

SOMETHING DIFFERENT.....finding our Godly purpose

Most of our origins are quite imperfect. There is often a tale of tragic beginnings. A family or personal history with deep roots and stories that are hidden. Painful reminders and memories we dare not speak of.

We can ponder these things for years and never really come to a good or accurate conclusion. We may think ourselves unique, strange, cursed. This gives us a false self image the enemy has tried to cloak us with. This is the shamed based identity he has given us, resulting from trauma, abuse, and all kinds of evil designs, thrust upon us even at early ages.

Nothing could be further from the truth. The right perspective is this. We are under attack.

Earlier than our arrival to the planet, the news is out, the spirit realm has been alerted. We are on the way. So why all the fuss? The enemy of God himself knows and understands we are a package of great importance and potential....

Luke 12:6-7 "are not five sparrows sold for 2 farthings, and not one of them is forgotten before God? But even the very hairs on your head are numbered; fear not therefore; ye are of more value than many sparrows."

Ephesians 1:4 "Long ago, even before He made the world, God chose us to be His very own through what Christ would do for us..."

The enemy is aiming to subvert the best plans for our lives that are of the Lord Jesus Christ. 1Peter 5:8 "Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour."

John 10:10 “The thief cometh not but for to steal, and to kill and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.”

I am going to peel away the layers of deception and how that affected us, and even how it consequently affects the world. There are many other layers of deception that will continue on in my next book.

Chapter 1 The Blueprint

Ephesians 1:4 “According He has chosen us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before Him in love.”

This is telling us that He knew us even before He made the world. In addition to that, God chose us to be holy so we could serve Him. Ephesians 1:11 “In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestined according to the will of him who worketh all things after the counsel of His will.”

His love is so great, the Bible proves this! He has a will! He has counsel ! We are included, such a part of his plan !
In fact, we are the plan !

We all arrive with a plan, a blueprint. Everyone gets one. Everyone. There is in heavenly places a map designed just for each one of us. He knows exactly who He sent. He knows what we are made for. He knows his intentions, plans.

But the enemy is listening.
Our vulnerability lies in the fact that we cannot know all the details. There are a few really good reasons for this.

We need to discover it. We need to find it. There is obedience involved every step of the way. It has to be our decision. This is a mighty growing up in the Lord. Therefore the details are obscure. He is giving insight, signals, and often a quiet leading. But he cannot reveal what he is not sure we will obey. Seeking it, wanting it. We need to find and reach for it. It is not impossible, but often not so easy either.

Then we find. Then we find the great company of the Lord and his love. This enables us to find the plan and helps draw the actual details closer to us. We find His mighty hand of defense here. He will defend us as He is defending His plan. God is now invested in us. Counting on us. It is a real place of honor.

The enemy understands this process and the potential it holds. This is where he has a great advantage, we cannot know it all. So it is here the devil has room to play. He wants to disturb the plan. He knows that our finding it will impact and even dissolve his kingdom and his plans...if we get it right. Our enemy has had eons of years to subvert and dissuade God's best plan for everyone arriving.

There is something Satan fears. You.

You hold great potential, that is enough right there for him to get his collar hot. He is irked, worse, angry, irate. He sees things like brightness, potential, character, righteousness, spiritual gifts in us. These are the gifts of God in us, to provide service to God and others, in a beautiful and meaningful way. Someone, any one of us, at any time, may discover God's best plan within the context of our gifts. Someone also may discover the enemy's plans, his dirty work, we may interrupt him, we may very well unravel his plans altogether. It is entirely possible if we are truly listening to the Lord and seeking the plan we may survive and defeat the enemy with one swift kick. We shall not do it otherwise. We shall not do it alone. All things will be done through God, or we are only working in our flesh. The spirit realm will not bow through our own kicks alone. However, following His leading, we just might defeat him, the probability is high, we are created for this. Even if we do not know it, the enemy does and he diligently plans against our arrival of this truth.

The Lord has plans and reasons for sending us here, however, the war is on. Ephesians 6:12 “for we wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world. Against spiritual wickedness in high places.”

Once we understand this complexity we gain the advantage. We are now the ones with insight. The scales have fallen from our eyes, our perspective has now become more balanced. We are not wagging alone in life without the strategic viewpoint and wisdom of the Lord.

I have spent a lot of time on this with the express purpose to begin to unravel that shamed based identity. I do not want you cloaked with it. If we understand its inception, we are beginning to get free.

I intend to give light to the truth. That being said, even the darkest, most profoundly injured life of tragic origins can rise to the glorious most impactful purposes of the Lord. We are within our covenant with Jesus, who has power to bring the impossible evermore. We can travel safely now even through the dark glass of tragedy. It is only He who knows the way.

Chapter 2 WHO DO YOU THINK YOU ARE

Revelation 1:6 “unto him that loved us and washed us from our sins with his own blood and hath made us kings and priests unto god and his father.”

I am also introducing a new concept that needs to be understood . Who do we think we are? This matters most for our spiritual reach. I will underline these concepts and layers of deception to bring us to a good spiritual understanding and end.

God has called us kings and priests as unto Him ! We are no less than what He calls us ! We are even called to minister to Him !
“Evil will bow to the will of Him who sent you here for good.”
2Corinthians 10:4

If we are armed with this knowledge and wisdom, we will find an enemy who now has no power over us. If we are serving the one who sent us, we will find the future in a new light of power and freedom. This place to serve the one who died for us, truly exists. If we believe we are not sheep, we will find it. If we believe we are only part of the pew, and not part of the body of Christ, based on equal parts with moving anointings we certainly will not find it.

1Corinthians 12:14 “for the body is not one member but many.”
We need to comprehend our own power in Christ. The Salem witch trials went mad simply because they were filled with fear instead of the rightful power over the enemy that was theirs in Christ. Matt 10:1 “He gave them power over unclean spirits to cast them out and to heal all manner of sickness and disease.”
Christians who lived only a few hundred years ago, and used the same Bible we do today, were unknowingly following the old covenant instead of the new. Israel, in old covenant days was told to destroy a witch. These people, Christians, did not know their new covenant authority in Christ. This is the root of so many common errors!

