly penetrate and pierce our soul throughout eternity. We will understand from the deepest part of ourselves we have brought this fate ourselves. While at the same time we will experience an outer torment, this combination is the deepest pang and grief in hell a soul can know. This is the cost of ignorance here, of never having gained understanding or received the truth or lived out the truth. These tears will never end, it will wound forever that we have forsaken so great a salvation.

The enemy maps in three dimensions to formulate a plan of attack upon his blind victims. Without Christ, we have no clue he is coming...right on target, until we are behind fangs packed with venom surrounded by a sticky trap. More prey enters. We don't understand, we have spread the sin. We have gathered his army and others have been influenced. The disease has spread. Then he has another idea, instead of coming to us, he brings us to himself and plucks the strands of the sticky web, luring us to our death. If you do not know Christ, there is a chance you are here without distinguishing the prey is you. Drinking? Smoking? Lusting about? One final bout with sin and he will shrink wrap his meal; he has constructed a trap in the spirit realm that is now tougher than steel.

At the moment of death he will gather in the thread and have full authority to take his prey to his sticky abyss forever. It is here the ravenous appetite of our enemy will be on full display. He is hiding it from sight from us now. He is keen on destroying all he fears. US. The very image of God in us. He knows His true master will throw him into hell forever as a prisoner.

Do not follow where sin leads, this is the only place it will ever be allowed to go. Hell. It must burn. It will not enter the rest of heaven. It is that dangerous. We do not submerge with it in the flames if we have Jesus. Jesus has planned heaven, a millennium, a future of glory, a holy city and so great a salvation here. He will have none of this sin in His kingdom with us. It is too destructive. He cannot allow a person sick with sin to enter. After salvation we are truly a new creation, now we know better.

I always say this.....God will have the last word,, why not agree with him now.

HOLY IS SAFETY

Does this mean our God is harsh ? No, it means He knows the difference between His kingdom and satan's! He does not want his beloved children anywhere near the traps of the enemy. It is so simple. Holiness will keep us far from the enemy's camp. The enemy cannot find us there, we are too high, he is too low, he lies, but we know the truth, he cannot afflict, he has no right. The curse causeless shall not come ! Our loving Lord wills to keep us out of the multitude of curses the enemy has, he won't have a cause without sin ! Holiness works for us ! It is not a picture of a God who is so strict and stuffy, but one who wants to keep us free from sickness, calamity, death and hell !

He has made a way, it is free. Only the risen savior can pluck us from the strands of the web where temptation and sin would make us vulnerable to sickness, curses and hell !

It is the enemy who this hell was made for,, we cannot participate in his kingdom of sin as a lifestyle and expect to escape.

NARROW?

O I have heard many say, upon hearing about the Lord “Isn’t that kinda narrow?” The idea that Jesus is the ONLY way. Or upon hearing about sin they have said, what happens to those in a different religion? They are welcome ! They are most invited to understand what Jesus did for them at the cross !

“That sounds so hateful” ... to talk against the world’s behavior or choices, this is merely the twisting of the enemy, he knows how to make good seem evil and evil good. You see what God knows at the deepest level is that the enemy’s fallen ways will have no good conclusion, so he asks us to live holiness out here so we may be nothing like the enemy.

THE WORD MY FRIEND

Everything regarding our behavior, attitude,, and lifestyle, everything, absolutely everything is spelled out in the word of God. The more you ingest the word in faith, the more God grows inside of us. It is our friend. All things are in the word regarding our christian walk. It is alive and fascinating.

I am going to tell you this walk of love is narrow, it takes that to defeat the enemy, and it is love, only the greatest love we will ever know is to face ourselves in light of a holy God. I say all this to help you understand what He is trying to save us from. The howls.

THE HOWLS OF HELL

There are no howls like the howls of the lost in hell. These are the cries of the lost. They howl their emptiness in the hollow caverns of hell. They howl their regret for not taking the gift of salvation. These are the pains of the lost, the utterly lost. Crying from deep within their souls. Theirs is the final realization of a loving and holy God who planned their escape long ago at Golgotha, at the cross of His dear son, who longed to have loving companionship with them, whom they rejected. This is the deepest truth we will ever experience, and therefore, the deepest pain if we miss it.