Who do you think you are? A most vital question for the next person you are intended to find to help them reach and find eternity.

Chapter 3 THE DARK GLASS

The enemy charts and maps our life in a preventative mode so we will never find the truth. It is he who has planned our troubles and tramas. It is he who has planned layers and layers of deception. If sin or trouble does not get us, deception will. He has not been lazy contriving his multi pointed plan. He fights against his greatest enemy, a Holy God who has defeated him. He has a small inroad if he can mess up our understanding first.

When this is understood, as a juxtapositioned force against us we then see an opposing force to our gifts, it is then we begin to get free. The injuries will not impact us as deeply. Our perspective will begin to change. We have an impartation of understanding from the holy spirit of God.

It is here we can bring it all to the Lord. He can give the pain meaning. He can shed the truth in our hearts. We are now learning how the spirit realm works.

If we are truly seeking our purpose within our true identity in Christ, the glass will begin to clear. Only here will it be revealed. When we understand the attack, it is Christ alone who can restore, repair, and give it great meaning while simultaneously integrating every trial for good in his kingdom.

I can tell you with certainty that life without Christ can be a trial. We will not understand much. Who is attacking us, why. The plans against us, our failures, sickness, death. We are still in the dark. We do not understand enough to see the truth of things without the wisdom of Christ.

Prov 3:5-6 “trust in the lord with all thine heart and lean not unto thine own understanding”

There is another option. Become a Christian. Understand what it means, what He likes. It is not that difficult. It is more difficult to be in this world without Him. To pursue our purpose is actually in essence to overcome the world. As all things are contained within His will that we now carry within us.

After that, to pursue our purpose in Him is to know what the light is. The reason for your life. It is brilliant here. All things become clear through the one who has all wisdom and knowledge. The question is are we listening?

We can live as equipped saints and not fear the past or the future. He died to give us this life. 2Timothy 3:17 “that the man of God would be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.” He intends to give the child of God who serves Him everything we need to get the job done!

We contain within us the very life we will have in heaven. It is there we will continue to serve Him, as all do under His perfect love, governance and will. It is all the enemy fears, it is all the reason he tried to destroy us even at our arrival, at early ages.

God wants us to know this. He is now holding us safely in his wisdom, his power, his protection, and might, to exact his own plans. He holds the eternal in mind constantly. God will not let go of us for a moment when we are serving Him. This is our hidden strength which overcomes this present darkness in this world. He loves us and desires our best, He knows that best is in Him, we need His redemptive power in this dark world. Those plans always include others and the darkness they are in. He wants them out as much as He wanted us out, indeed, took us out. We now partake of his kingdom in service and are becoming vehicles of his light, his truth.

Inside our purpose the glass begins to clear, yes, even at the inception of our reach. The reason is we are moving closer to heaven, inside of his will.

The past will begin to dissolve as you will see its insignificance in comparison to the purposes of Him who sent you here. It is a special place. All things are becoming possible, we are seeing life through a healed perspective.

Remember our false origins are simply the enemy lying against the truth. Our victory in Christ is sure, and real, particularly in His service. "for we are more than conquerors". What a promise! Would not being a conqueror be enough? ! But no, His love and promises are so deep He promises us yet more! What more could there be? It is ours to find, have and hold throughout eternity!

Chapter 4 CAN WE SEE IT

We see with our senses every day. The events, the people, the news, our family, our friends, our hobbies, the list goes on. Other times we see with our hearts, we understand, we feel for others. We want things deeply inside our hearts. We see with our minds, all our learning, all our knowledge. And yet, He asks us not to lean on it. Proverbs 3:5-6

What is more remote, and exercised less often I find, is seeing into the spirit realm and discerning things spiritually.

1Corinthians 2:14 "But the natural man receiveth not the things of the spirit of god, for they are foolishness unto him; neither can he know them for they are spiritually discerned." We can get good at it, we can exercise our spiritual senses.

This means we are seeing things as God does, which is at a higher level. It is always the real story here, the deepest truth and most profound meaning. It is here we really discern things. We can also discern things by our past experiences and what the Lord has taught us through them. We can get good at it. We can exercise our spiritual senses to the point we easily recognize the kingdoms. We can know our enemy and what his next play is, and what he is up to. When we speak it out, he will run from us, defeated again. Now we need to take that discernment into the reality of our purpose.

Chapter 5 REALITY OF PURPOSE NOW

Now we need to take that discernment into the reality of purpose. When we begin to discern our own gifts, that is a great start. Those gifts are there for a reason. It is for those gifts we have been attacked. They must be valuable.

The very young have suffered. More deeply than they speak of. Those bullies at school are the hand of the enemy seeking to tear down self esteem and self respect so those Godly gifts and calling will be suppressed under a canopy of injury and shame. That is only one small example. The list is actually endless.

When we are oppressed or abused in any form we need to seek shelter in the one who has died for us. The one who has overcome all evil and sin on our behalf. He has overcome it means he is the one who can dig us out of it. He understands it all because he has suffered it all. He remembers it on the cross by "his stripes we are healed".

The enemy lost all power to injure us there, if we have recovered at the feet of Jesus and given him all. He will lead us out of injury and into the best plan He has that combines your gifts and calling to the world.

Our discernment is key, to understand, to seek his wisdom on all things, and not accept tragedy at face value. There is a way out. His name is Jesus.

Some of us see the kingdom of God in our midst. We can sometimes discern "the war." Other times it takes longer, and we hear from the lord after. We need to see into the spirit realm for many reasons. This life is not all there is. Simply put, we are not in actuality, experiencing earth alone. We are not just living through the wormhole of our own opinions. Reality of purpose is ours to possess and live out.

The spirit realm is alive and active. It is moving all the time. To the worst of it, hell is ready to grab us and play its hand of torture and keep us in a small ugly place for unrepented sin. To the best of it, heaven is real, they are praying for us, waiting for us to understand the simplicity of the gospel and then spread it.

To spread the gospel and use the gifts of God in you is to find reality of purpose... "the kingdom of God is within you." Do we have any idea how large and expansive the kingdom of God is? NO, for we have put him in the little box of church or rules. When the reality is, it is available inside of us, to touch the world with His love at any moment. The kingdom of God is a huge, moving and expansive place available to all believers within the express transformative purpose of changing the world.

THE LOVE REALM

1John 4:16 "And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and He that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him."

It was love and love alone that compelled Christ to enter the earth and become man. He needed to overcome the fall for us. It is love now that is able to heal us so we may move into the realm of a loving service to those who need to escape the clutches of deception and hell.

Our heavenly reward is encompassed here, in the context of love. Did we find his love and give it to others?

We are sponges of his great love, and we can disperse that liquid love to the unknown. Or those who do not yet know him. Unknown to the body of Christ. Recall to them his many mercies on your behalf, and they will begin to understand Him. They will be impressed with His love as now they will have finally experienced some of it.

If we love one another they will see we are functioning in another kingdom. They will begin to understand that God may indeed be real if we all know him this way. It is like introducing a friend we all know. "You may know him too, and the benefits are endless." This is what we are saying when we walk in love. They see a different kingdom than the kingdom of this world. This holds a strong power of conviction. This is the power of love. This is enough love to get someone saved. The mind will be transformed when witnessing or experiencing His love.

There is so much more than I can account for here, but be assured heaven is watching every step we take.

Where is our energy going for this ride? Money alone? We will actually have little reward for that in heaven. If it is singular, or without Christ and is not for him in some way. It does not hold enough meaning. It does not justify love. It pales in comparison to the great love He has shown us.

Meaning presents itself within the context which includes love. God is love. This meaning comes only from inviting others to share in his grace, his kingdom, his heaven with us. Nothing is more important.

Is this just my opinion? It will be yours too when eternity starts to roll, regardless of your new home.

Matthew 16:26 "What shall a man give in exchange for his soul?"

Chapter 6 LOVE DIVINE CONNECTION

Love connected to heaven belongs to us to disperse to the world. It is our divine connection filled with power and love. We need not feel we are working alone as long as we feel the love He has for others.

Love is the innermost working of our reason for being here. It is the deepest understanding of all things. The governance of heaven is love, and nothing is allowed outside of that in heaven.. Heaven moves in love, rules in love, stays in love, and conquers evil and sin with love. There is no movement there apart from love. There is plenty of movement here outside of love. But when we are connected to heaven here through our ministry, we walk in love here too, and defeat the evil and sin around us with it. This is a special place for every Christian to seek and find, we overcome the world with our ministry..."overcome evil with good"

We can hear from God and why He wants things done a certain way. We have a divine connection that keeps us in a higher state of intelligence and love. Without that we are subject to this world's opinion alone.

To be immersed in this love is the cry of our heart, and our longings fulfilled, and it is the only place our soul would really want to remain forever.

I want you to think about how just that is. It is only here we can live eternally. We need to understand this point in position to our flight here.

We are here in a very temporary state of life and the war is on. Without this core understanding and obedience to love we are as a clanging cymbal (1Corinthians 13:1). This implies we will be of little significance in God's kingdom without love. We will be as an instrument that clangs again and again without consequence. This is more than a concept. This is how things actually move in his kingdom. This is an accomplishment in the spirit realm we can take part of.

Love is an action. Just as Jesus took action. He loved His creation so much He took sacrificial action to save us. He demonstrated the law of sacrifice which is the opposite of selfishness. He showed us how to defeat the enemy.

At the very heart of the gospel there is love. We are lost sinners. The holy God cannot accept us as is. We need help. We need the ministry of love and sacrifice. When we were destined for an eternity without God, love took action. It has set us free for an eternity with Him. This is our first step of salvation.

The SECOND STEP

To reach for our purpose here as Jesus did, is the highest calling to the lost.

If we follow anything, we need to follow his example of love. He ministered continually in love while here, and this is what made Him successful. Love is the law of success. All things will eventually fail without it.

Family relationships, business, goals, it will fail. Only combined with the action of love will our ventures become alive to his kingdom and eventually make us successful. The actions of love will even change our personality. It holds that much great power. Our ministry and purpose are meant to be a journey of a lifetime.

It is a journey with many facets. It can be complex and even perilous. We need to know that with Jesus as the head of the plan and the body of Christ all around us, there is nothing to fear.

It can be a thrilling ride. In fact, there is nothing more exciting any human being can ever know. To serve Him, it takes being a man or a woman who is an adult.

And if there is danger, it just gets more adventurous with His creative guidance for His family. He will raise up a standard against our perils everytime, there is no fear. Here is a little saying he gave me "nothing turns, but by love," I wrote the rest.

LOVE
Nothing turns
But by love
No dark
No hurt
No lost
Nothing turns
But by love

Chapter 7 WILL WE FIND IT?

Do we believe a purpose for him actually exists? The very first step is to actually believe it exists. It is ours to find. It will require faith. And then a reach. And bravery. All within his love, it is not an impossible journey. He has meant it to be an exciting journey. Filled with his answers, his guidance and his love. If there is adventure, I will lead the way “ I am quoting this from a promise he gave me at the beginning of my journey. There is nothing to fear when serving the Lord. He knows the way. He has the map. Fear sin alone. He needs us to stay in agreement with the concept that we are his servants here, and he will keep us alive and joyful in this place. Our enemy is not lazy. He is going to work promptly to thwart it. He wants your ministry, the very reason you were born. He is after the essence of who you are, and the good you may do. We are facing an expert in sabotage before we knew it all existed. These are truths we will face when we stand before him , and yet I tell them to you now . This ignorance, or consequently, our knowledge of this, will determine the course of our life. Will it matter for Christ.? Has one person been added to his kingdom because of our brief but important stay on this earth? Our choice for the Lord must come from our hearts. As well as our purpose for him. Let your heart then be soft, agile, even vulnerable to his will. He will fill that special place with gladness and joy even at the mention, or the intention. For that place is a rare place. He sees it as pure gold. That a child of god who would seek to serve him, in the middle of this weary and torn world, is of infinite value to him he does not find it often. He will fill that place with his peace, his love, his best. He will equip you for service, and never leave you or forsake you. the man of God is equipped....2Timothy 3:17 “That the man of God may be perfected, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.”