The utter chaos in hell prevents anyone there from hearing anything else. The turmoil and chaos of all the cries and anguish create an impenetrable barrier of sound that is inescapable. This is the design and plan of the enemy to hold all his family of prisoners in unending turmoil and fear and utter despair. He has now made others like himself, without God, without goodness, contained in an ugly, hollow, most despairing place.

They howl knowing sin must be burned in any form. They howl knowing this will last forever, deeper than many oceans is how deeply they cry. We have been caught in a fight between super powers, and these are those who have given their rights away to the loser. They did not discern life in its truest form.

This is all the Lord could have rescued them from, it was not a broad salvation, no, as if free to sin in a lifestyle. This is true, narrow was the way, but gracious and free was the gift. And love came to us in the form of suffering. Our savior walked a narrow path of suffering, is this really understood? He has demonstrated the law of sacrifice as the only way to defeat the enemy. The same law applies to us, for our use against him. There are many applications. Sacrifice is the opposite of the enemies' ways. It is he who lies that sin is freedom. It is not, it is a path to certain captivity. Walk holy on a narrow path, keep your salvation, this is all He asks. He asks this in love, so we may escape the unmatched filth and hatred of this non dimension, this hell. Let yours be a life of repentance and holiness. If you fall, He is merciful and waiting and most willing to forgive. Let it be a reach for obedience and holiness. No, we will not be perfect, and we may fall, but we have a living Savior who knows the way out. I have found Him faithful at every turn. Have I made mistakes in this christian life ? You bet, temptations have come my way, but I am an overcomer with Christ !! His wisdom belongs to me. He has made a way out for every temptation if I will claim it and ask him for it. 1 Corinthians 10:13 There has no temptation taken you such that is common to man: but God is faithful; who will not suffer you above that you are able; but with every temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it. Can we see His wondrous provision for us in this fallen world? He does not leave us as defenseless orphans, but comes to our rescue with his answers as a loving and concerned parent. It is all in Christ. I know even as we walk here, He holds the answers to every mess.

THE SECRET OF OUR SUCCESS ...resistance

Our enemy is resourceful, nothing goes to waste. He is scoping us out from a distance where we perceive him not. But perceive him we must.

Like a city fox looking for new territory, and any vulnerability in our armor, he is on track not just to intimidate, but to kill. This is the harshest reality we face as we dwell on the earth and live out our lives. Will we stand our ground against sin or become a new victim of the enemy. Our stance against his kingdom is real. If we are determined to win, the outcome of the game depends on our resistance. We do not have to give him the turf he is looking for if we are close to the Lord and hear his way to victory. The victory we have here is won by the good fight. 1 Tim 6:12 Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life. This used to make me tired to hear this. I do not want to fight, I have enough to do. But now I understand it so much more. I need to resist the enemy temptations, falling into my flesh. It is really not that hard, I just need to be smart and live the higher life that Jesus called me to.

THE REAL VALUE

Conceptually speaking, hell teaches us a great deal. It literally teaches us the value of our soul.

Hell reveals the desire of the enemy to torture that soul....why? Because it is valuable, it is precious, it is made FOR God. He knows that the soul is valuable, the soul is not just created to witness heaven at a glance, but to enjoy it FOREVER. All things restored, endless benefit, and exploration, education, it is immensely precious to be with Jesus forever where He will restore all things to us in a loving relationship with the Trinity. Under his governing power there we understand all things. He just needs our sin to be covered by His blood, his sacrifice at the cross holds all the meaning to life. Our peace, our restoration, our forgiveness, it's all there and available to anyone with faith. This step of faith will give you understanding.

The enemy is angry and jealous, he will never experience heaven again. He knew the Lord and he can imitate Him. It is here we can get deceived. 2 Corinthians 11:14 "And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light." It is a tricky thing sometimes. Hell teaches us the depth and seriousness of the war we are in. There is a profound argument going on in the heavenlies, a spiritual battle, the intricate story of your soul.....where will your soul spend eternity?

WHERE WILL YOU SPEND ETERNITY ? Do you know who you really are? Hell is a festival of fools who never understood the story of who they are, and the battle over them here that was real. Hell teaches us the reality of our moral life, and shows us that consideration and those choices were SO very important. We always have His free gift of salvation and grace to receive. We can also learn the value of forsaking sin, as a way to stay out of the deluge of evil the enemy may give us for the fun trips of sin.