Heart Song

Listen with your heart

Then you will understand
Let it break upon your heart
Heart Song
Listen with your heart
Then you will understand
Let it break upon the waters
Like wind upon the sand
You shall ride a flowing wave
As the lies are distant now
You will travel and meet the road
Listen with your heart
Your life a fire kindling
Will gather with deep meaning
And the past will bow
For you have overcome
Listen with your heart

Make no mistake, it is here in the heart we will find our purpose. It is here I have succeeded, by listening with my heart, instead of my own opinion, or the world about me. I have let God lead my steps from the place of a pure heart into success from Him.

Chapter 8 OUR TRUE ORIGINS: ME

Even as I stand here, I am aware of many varied gifts and callings within. My ability in each area can be linked to a special meaning of purpose for God. Not all have been put to use. Some were under such scrutiny and attack from the enemy they barely made it to the surface in life. But they are there. I had some strong talents and ability, and if used for him they would have melded with a strong calling and instinctive intuition to exact change here for Him. Only a few I have actually lived out.

Tragic losses. But I can study in heaven and redeem every one of my choosing.

Psychology came to me as a natural gift. That is to say, I understand it without education. Education backs up our gifts, this gift was so strong in me I can gather only a few facts to empathize and understand people easily. Complex terms and understanding in psychology and philosophy have always come easily for me. How we think, how we feel, and human behavior are like natural instincts for me.

I always had a very keen and natural ability to understand complexities of the mind and relationships. Why...why was it there? To solve, to help. To heal.

I still can open any psyche book and feel like I have read it already. It is like butter, so easy for me to study. I could even contribute to the body of knowledge with my own insights. This gift came naturally so schooling and education was much easier. Then all the other parts of it would be used to help people as well. It was all there. Created that way. Ponder now what is strong in you. You may then find from the Lord that very calling and the very steps you need to fulfill that calling.

Vital information

Another time I had a flashback of sorts. God took me on a trip back in time, for just a brief moment. That is to say, He allowed me to see my time in heaven before I came here. This was a treat and I really learned a lot.

I saw myself, and it jogged my memory at the same time in a way that was very deep and personal.

There in heaven I saw myself. I knew this was myself before I had entered this earth. It taught me so much right there. I then saw a group of vocalists, they could not get the notes or the harmony right.

I pushed my way in, in a kind manner, knowing I could help. I found the notes easily and showed them how.

Then, I see myself singing, loving and praising the Holy Spirit with one arm raised in praise to him, the other connected to another person.

I was deeply praising Him and loving what good friends we are. Then someone said to me, you need to go, there is a big job for you to do. I knew they were right, but I kept praising, almost in a state of denial, not wanting to leave. I am a little sad, enjoying heaven so much and do not want to go. I was enjoying the sweetness, the worship, the intense love I was feeling.

Then I begin to return from this ancient recall and to earth and papa says to me, "you were a vocalist" Now it all makes sense, I remember that time in heaven, and more importantly, I remember who I was. I have always been right at home here in vocal groups, chorus, and other singing events. Right at home, like I was made for it, because I was!

Today I enjoy churning out some opera in the kitchen, and no one seems to care but my puppy dog. But I have my own fun there. Words cannot describe this ancient memory. It was amazing and speaks deeply of our creator's love and knowledge of who we are.

Our real self only gathers truth and meaning when we are connected to His knowledge. The lover of our soul really knows who we are, who He sent, and how to get us living out our gifts within and for His kingdom.

Did I mention how much fun it is to serve Him ? It is all the enemy fears and does not want us to know about. There is life here, abundant life. It is close to heaven.

This is the essence of who I am. This is so important because we need to know who we really are in His eyes.; We may not have perceived our importance, our participation, or how He needs us. Only when we see ourselves as He does, will we even be motivated to serve Him. The enemy has lied prolifically to stop us. We cannot serve in injury, sickness or a false self image. We just won't believe in ourselves enough.

Thousands if not millions of Christians are held down here. This is the war of deception. This is the super game. Our enemy is rejoicing because many Christians do not believe in their own ministry yet. Their own service, their own crown. Lost words cannot describe my ancient memory.

(Look for more of an explanation on service in my next book, coming soon.)

As you begin your own journey of reach, why not ask papa for a ride of insight. Who was I in heaven? Who did you create me to be? What are my special gifts ? This is the deepest meaning, it will saturate your soul with peace when He shows you. He will give these answers to anyone who is truly seeking to serve him; we need to know more to be motivated in this way.

It helped me understand so deeply that Jesus is the only "head of the body of Christ. He is the giver of gifts, He is the one who understands us most. I look to him only for my ministry. No one else has His understanding and I simply will not let them sit on it or come between us.

MORE ME

Talk about imperfect and tragic origins ! Mine really ranks! I will not go into all of it, but the truth is there were deeply tragic beginnings. Why would God bring me to such a horrible place? He must not care, or be as real as I thought, this was the cry of my heart at a young age.

I had not yet put the pieces of the puzzle together yet, I could not see the picture in full without knowledge of Him. The truth was and will forever be, he was about to use ALL of it for his kingdom and my good!

It was a well planned play of the enemy. What do they call it in football? Interference ! There are accidents in the spirit realm all the time, things that the Lord has planned, that the enemy is allowed to disrupt. It creates in us a perfect picture of deception that our heavenly father does not care about us. This was my conclusion of deception that came without seeking Him in all things.

The enemy plays his hand and wins a few battles, but he will never win the entire war, we have a big brother. We have Jesus, who will do all He can to repair, mend, heal and bring it all to meaning.

I have learned the hard way in some instances, that being a good obedient child of God will give us a fighting chance in any battle. Mine was a tragic accident of an abusive parent, who took over the whole plan of God. Core ignorance (of the gospel), the dangerous sin of greed, an untransformed nature (sin nature) and mental instability was all the enemy needed. It was a nightmare from its inception.

It all created a depth of despair at an early age and many many trials.

WOW, DOUBLE WOW! WHAT A SAVE

He put out his best ! For me ! He really wanted me to stay alive
Be healed and serve Him! What a rescue, what a victory our Lord was planning !