The value of the soul far exceeds anything we can accomplish here. There are no monies worth attaining, no home, no title, that is superior to the value of the soul. Jesus took over 600 lashes to redeem it, and give it a new life.

1 Peter 2:4

Hell is the harshest reality a soul can suffer, the emptying of all hope, the degradation of all things beautiful and holy, requiring a savior and master to prevent the fall. All that was needed to rescue us with wisdom while we are still here is gone, forever forsaken.

The resources and wisdom of God are available for anyone who asks. Take him at his word.

Matt 7:7 Ask, and it shall be given you: seek and ye shall find: knock, and it shall be opened to you.

I love this promise, it involves our effort, but it is an ever present resource of goodness.

Right now I am seeking and knocking and believing for better vision. I will need it for my next book and future in homeschooling. I believe for it. I am knocking all the time.

Work out your salvation, it is worth every effort and strength you have to get it right. Jesus said do this first, and all these other things will be added to you.

Mathew 6:33 But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

He will never turn away your sincere prayer...."I am a sinner...I need a savior...Jesus come into my heart. I accept your sacrifice as my salvation....all I need is you...your blood....I will follow you. Come now children, accept him now, young or old, He is waiting to enter your name into the book of life, angels will be rejoicing now...."

EDUCATION

Heaven is the total excisement of ignorance. Now that does not mean you have to earn a degree, but you can if you choose. It is just that ignorance is a plaything of the enemy, he uses it here to keep men deceived and to keep them out of heaven and the wisdom of God. So there can be none of this in heaven. All citizens there are catching up, becoming filled in, reaching their potential in Christ, learning what they missed here, being educated in spiritual things, learning what they could have here.

They know their lessons well, and are frequently called on to fill someone else in who needs their specific education. Nothing is wasted.

Now back to that degree. If you could not finish here, you surely can there. Study anything you want in the amazing libraries. In one library I saw a loop overhead in a configuration like a roller coaster, and the books do not fall out !! "You have all this." Jesus said to me. It is a wondrous place to study, and we will still have to have discipline to earn the degree, but it is more wonderful.

EXPLORATION

One can never get bored in the dimension of heaven, yes, it is that good. It is endless, the Lord of glory will not let our souls suffer boredom or futility. There is a purpose and a goodness to all things, you will be able to explore endless avenues of education, fitness, nature and more. All this without tiring. Without a trace of boredom or fear. Life as it was intended in the mind of God. Things we have not conceived of in our minds will be ours. He intends to keep us busy forever ! " I am going to keep you busy forever" HIs quote to me. The wonder and glory of this is that there is nothing to hold us. We will not tire. We will not be sad nor will we be hindered in any way.

SNOW NATURAL

I went up for a snow ride one night, the winter can be long here, but this helped. The freedom from futility and the exploration are endless and endlessly invigorating. I flew past many things that were most interesting, valleys and hills and mountains. Many people waved to me, like an ocean of fun on a wave I rode over such hills, all white with snow and bright in a glorious adventure. I loved it because I was not cold for a moment, and really enjoyed snow at its best. I felt alive and free. I always loved the snow as a youth, especially with my dogs. Many memories and many hikes. Nature alone there holds tremendous beauty, it is not just a field of flowers, but one with your favorite colors, and the scope and span of the thing will overwhelm you. It cries out from the depth of His heart and from the very soil you, and I am giving this to you.” I ran through a field filled with 2 different colors of crocuses and lilies. They cried out to me “ I love you , I made this for you”. I love you so very much.” When we understand this love is everlasting it heals us. He loves us enough to keep us forever in a state of glory ! Once we understand we are made for glory, many things of this earth and many things inside of us will have to bow !!

This is the glorious liberty spoken of in the bible, what will you do in heaven? Whatever you want to do ! There is freedom, glorious freedom and space, there is no room there for sadness or woe or sickness ! You will want to live to move, to create, to be alive, in its highest meaning. This was HIs intention and He will complete it ! He is a man of HIs word ! He sent Jesus for us to have it !