Nothing made more of a difference than finally giving my whole heart to the Lord. It was here He was truly able to help me and give me His whole, entire, loving plan. This plan has always been in place, and it is the same for you. To make spiritual progress allows him to release his best to us. I would not let laziness or worldliness stand in the way any longer. He will take me even with imperfect beginnings and fix it. He will do anything, anything, to get us there.

So do not be afraid to come to Him with all kinds of imperfections, to find Him or your purpose. He has an answer.
We need to find it. It is the right intention for Him. After a great deal of unraveling, and healing, it was time to reach up to the high calling of my purpose. Wisdom took hold of my mind, my soul, and my entire being and life.

This was no joke. What was key to help me reach, was to divorce the world entirely, forget the past, forgive the past, and put it all behind to find more of His ways and plans.

It was all available all along, never mind the tragic past, it would be more tragic not to find this. Not to deliver all I could in serving Him to the Lord of glory, for all He has done for me.
This is how I felt in my heart, in my spiritual knower. I was about to reach higher, and even graduate to my calling.

God was calling, and I was responding, what a sweet time, an amazing time. The Lord of glory calls a child to serve as a mother calls her children home for supper. It is time, a timed blessing, all is ready. I have wisdom first, plans, details, you are ready I need you, I need you here to do something for me.

I realized my rights, I had the right to live this out.

Even a full fledged sinner as myself, my rights existed in the realm of forgiveness, I could stand on that alone. I was not going to be a sheep to this. I was growing up. I simply would not let anyone stand in between me and my Lord in this.

I could not imagine coming to this planet, and not finding out. Oh, I simply did not want to stand before Him at the end of life and hear from Him, His plan that I missed. Of everything that I may have done for Him after He has done so much for me. More than that, I wanted to serve Him with my life. I wasn't in such great need of it, and it was better to offer it. I had all the gifts to offer him all my life. It was who He made me to be after all. I seemed to have. even today, abilities and a strong resolution to do this.

I began to see this life as an opportunity to serve Him. All he had done for me, now it was my turn.

Would it be difficult, would everything turn out ok? I had no guarantees, only peace within. I was happy with that. I had learned to trust His lead even without seeing the full picture. This has become my greatest skill, and a great help. These are the advantages of following and serving him here.

It was, and continues to be the most exciting place in the universe. The child of God fulfilling a purpose for him is more important to him than anything. The past began to fall away, backwards, even further, like an old shoe dropping from a tall building, I could only see it vaguely, even in my initial pursuit. I do not use that word pursuit lightly, as it is our most profound choice to serve Him.

There I felt a gate, an opening. Wide open now. I had to walk through. The enemy of God had to bow here, he had no rights. I had not given him any. To serve God, is to know this. It is to know the enemy defeated, as we stand in this new place of service. The place he has been fighting all along. The door that opened to me is the same one that slammed in the devil's face. This enemy has always been defeated, now he had to admit it. In this life, and the next, all victory is contained within serving the will and plan of God.

The compelling ministry of the Holy Spirit quelled all my worries, I must move on. I had to find it. There is nothing else more important.

I had nothing but past victories, experience in Him, and the word of God. This would be the light to give me hope. Hope in the dark, hope in the holes and hopeless circumstances of the past that held me in plaster all my life.

It was the holding of promises in the wilderness that led me there precisely. I have come to know this as a way of life, even today, I am holding on to promises as I live with things. This cannot be imitated, this is our significance of finding. He will not have it any other way, He wants to crown us. No one can give us this. This journey is what makes us unique and significant, it cannot be undone, or outdone. It is He who knows our journey, and will give us rewards and crowns. The promises I received in the wilderness are mine alone. It is a very special and personal place between me and the Lord. I earned the rewards. Is there anything comparable to walking closely to Him in this life? I can tell you there is not.

CHAPTER 9 I HAVE GIVEN YOU EVERYTHING YOU NEED

Born and equipped with a certain set of skills to accomplish his plan. This has always existed, although in many, it remains undetected. There were so many things against me, I could hardly let these skills reach the surface, especially in my youth.

Having to deal with tragic and unforgiving circumstances was very hard. I believed many lies on top of that, and was not always in the place I should be with the Lord.

I believed glimmers of who I was, but only in a distant way. If I believed in myself in Christ, more than the lies, things may have been different.

Then one day, I did. This is when things began to really change. The enemy who was after me began to melt back into the hell he came from. He was no longer calling the shots. In Christ, I was. I began to tell him who I was in confidence, and he began to leave and his dirty lies with him.

What I found was a simple plan from the Lord to use my gifts in combination with my husbands to take the gospel around the world. This in combination with our terrific unity of spirit has created a web site that fulfills tracts around the world. He has used his gifts of illustration, his advanced technical, illustration and computer skills to build something wonderful for the Lord. I have contributed my writing and poetry skills as well as insightful bible studies and now these three books.

From my living room, and quite often in my pajamas. Serving God does not have to be hard, it is much harder and much more of a yoke to serve the other guy.

It has been a ride of uncompromising joy and adventure. Early on we were led to study church history and publish it all in a most unusual way. I would go to heaven, have adventures, and inevitably come back and stumble onto truths in the bible that will set the body of Christ free.

Truths that have been cleverly hidden from the enemy. To keep the gifts of ministry from flowing in their fullness. We are not the glorious church yet. Not all parts of the body are being used to their most effective way. The gospel is not spreading as easily as it could. I have studied all of this directed from heaven.

How the body of Christ will be free from false authority, misery, and many layers of deception. This was a time of wonder and close ministry, and something the Lord wanted done. My next book, I will expound on this.

The gospel tracts ministry that we developed together is now reaching the entire world. Any tract available can be translated into any language. Many others have contributed their ideas, books, poems, tracts that are now available. We have released so many Christians to their ministry by giving them a platform. We are now in contact with other Christians around the globe who use our website to publish their own tracts, poetry, songs, whatever they do that brings the light to the world. (tracts.com) The family He wanted to bring here and continue these outreaches, as well as their own, are held close to His heart and everyday I hear from Him regarding their life and development.

CHAPTER 10 HEAVEN SPEAKS

A bit more on Heaven, our most profound identity revealed. That is what heaven is. What is hidden to us here, is now free, to be fully understood and lived out.

It is essential to know this information and life is available to us here. The reach is pivotal here to find it. The choice is ours alone.

Heaven moves on a high frequency and it is a delight. At the same time it is strangely familiar. This is because we belong there. We are created for heaven, more than we are created for this temporary world. When you are there, one has a strange but wonderful sense of “I know this”, or “I was made for this”, or “this fits, this is just right, I want to be here”.

This is because we are made for heaven, and it is who we really truly are. This is a truth, that if we get it right, will completely set us free and shatter any lie. The knowledge of this identity profound, and deep, will dispel and mount an attack on any false doctrine, and the flames of hell will not be able to attack. When we look in the mirror we will see a strong confident child of God that the Lord himself has made with love and care. He himself shed His blood, all so this child will not miss their eternal home, that they have a right to claim for all eternity.

No wonder the enemy is so mad, you and I were made for more !

We need never put ourselves down when all will be redeemed ! A new body awaits, even in the face of age or accident, or teenage acne, it is not who we will be eternally !

Once we grasp this eternal truth we are no longer at the mercy of satanic lies that may come to us from those who are foolish enough to serve that monster.

“We are specifically to understand heaven in a deep way” I am quoting this because God has spoken this to me. I have experienced it first hand, as you find in my first book. “Heavenly Visits”. Can you imagine that you and I are not meant for anything other than eternal youth, glory, and fellowship with God in His home?

What an amazing truth! This needs to be understood deeply. When we finally conceive of this deep in our knower, all other lies will have no choice but to flee. James 4:7 “Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you.”

Our identity in Him is the only truth. You will not succumb to that which is below your true identity.

“Heaven rocks the enemy to the underground further and further”. This is another quote from the Lord as I am writing this book. He has so much He wants us to know, to be absolutely sure of.

Total redemption is ours! We have not lost! We have won!
So let's act like the risen children of God in this life, for that is what we are, that is what He paid for us to be !

As we resist the old identity the new one will reveal and take hold. We will understand we are created for good works and to bring good, as Jesus did !

Deception will flee and deliverance is ours at the moment of seeking how we are meant to serve him!

Chapter 11 MINISTRY THROUGH HIM, WE DO NOT STRIVE

Hearing is essential.

The culmination of our salvation, if we are truly growing up in Christ , will result in ministry to the world. To those whose soul has not touched the heavenly yet.

If we do not touch the deepest meaning of his intentions we won't touch the world that does not know him yet. We are one body, we cannot touch the world, unless we are one,@ equal in ministry (book 3 will expound on this).

This is where His heart beats every moment of every single day we walk the earth. We are the salt, so let's find his intentions.

We need to touch him, then touch the world, all through him. We cannot do anything for Him without Him. That's the good part, we are never alone, never undone, never without wisdom or hope in our journey to accomplish His will. This is actually life as it is meant to be lived. We are without fear because experience has brought us hope.

We cannot contrive of his doable plan for us with hearing God. He can impart His deepest intentions of love and ministry to our innermost very easily if we simply want to know and ask Him. Nothing is more simple. It is only the cloak of the enemy that would stop us. This is unexplored territory, lost, unless we ask.

In an instant we can understand ourselves from our deepest parts that involve a sense of meaning and reality in God. There exists a reality in Him that will remain hidden, unless we believe in it, and ask.

However, undeveloped, our connection with the Lord in this new place of faith will now give us the optimal advantage. We will see things in a new and meaningful light. That is just the beginning.

He is our inspiration now, our light, our answer, our source.

He shows us the way like no one else can. There is no guessing.

He needs us. Listen for His best plan. It exists.

Hold your ground, He will reveal.

Within God's plan, the challenges are put into place, and it becomes clear what all the fuss was about. The enemy was fighting this place.

We will learn why He needs us. No one can take our place. The intimacy and experience with the master has given us significance that no one else may take.

We are in essence, apostles, which in the Greek, means to be sent. Are you here? Check your pulse. You have been sent!

You and I have been sent from heaven with a purpose, a reason.

Our hidden identity will surface and glow with meaning. God will make sure you know and understand his plans at the point of our agreement. And then continually as we live it out. All things are encompassed here.

I wrote this poem after coming to a full understanding of my own Godly purpose. To set you free. To unravel deception. To release ministry to the body of christ.

SIGNIFICANCE

I will show you
Come closer, closer still
I can tell you things
You know not of
Take refuge in this room
Where the air and sun
Pour through the tiny window
From a thousand acres
Of meaning and light

Under the shade of my giant spruces
I will cover you with confidence
And keep you near
Reach past the shallow wall of doubt
And find my mighty hand
Take refuge here and i will show

You your significance
In a thousand grains of sand
I will touch you with my ocean
And teach you with my breeze
As a captive flees from a cage
You were meant to fly
To spread my word, my love
To travel the skies
High above the lies
Let me take you to the place
Where you were meant to be

Chapter 12 ANYTHING HE TOUCHES.....

.....will become greater.

God is keen to touch our soul. He needs to expand it after sin, darkness, ignorance, all the dark places we have entered here, engineered by our enemy.

The part of us that has forgotten the Lord, it needs His divine reminding. The part of us that has sinned. He will wash and cleanse and give a new direction.

The part of us that does not know and has not sought His will, needs to be enlightened deeply.

We become bigger on the inside, having been given a more complete understanding of self, and our place in this world. The game has risen to new heights.

Now our larger healed soul will reach more souls that are still in the sin, the dark, ignorance.

This will result in the expansion of his eternal kingdom. He lives to touch these places within us. Knowing full well, the value of eternity, and the souls waiting to find your reach. The souls you will help save for Him, for eternity.

While we work each day, play each day, and pay our way through life, thinking it is so very important.

God knows a more important truth. The eternal ride awaits each soul. Hebrews 9:27: "It is appointed unto man once to die, and then the judgment."