CONCLUSION OUR HOME IS GLORY

It is an error to say we are visiting heaven, but earth is our home. Our real home is heaven, we are actually just visiting earth. And someday, the two will be combined., Revelation1, vs 2,3 and work together. We are visiting this earth for many reasons. One of the most significant to the Lord is spiritual growth. There simply is no other way for certain growth and maturity to happen unless we visit this earth. He knows what He is doing, and to know HIs mind, He has us here for the purpose of growing up. The very deepest lessons I have learned have been in this realm. This is the realm of choice, and consequences, this is the realm of learning and growth. Heaven is great, but we are here to learn things, and to grow up, there are so many things in that realm of spiritual growth we can only do here.

When we understand life from this perspective, we don't get as restless, we can rest in our learning, and wait for the rewards of heaven in a more patient way. We meet the Lord, and we can continue a lifetime of learning and understanding of HIs kingdom here. These things happen in heaven too, but there is just something about the choices we make here, that grow us up, and here we accumulate rewards and crowns for our effort towards his kingdom, and it all matters.

Romans 8:18 For I think that what we suffer in this life can never be compared to the glory, as yet unrevealed, which is waiting for us.

That is why earth is a special place. I know from experience they know us from heaven. They have a type of envy for us if we are doing things for the Lord. I could not imagine why at first when hearing this from the Lord, but they wish their life mattered more for Christ, and they could have done more.

Don't be overwhelmed, any effort of witnessing to a lost family member or neighbor will not go on unrewarded. He is recording our smallest effort.

On a deeper level, our understanding of all things becomes complete during our earthly journey. Our landing here implies a great responsibility regarding our response to the gospel. Then, in the glory it also becomes clear what we might have done for the Lord. 1 Corinthians 3:8 ..and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labor.

1 Cor 3:15 If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss; though he himself shall be saved.

If our work is not of Christ, for Christ, it shall be burned, we will suffer the loss of that reward in heaven, though we will be safe, and saved.

Not mixing what we do for Christ with our own intentions, or mixing it with selfish gain is key to holding on to the rewards we obtain there. This is pure service, and we can do it !

Matthew 5:12 Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven; for so they persecuted the prophets which were before you.

We even get rewards for being persecuted ! Notice the word "exceeding" glad, I believe and know the rewards for persecution exceed other rewards. We become as He was.

A SPECIAL LIBERTY

So to continue, we know things there and capture the meaning of concepts and communicate with lightning speed. This is all tremendous fun, at a deep level because we are learning all the time and growing. Our communication there is different too, it is very fast, and does not need to be verbal, but often is.

Understanding and accuracy prevail and there are no mistakes or mis-communication of meaning. Nothing has been lost in this place, we experience life as God intended in real time. The ability of the King makes all this possible, and He just spoke to me recently and said I govern all things in heaven, He is that powerful and all knowing, and can be in all places at once. This is a mind boggling fact, but nevertheless He accomplishes it with astonishing accuracy and love.

TIME

Time has been reversed in heaven. That is to say immortality belongs to us. There really is no time in the condition of immortality. Do we understand this is part of the package? Sin cannot hold us with any of its nasty effects.. and so time is also our friend. All things have been paid for on our behalf. If we are in the spirit here, time too, will be our friend, instead of the enemy. As we serve Him here, time is less of an issue. It is spiritual. Time cannot hold us captive in the light. We are working with it, if we are actually truly serving the Lord.

AWESOME FREEDOM

We have freedom within this love, and His victory becomes ours because we are allowed the peace and privilege He owns there. In fact the Bible states. Romans 8:21 Because the creature itself shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

The bondage of corruption encompasses all the effects of sin, death and life without a savior that is sure to be misery in the enemies camp and kingdom.

The word is saying we are delivered from all of this ! What a deal !

Notice it is the children of God who receive deliverance from the bondage of sin and the consequent destiny of hell. There is so other way than to accept the payment for sin. It was the Lamb of God who was slaughtered for it. He took the payment. Nothing you can do to earn it. Make sure this is in your knower.

We then enter into the glorious freedom in Christ. We all want to live in a place of no corruption, and now we know where it is ! Really heaven is filled with glory and amazement, it never ends, the fun never ends. We literally inherit incorruption ! 1 Cor 15:53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal, must put on immortality.

Some have said we must deal with our mortality or face the reality. Only to a small extent for the christian. We must be ready for immortality ! We are immortal in Christ, we have no end !

We are so loved, He will not allow us to stay in the condition the enemy intended. We have been redeemed from all that ! Our sinful flesh that is corrupt from sin and death will be not momentarily, but eternally fit and furnished with an incorruptible body. Could we even ask for such a gift, only in our dreams, and yet it is true and paid for. It will be ours.

This mortal shall pass away, all that we know of death, sin and sickness has been paid for. It is finished. It no longer belongs to us. The Son of God has seen to it.

1 Cor 15:55 Death is swallowed up in victory, O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? 57 But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. When this really gets in our knower, the fear of death is gone. He swallows up our mortality like an old garment, and tosses it away. He swallows up our fallen, sinful flesh like a rag, never to be seen again. These are the eternal gifts of our Lord, and no one can ever offer you a better deal.

Romans 8:23 For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now. And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the first fruits of the spirit, even we ourselves groan within, waiting for the adoption, the redemption of our body.

I love this, the adoption, we go on, we continue. We have been born into His family here, and our full rights and adoption are waiting.

We have the first part, the first fruits, we have been born again here. We wait, we groan for the entirety of that redemption. Our new body, eternal life.

WE ONLY BEGIN

So what this wrinkle
So what this old
Begin to crumble
Begin to fold
What may no longer be renewed
Now we must only comprehend
To obtain the peace
That is rightfully ours
Just as the flight of the owl
May only begin at twilight
So too in the dusk of life
Our ashes will rise and soar
To touch the very beginning
Of our everlasting flight

We have not known this yet. Perhaps we cannot conceive of such a gift. But to understand what we are due to inherit will overcome the world. Our victory is sure. This helps us through. Sin and evil have a much harder time sticking to the child of God. We understand the temporary state of this fallen world is just that, and we are going to receive so much more ! We will receive a perfect kingdom that will complete us by His power and His love.

We will not want to sin, sadness and fear are a thing of the past, our hearts, the benefits of eternal life begin here in the spirit. Many scriptures in the word are leading us to understand heaven, it is right around the corner. We can even touch it here if we are Christians who are obeying him ! ! This glorious freedom, comes from a deep place, it is the place of redemption and comes from being free from sin and transformed. We are so free we receive a new heavenly body, just like Jesus, it is incorruptible. Oh don't we all long for this ! Young like Jesus, free from all the effects of sin ! It is a complete redemption, we are not sheep, we are ministers like Jesus in glory. I have met His children there who are now fulfilling their purpose and living out what they were intended to do here. They are walking in love, ministering in love, following His leading and finding a way to help us from heaven !

Sin never had a chance in this place to slow it down, gum it up, corrupt it or change anything due to the effects of sin. We are created for this untarnished existence. Romans 8:17 We share in His treasures. Nothing will ever change that fact, the enemy lies prolifically against it all the time. Once we realize the truth of that we also need to realize it will be unchallenged there. Yes the right to be there is unchallenged, this is important. That adds to your delight, you belong there, from eternity past, your soul is precious and you belong there. Romans 8:15 For we have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

OPEN FOREVER

Heals even your perspective on the past, not that it has not happened, but it does not hurt anymore, as eternity is all good. It is that good ! The future is so bright you can forget the past easily. Imagine this Savior who loves you enough to make the past an old coat that you no longer need, in order to give you an eternity filled with only good. Yes this brief passage is valuable, but He waits for your arrival! This is the perspective of those who know Him. Life without him here, will not have this lift, this lightness, we are trapped, more submerged into the cares of life, and sin, which will bring destruction. Can we see the value in knowing the Lord and living this life for Him, we become ready for heaven. A life here well lived, not in perfection, but in maturity, whereby we trust Him for all things, make the needed spiritual growth, and then we simply step into heaven as a perfect segway to that which we have already been living out here ! Romans 8:18...the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared to the glory which shall be revealed in us.

FINALLY

Heaven is a wonderful poem that is being recited by the Lord God of Glory. It is the DEEPEST EXPRESSION OF HIS LOVE, this quote he put in my spirit.... All things happen THROUGH him. It is an endless expression of His love, it just continues. Perhaps we cannot imagine such bliss, but nevertheless it is a sealed deal. He paid our way to enter and become permanent residents. 1 Cor 2:9 But as it is written; eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God has prepared for those who love Him. The word even says we cannot imagine it , it is that good ! It lasts forever ! We have not known it yet, but it is ours still !