Let your soul become bigger for Him. This is the soul who will reach the hurting, the unsaved. It is only the small untouched place where the enemy can exact his many plans. Only in a small, corrupt place can the devil succeed, and grow his dark kingdom successfully.

Only the enlarged soul filled with God's wisdom will touch the world in a meaningful way. We only have to ask.

ASK

I see the dark raven
Rummaging from branch to branch
within the icy tree
She drops her find
Only to chase it again
I am close but hidden
Behind a foggy window
I see her mates run to and fro
The snow will hold them captive to hunger
Unless they continue to find
I have mercy
I send a few almonds and walnuts
So we are without his love, his touch, his wisdom

We will run about hoping to stave off evil
Having not understood his plan
It is when we seek, we ask
Now we understand
And at last we rest
At last evil has no fair play
For he has thoroughly and completely
Dispersed the almonds and more
To complete the purpose at hand
If only we had asked.

Chapter 13 OUR MINISTRY NOW

There is not enough ministry in this lost world. Our enemy knows it is the key to everything. Satan has worked tirelessly against it. He takes up permanent residence against it in our souls if we let him.

The enemy has principalities at play against it that we are unaware of.

God wants our ministry to flourish here on the earth. That is so very simple. And so deep on many levels. He needs us. I have heard it said "he needs nothing". This is a lie.

Jesus knows who He has sent. No one can be you. No one knows you like He does. No one can take your place.

He knows the needs among us, and He knows exactly who He is sending and why.

You can find more, and be who God knows you are. This will confound the world when you find it. 1 Corinthians 1:27 "But God has chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God has chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty”

God wants us to warm up to the idea of helping Him here. Our ministry here is one of the safest and simultaneously one of the most dangerous as well. It is much safer to stay in our sin, or to stay lazy, unmotivated, selfish, the enemy will not fight us there. He will fight us if we are actively reaching to our ministry.

So there is danger, the enemy is going to be fighting mad, yet we are safe in the Lord’s everlasting love, wisdom and protection.

Every child of God has the entire chain of promises in the Word of God. The fight is on, and the victory is always ours.

A life of ministry and significance is often a quiet one, we need never be famous. We do not always know what He is calling us into. Only that we say yes. This is the very beginning. The Lord knows His own and what He needs to do through us, if we have His plan, and are listening to it.

Chapter 14 PART OF OUR BRAIN

Finding ministry is part of our spiritual growth. It is a deception to sit in church and say “this is all there is, I have found it.”

When, not if, we outgrow the pew, we will not understand why we are bored. It is because we are made for more.

So it is a further understanding that it is part of our salvation to reach for our ministry. That is causing us to feel unsettled. It is actually God calling us.

I am going to go further and tell you, that purpose is actually part of our brain !

Let me now support that statement with an experience I had. Through a family connection I was able to see a situation over time that both perplexed me and intrigued me.

Part of our brain

I am going to give you an example, or evidence if you will, that finding a purpose is actually part of our brain.

It started when through a family connection, I was able to see 3 sisters and a brother over time. This family ranged in age but they were all considered seniors. Over time all of them succumbed to Alzhiemers disease except for one.

I could not help to ponder why from a purely scientific perspective why the one, remained free of disease? Then I changed, and began wondering if the implications could be spiritual. It turns out the spiritual affected the physical. Then I could not help but ask the Lord for answers.

He seemed to imply to me, in this case, what the difference was. The one sister who did not succumb to the disease was the leader. She helped the others and employed them after starting a business. She had no or very little religious repetition.

The younger ones were sheep to everything. And became that way through religious repetition. That is to say, instead of leading in a way that would be helpful, they just followed rules, routines and schedules that were very shallow and on the surface.

This belief in their own 'sheepness' made them sheep to every circumstance in life. They seldom found answers to anything on their own, or assumed leadership or looked further into a Godly purpose.

This was very intriguing for me to learn, and has also been in line with the same type of education the Lord has given me for years regarding church history. You will find much more on this in my next book, in detail.

When thinking about putting this information in this book, I heard the Lord speak, "it is part of your brain"

Yes, finding and living out a service to our Lord is actually part of our brain! It is downloaded and ready to be made alive in us through receptors that are already in place.

To deny a purpose for God, is to deny our brain its rightful place to grow, and expand into its full stature of maturity!

In the case of the sister who did not perform religious exercises filled with routine and submission, but found a way to help, her brain became less vulnerable to the ravages of the disease. Her leadership initiative and willingness to serve gave her a brain that was stimulated in areas that submission will never allow.

To stay in a system that does not allow one to live out a ministry, the other siblings' brains became more vulnerable and eventually sick from the lack of stimulation that a purpose may have given them. The necessary connections to fight the disease come from the fulfillment of helping others.

So we see that the spirit realm can be connected to the physical realm, and indeed at every stage of our lives.

Who we believe ourselves to be is vital as I have explained.

Ephesians 2:10: "For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them."

Chapter 15 NOT ALONE THROUGH HIM

We will not serve alone. We serve through Him. His love, His wisdom, the abundance of this will allow His life to flourish in the darkness.

Jesus has even made this easy. We can do nothing without Him. John 15:5: "I am the vine, ye are the branches: he that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing."

This is good news, Christ is the head of the body. He will move it in the direction He knows best. Just as we move our body every single day. Our head knows what to do, what it wants, and directs every part of us. Our brain tells the body what to do every day,

So is God to us. He wants to direct the body. This is our spiritual home, our place of habitation. This is our privilege, it is hidden, quiet, it remains so against the enemy.

This planet is the perfect hunting ground for the enemy of God. We are the promise of easy pickings for Satan, in a world absent of God's protection through the gift of salvation.

Evil was present before our arrival and created by massive forces of heavenly war, and angelic, demonic activity.

God the Father has enriched our chances of survival and success greatly by the arrival and sacrifice of his only Son. He is our source, He is our hope.

This has made us rich and full of hope again as we lean on His understanding.

They need more wisdom, they need the Lord. To live alone here without God, is to live in the darkness of self motivation. There is not enough light to save us in that alone.

It is a daunting thing to think of changing the world alone. We can have wonderful dreams and intentions and still get nowhere at all.