This truth will set you free into a perspective that is light and full of joy.

Heaven totally heals your perspective of the past, not that it has not happened, but it does not hurt anymore. We understand it all. But we no longer carry it all, the anointing and His love are forever healing us. What we possess now in Him is greater, the past no longer worthy to think about.

ONE can feel that He has anointed everything there, in an atmosphere of gentle and loving authority. There is not one part of heaven that is not anointed. He has become all things for us, all things that are needed to redeem us from the fall. He has become it, He is capable of it. He is forever and forever our savior. Six million years from now He will still care about your hangnail, your chapped lips. It's that small, just as you care for your own. Then it is huge. Your spiritual growth and understanding are His top priority.

A child of God who reaches for their purpose is huge in His eyes. This progress means others will experience salvation.

He governs all things. He spoke to me one day “what do you think I do “? Isaiah 9:7 “His government shall have no end”. He governs with gentleness against the kingdom of darkness. We shall not step over without Him knowing and understanding. He is waiting to help. Every thought, every project, every learning, every yearning, He is governing to meet those needs. We have to realize, He is able. I felt a bit worried for the Lord upon hearing this, so much to do I thought, but I had to realize He is God, and He is able. He serves us there with an answer to all things, our needs, our questions with His love even our need for beauty is inexhaustibly met and nurtured. We experience this as His love, His everlasting love. He does not tire of us.

No wonder the enemy hates us so much, he is missing out forever, and we are the joyful recipients of this great love, and we get to live with Jesus forever.

Our choices start eternity here, we start it all here. So choices matter, yes they matter. Do we want to be a part of this kingdom? There are ways not to step over to the enemy’s camp, holiness matters. When we step over to the enemy’s camp, he is waiting in the wings with the corresponding affliction. He is waiting, watching, scrutinizing whether or not we are in his kingdom.

I hope you have enjoyed this accounting of my journeys. They can be yours as well. That is the point. I sincerely pray along with the Lord’s hope, that you have your own journey to find salvation, and to find your special and unique purpose in God. Find your own trips up and even down. He waits for someone to give Him the faith for it. We understand this life is brief, and yet there is so much to be found in the spirit realm, just waiting for you and me. And the Lord of glory is so very willing to give it all to us !!

WE DON’T HAVE TO JUST wait for heaven !

Our life holds much more significance here than just waiting for heaven !

He is planning our purpose, saving us and healing us so we will be able to reach for it ! That we may give back the lost and hurting to His kingdom and find others who need Him.

Romans 8:18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory that shall be revealed in us. For the earnest expectation of the creature waits for the manifestation of the sons of God. For the creature was made subject to vanity, by reason of Him who has subjected the same in hope.

The manifestation of the sons of God (us) is eternal freedom and redemption from all sin and evil. We were subjected to this “vanity”, this ill world, only to have Him who was strewn on a cross, to now subject us to eternal hope through that very same cross. He did the only sane thing for us. He did the most loving thing for us.

We are privileged to wait in hope ! We have an earnest expectation of full redemption and rights to heaven ! All things have been purchased for us. This may be a tricky concept to inhale, having not experienced its fullness yet. But rest assured, there is nothing missing, nothing.

Work out your salvation ! Philippians 2:12....work out your salvation with fear and trembling. We have the privilege of reading the word of God and making sure we get it all right ! Then, reach for a purpose.... and He will take you up !! “ “Give me a reason,” this is a quote from the King of Kings. I have heard it many times as I write. If you fight for your purpose and are in the midst of it, or you need help... He will take you up ! There may be other reasons, dates and times for Him to take you up that I know nothing about and I have no reason to write about ! It is your personal journey too !

NEXT BOOK

So what about here and what about now? What are we doing here? Purpose!! He also came to give us an abundant life and a good part of this comes from salvation from sin ! A life well lived with Christ's purpose can be Wonderful! Catch up in my next book on finding our purpose !!

He loved us on purpose, died for us on purpose, and now he wants to give us our purpose for Him here ! It is the best Segway after salvation. Not an illusive dream, we can find it !

HEAVEN SO MUCH MORE THAN A DREAM

Heaven expands our souls. We know more, are more, experience more because we are growing inside from the immense and profound benefits of heaven. It is endless, one might say “NO commercials” or” it just keeps rolling.” No interruptions. We are used to commercials, interruptions, but now we will be free. It is so much more than a place of beauty and color, it is moving and alive with truth and lessons, and joy that comes from finally getting it right. He alone becomes our exceeding reward. He knows all things, understands all things, loves all things. Heaven pulses with light and the very life of the Son of God. Revelation 22:5 And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light; and they shall reign forever and ever. There are many plans in life, even many philosophies that will give peace. Rest assured that there is no greater peace that speaks of our eternal right to reign and rest with the King of Kings eternally. We are safer here following holiness, and there eternally.

Hebrews 1:3

Who, being the brightness of His glory, and the express image of His person, and upholding all things by the word of His power, when He had by Himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high. Jesus is the image of the Father, and has accomplished all His will. All the Father's heart became the service of Jesus. He followed instructions impeccably, in service, in sacrifice, in love, on our behalf.! This covenant is stronger than steel, nothing, absolutely nothing can break it !

There is a sure rejoicing that you have made it there, and a complete agreement that Jesus has made your arrival possible. You may not have one thought or praise about Him there that does not start a revival ! Others jump in on your joy, your praises..Yes they shout..yes, that is true! praise His name ! Sometimes I hear them shouting from the rafters of heaven right here with a deep agreement ! A deep understanding of salvation belongs to us both here, and forever, there.The air is absolutely saturated with it in heaven. There can be no mistake, Jesus has paid for this eternal blessing. For the redemption of the soul and the person now arriving at its true destiny. This is the truth that matters, and is a central theme of praise and rejoicing there. To emphasize this point, heaven TESTIFIES continually of the grace of God, and the eternal redemption and benefit we are to receive forever. This is not just joy. His is the ecstatic joy, and HIS becomes our joy, you have made it, you have outsmarted your enemy. You have seen life in its right perspective of this eternity, you have understood the war, you have landed in His eternity of endless benefit. No one is happier than Jesus and we will have His joy !

UNDERSTOOD

The true scope of life, and its link between earth and heaven is only truly understood through the eyes of a Christian. This is NOT arrogance. This is not narrowness or prejudice. It is truth. The truth will set you free.

There is no question or complexity about life or eternity that cannot be solved if you are a Christian. We know Him who has the wisdom available to all of us. 1 Cor 1: 25 For God's foolishness is wiser than human wisdom, and God's weakness is stronger than human strength. 1 Cor 3:19 The wisdom of this world is foolishness to God. or James 1:5 If any one of you needs wisdom, he must ask God who gives to all freely and ungrudgingly; it will be given him.

All things now belong to us forever, and we belong to Jesus forever, the Risen king, who is now our most visible king. He has now brought us full circle, to under his protection, no curse of sin shall steal. We are one, we are a family. We have learned many things during our brief stay on earth, and have chosen to love and obey Him here. This is the truth we cling to now..we will reign forever with him. WE will have endless healing and restoration from His very own life and joy. He shares His own gifts with us. Even our mistakes will work for us an eternal weave of love. We will dwell with him there safely, as we wait for his final judgements of the end times and we will arrive with Him right on time. Let's put two and two together...heaven speaks to us about His love, His care, His eternal restoration and reward for us...are you not important enough? Yes, you are made for this ! All that He has for us is not here alone, it will never fully satisfy here, it was never meant to ! He awaits our arrival with the pains of a mother or father waiting to reunite with a lost child... with rejoicing that His truth has prevailed in our hearts. There will be no woes, no plucking us from his eternal and all knowing hands. Endless benefit awaits us. May I be concise " What a deal" there is simply no better one !

Look for my next journal on finding your Godly purpose, and all that makes this life worth the ride ! Enjoy my final poem

FROM WHICH WE ROSE

Here among the shadows
Down from paradise
From which we fell
Now consumed by time
In this winter
We do dwell
But He who paints the earth
With colors and with love
Speaks of better things
From our home above
Listen children
This shall not always be Further up and further in
He will draw us in and
Draw us up
Where He alone will Fill our cup
What rumbles in this murky pond
Has been crushed by Almighty hand
Look to the cross
His blood has bought
A gathering hope
Etched forever in the sand
This faint reflection
Shall never dim
This light that burns within
Life eternal
Home with Him