There is a reason for this conundrum. We are not meant to do any of it alone. We have a high priest, we have the head of the body, Jesus. But are we being the body? (I will go into detail about this in my next book.)

For now I will encourage your ministry.

If we are truly judging it right, we are meant to repossess the knowledge of who we are. It will be clear to us when we have truly tuned to God, and believed for His pure leading.

When we do not seek to mimic what we see around us, we become more powerful.

We then seek to find our own unique significance in Christ. It is a sliver of genius. When we seek the reason, a purpose for which we are created, within the context of the gospel, and our gifts and strengths for Him.

This is when God can undo every lie, and set us free.

Finding our significance for Him is an undiluted joy. It holds everything the Lord has been waiting for, everything He needs us to be to make gains for His kingdom.

But the enemy is hiding this valuable information, by telling us our gifts do not matter. This is because the devil knows those very gifts and calling will defeat him. The number of tricks he knows have no end. Satan will use worldly attacks that scream at you after he attacks, "How could you possibly serve the Lord now?"

The enemy uses these layers and layers of lies so all we see is problems, and we will never dream of going any further, trust me, I know all about his plans! I have lived through every painful one, only to find the Lord of glory more powerful than all of them!

God has brought me to a better place. So I may serve him! All the enemy has feared has manifested in service today.

We can repossess the knowledge of who we really are! Every part of us He has known, and now it is known to us. Gifts, talents, emerging from inside of us, and now we know why they are there, and how it may be used for good.

If we work for ourselves, and help only ourselves, we are not serving God. We can become totally selfish, and seek only our own good and pleasure. This is life in the flesh and ours will be hollow victory.

He has made my life and ministry one of surety that includes serving and caring for someone else.

Today, our tract ministry reaches millions overseas simply because we have listened and trusted his voice and his leading. All has been through Him, and not of our own making." Through him" is a wonderful place! God relieves every burden to accomplish His will. Do we know this secret place? It is worth pursuing. Romans 8:37: "Nay in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him that loved us."

Chapter 16 JUST AS SIN

Ignorance is the place that our enemy hides and gains his greatest victory and steals from us.

There are many easy ways our enemy steals. I say easy because if we are unaware, it is easy for him to do. The first and most obvious is sin, there are many more easy ways for the devil to steal, that are not so obvious.

Ignorance, under development and not growing up. If we do not grow up to our significant place of ministry then the enemy will have those souls we were intended to reach. He can steal their souls and healing we are capable of giving them through a life filled with the knowledge of his will.

If we do not grow up he will also have a right to steal from us. Satan is stealing our crowns. He is stealing the thanks we long to hear from papa. To be free from this regret, is to know the liberty of serving God.

It is the soul that does not pursue the Lord and never finds salvation that stays in an unrenewed spiritual condition .

This soul will find its way to hell having never made the effort.

Spiritual exercise, that is part of faith. To move, to attempt in that direction. If we are lazy and miss it, we will not find life. It is the same for our ministry. If we are lazy, and do not pursue the possibility from laziness or unbelief in regards to our own significant purpose for the Lord, we will not find a full completed life.

That is to say, we will make heaven, but the enemy will be allowed to attack and steal here in the earth. Christians in this position will find themselves with questions and trials that seem unsolvable. This seems harsh. But the consequences of not understanding this can be “as severe as the consequences from sin”. Equally tragic. This is a quote from the Lord.

It is another type of darkness, not to grow up and find your calling. Just as sin is a darkness before salvation. Both will have consequences. This is not a threat, it is wisdom, and wisdom applied will always lead to success.

The truth is that serving God is life, freedom, and leads to life. It is here He can truly live in us, among us and bless us.

Our ministry will never get off the ground unless we truly believe in ourselves, in Him. Your ministry is now hiding under cleverly disguised layers of false authority. It is hiding under your own belief in who you are. (I will continue in this line of reasoning in book 3).

14 That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;

15 But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:

16 From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love. (Ephesians 4:14-16)

Chapter 17 THE POISONOUS PEDAGOGY

Who is called?

Traditionally, we have been taught, after salvation, we attend church. This has merit as we can hear the word of God and learn. I have to emphasize, there is a further reach for the saved soul. The issue I have found in many, is that we simply do not know the reach exists. Or that God has a real plan that will get us to our purpose for him in the earth while here. We genuinely do not know it exists. One could say, we have not been taught or seen it being done as an example. We still believe our job is to keep the pew warm, not many are venturing further.

We have been taught the poisonous pedagogy that ministry is only for a few..... let's say 10 percent that is all the Lord is really calling. This is the example we have seen in church, but it is not what the word of God says at all. The Word says this:

Romans 8:28 "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them that are called according to his purpose."

Not many of us have reached for this. There really is no good example and many are not finding their calling. We tend to believe it is only for a special few. This is the trick of the enemy to immobilize the majority of the body of Christ. Is success the picture of one person, the "minister", standing before a very large group of congregants? The more who are not in ministry, the better? Most do not realize this is the picture of the old covenant temple, not the example of Christ or His followers in the new testament.

Who is called to ministry? It really is no mystery. I hear the Lord answer" every single Christian is called to ministry"

It is a high calling, it is another dimension of obedience, that exceeds our knowledge of just sitting in a pew. We tend to outgrow our place in the pew, and then we are unsure of what to do. The reason we outgrow the pew is because there is another reach waiting.

Without wisdom or example we will remain stunted in our growth and walk for Christ. We will suffer boredom from repetition with no results, and not understand why. The understanding is this, there is more to be found.

Core ignorance of God's kingdom is the condition of the unsaved, they suffer many things, including sickness without the wisdom of the gospel to set them free.

In much the same way, core ignorance for the Christian regarding their own service and ministry will result in a useless routine and an unfulfilled life. Wanting to serve, but unfulfilled. Without the knowledge of who we really are, or how powerful we can be against the enemy right here.

Please look for more on how our purpose is undermined by deception. in my next book, which has no title yet, and how purpose is subverted by the enemy.

It will contain profound truths that have ancient and hidden roots. I have alluded to some of it here in book 2, but I will be going into far greater detail. All with Biblically based facts and arguments.
